GOVERNOR CHRIS CHRISTIE

2013 STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

Lt. Governor Guadagno, Madam Speaker, Mr. President, members of the Legislature, fellow New Jerseyans.

Since George Washington delivered the first State of the Union in New York on this day in 1790, it has been the tradition of executive leaders to report on the condition of the nation and state at the beginning of the legislative year. So it is my honor and pleasure to give you this report on the state of our state.

One year ago, we were scheduled to gather on this second Tuesday in January when our friend and colleague Alex DeCroce passed suddenly the night before, causing us to delay this report. I miss the hard work and kind spirit of Alex . I think of him often, but I am so pleased to see his wife Betty Lou here in this chamber as a duly elected member of the Assembly today. She continues his work and does honor to his memory.

Just three months ago, we were proceeding normally with our lives, getting ready for a national election and the holidays to follow. Then Sandy hit.

Sandy was the worst storm to strike New Jersey in 100 years. 346,000 homes were damaged or destroyed. Nearly 7 million people and 1,000 schools had their power knocked out. 116,000 New Jerseyans were evacuated or displaced from their homes. 41,000 families are still displaced from their homes.

Sandy may have damaged our homes and our infrastructure, but it did not destroy our spirit. The people of New Jersey have come together as never before. Across party lines. Across ideological lines. Across ages, races and backgrounds. From all parts of our state. Even from out of state. Everyone has come together.

So today, let me start this address with a set of "thank yous" from me on behalf of the great people of this state. First, I want to thank the brave first responders, National Guard, and emergency management experts who prepared us for this storm and kept us safe in its aftermath.

I want to thank the members of this Legislature for their cooperation in answering Sandy's challenges and for being by my side as I toured so many of the devastated areas of our state.

I want to thank the Community Food Bank of New Jersey, the Southern Baptists, the Salvation Army and the American Red Cross – who helped us deliver over one million pounds of food and over five million meals and snacks to families who needed them. They are part of a network of organizations, a family really, who make life better in New Jersey every day – and who really came through when the times were toughest.

I want to thank the New Jersey Business and Industry Association, the state Chamber of Commerce, the Commerce and Industry Association of New Jersey and the National Federation of Independent Businesses – for keeping us in touch with the needs of small businesses in the wake of the storm, so New Jersey can help get these businesses back on their feet.

I want to thank the 17,000 out-of-state utility workers who came to New Jersey from all over America and joined with 10,000 of our own to get power restored as quickly as possible – so that within nine days of this horrific storm, electric power had been restored to 90% of customers.

I want to thank the members of my cabinet and senior staff, who for days before the storm and weeks after it, put their own personal losses aside, worked 18 hours a day and slept very little. They led their departments and their dedicated colleagues in putting the safety and well-being of others ahead of their own.

To everyone who opened their homes, assisted senior citizens, fed their neighbors, counseled the grief-stricken, or pitched in to clear debris, remove sand, or get a school back opened, I say "thank you." You have helped define New Jersey as a community, one which – when faced with adversity – rolls up its sleeves, gets back to work, and in word and deed shows that it will never, ever give up. And make no mistake. We will be back, stronger than ever.

The spirit of our New Jersey community was shown in the days immediately after the storm. In Sea Bright, Mary Pat was by the side of one small businessman at the moment when he was allowed to return to his business and see what Sandy had done to his restaurant, a pizzeria. As the plywood was removed, allowing him to see for the very first time the destruction of his means of earning a living, he turned and said without hesitation: "Don't worry. We will build this back better than it was."

His words were forceful. They were optimistic. And they were emblematic – capturing the indomitable spirit of this state.

And he was just one example of how New Jersey and its citizens were showing our whole country how to bravely and resolutely deal with a crisis.

Citizens like Frank Smith, Jr., the Volunteer Chief of the Moonachie First Aid Squad. His home was destroyed during the storm. His headquarters were destroyed during the storm. After securing the safety of his three young children, he did not take himself to higher ground. No, he led his team through fires and flood waters, through buildings and trailer parks, and saved over 2,000 lives. Moonachie's citizens were saved because he put them first. Frank thanks for your bravery.

In Toms River, Marsha Hedgepeth, an emergency room technician, had the day off when Sandy hit her hometown. She could have gotten herself to safety and forgotten about her colleagues at the community medical center and most importantly her patients. Instead, facing several feet of water on her flooded street, she swam to higher ground, then hitchhiked with a utility worker from Michigan and got to the hospital for a 12-hour shift treating her fellow citizens. Swimming through flood waters to save lives—thank you Marsha for setting such a great example.

In Brick, Tracey Keelen and Jay Gehweiler watched as the flood waters consumed their town. Concerned about Jay's father, they tried to reach him and could not. Not content to wait, they put on their wet suits, got in their row boat and rescued Jay's dad. In the process, they saw dozens of others stranded in their homes. They turned back around and, one by one, saved over 50 of Jay's father's neighbors along with their pets. Then, for those they rescued who had no place to go, they housed them as well. They admitted they did not know these neighbors that well before the storm, but they didn't care—they put extending a helping hand in a crisis ahead of social comfort. Thank you to Tracey and Jay for saving lives and making a difference.

New Jerseyans are among the toughest, grittiest and most generous people in America. These citizens are a small example of that simple truth. Our pride in our state in our moment of loss and challenge is reflected in the eyes of these extraordinary people.

You see, some things are above politics. Sandy was and is one of those things. These folks stand for the truth of that statement.

We now look forward to what we hope will be quick Congressional action on a full, clean Sandy aid bill - now, next week -- and to enactment by the President. We have waited 72 days, seven times longer than victims of Hurricane Katrina waited. One thing I hope everyone now clearly understands—New Jersey, both Republicans and Democrats, will never stand silent when our citizens are being short changed.

The people of New Jersey are in need, not from their own actions but from an act of God that delivered a natural, human, and financial disaster -- and we are thankful to the people of America for honoring the tradition of providing relief. We have stood with the citizens of Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Iowa, Vermont, California and Missouri in their times of need—now I trust that they will stand with us.

So make no mistake. New Jersey's spirit has never been stronger. Our resolve never more firm. Our unity never more obvious. Let there also be no mistake: much work still lies ahead. Damage that comes only once in a century will take in some cases years to repair.

Here is some of what we have done already:

We have created a cabinet-level position to coordinate the State's efforts across every agency - and Marc Ferzan is here today - ready to work with you on this restoration effort.

We've requested the federal government to pay 100% of the costs of the significant debris removal that we require - and have already received $18 million for that task.

We have secured $20 million from the Federal Highway Administration for emergency repair of our roads, bridges and tunnels - a down payment on a major infrastructure task ahead.

We have directed our Department of Environmental Protection to streamline approvals for restoring critical infrastructure.

We have overseen the removal of over 2.5 million cubic yards of debris to date and counting. 17 towns have already completed debris removal. Over 1,000 trucks are working daily to continue dry land debris removal with 26 more towns moving towards completion. We are now removing debris from our waterways. New Jerseyans need to know—nearly 1,400 vessels were either sunken or abandoned in our waterways during Sandy. In Mantoloking alone, 58 buildings and 8 cars were washed into Barnegat Bay. We will remove this debris and dredge the bay to reduce the risk of flooding and to improve the health of the bay—beginning the very same week that this Administration furthers its commitment to the health of the bay by implementing the toughest fertilizer law in America.

We have helped get temporary rental assistance for 41,000 New Jersey families, and where necessary, secured transitional shelters in hotels or motels or even in Fort Monmouth.

We have worked with the Small Business Administration to secure nearly $189 million in loans for thousands of home and small businesses, and through our New Jersey EDA, we have provided lines of credit for businesses awaiting insurance reimbursement, grants for job training, and benefits for displaced workers.

Our New Jersey DOT has been one of the busiest agencies - removing over 4,400 truckloads of debris from state and local roads, and cleaning another 4,300 truckloads of sand to restore and replenish our beaches.

Our Department of Education has worked night and day to get schools re-opened right away, and where that wasn't possible, to get them restored by the next school year - all while maintaining our commitment to a full 180-day school year of education for our kids.

Executive Order 107 makes sure that when insurance payments do come, they are not compromised by excessive deductibles and ensures that our citizens maximize their reimbursement.

While there are dozens of other examples of the never quit attitude of this Administration and our citizens, there is none better than the miracle of Rt. 35 in Mantoloking. At the Mantoloking Bridge, Rt. 35 had been completely washed away by Sandy—I stood at the spot where the Atlantic Ocean flowed into the bay where Rt. 35 once carried thousands of cars a day to vacations down the shore. Within days, Commissioner Jim Simpson, the Department of Transportation and our private sector partners had a temporary road built to allow emergency vehicles onto the island. Now, merely 10 weeks after our state's worst storm, you see a permanent Rt. 35 already being rebuilt. That's what an effective government can do. That's what a determined people can do. That is how and where we will lead New Jersey in the months and years ahead.

There is no question that Sandy hit us hard – but there is also no question that we're fighting back with everything we've got.

Sandy took a toll on New Jersey's economy.

Just when we were coming back from the national recession, Sandy disrupted our economic life: cars weren't bought, homes weren't sold, and factories couldn't produce. From those things we can catch up, and we are catching up. But make no mistake, as common sense would tell you, Sandy hurt New Jersey's economy.

Some losses we will never get back – electric power that wasn't produced, visitors who didn't come to our casinos or our downtown centers.

In all, Sandy cost us over 8,000 jobs in November – mostly in our leisure and hospitality industries. But we were relatively fortunate. Louisiana lost 127,000 jobs after Hurricane Katrina.

Sandy may have stalled New Jersey's economy, but there is plenty of evidence that New Jerseyans have not let it stop our turnaround.

The direction is now clear.

Here is the latest economic report:

Unemployment is coming down.

2011 was our best private sector job growth year in eleven years and 2012 is also positive.

Personal income set a record high in New Jersey for the seventh quarter in a row.

Gross income tax receipts are exceeding the Administration's projections for this fiscal year prior to Sandy.

Sales of new homes are up.

Consumer spending is up.

Industrial production is up.

Since I took this office, participation in New Jersey's labor force is higher than the nation as a whole and the number of people employed has grown. That means that more people have the confidence to be out looking for jobs, and more people actually have jobs.

In total, we have added nearly 75,000 private sector jobs in New Jersey since we took office in January 2010.

I mention the words 'private sector' advisedly, because we have not grown government. Quite the contrary. We have gotten our house in order by keeping our promise to reduce the size of government.

In the last three years, we have cut more than 20,000 government jobs. In 2012, we had fewer state government employees than at any time since Governor Whitman left office in January 2001. We promised to reduce the size of government and we have delivered.

We have also held the line on taxes. We have held the line on spending. We have made New Jersey a more attractive place in which to grow a business, to grow jobs, to raise a family.

This Legislature knows the history.

In fiscal year 2010, we faced a $2 billion budget deficit with only 5 ½ months left in the fiscal year when we took office. We cut over 200 programs and balanced the budget with no new taxes.

In fiscal year 2011, the picture was even worse: a projected $11 billion deficit – on a budget of $29 billion – in percentage terms, the worst in the nation. In total, we cut 832 programs. Each department of government was reduced. An 8% cut in spending – in real dollars spent -- not against some phony baseline. But with this Legislature's help, again we balanced the budget without raising taxes.

Because we had made the tough choices, last year's budget was a bit easier – we were able not only to balance the budget, but to actually begin to reduce taxes by enacting the first year of tax relief for job-creating small businesses in New Jersey. Meanwhile, we devoted a record amount in aid to schools in New Jersey.

And in the budget which governs the current year, even with growth in the national economy slowing again, we have been able to achieve balance with not only no new taxes, but with a second year of small business tax relief.

And let me make this point clearly and unequivocally. Despite the challenges that Sandy presents for our economy, I will not let New Jersey go back to our old ways of wasteful spending and rising taxes. We will deal with our problems but we will continue to do so by protecting the hard earned money of all New Jerseyans first and foremost. We will not turn back.

Our handling of the budget is but one example of the change that I told New Jersey had arrived with our inauguration. I've come to this chamber in the years since that day urging us to do the big things to transform our state; to make the tough decisions we had avoided for far too long.

We asked this in the context of a state where only 27% of our citizens felt that government was moving our state in the right direction in January 2010. We asked this while the citizens of our country watched a dysfunctional, dispirited and distrustful government in Washington bicker and battle not against our problems but against each other. Against that backdrop, few would have bet on us; few would have bet on New Jersey leading the way to restore people's belief that government could accomplish things for them. But here we are, three years later, and look at all of those things some called impossible in this town that we have made a reality.

A real 2% property tax cap. Interest arbitration reform. Pension and health benefit reform. Teacher tenure reform. Higher education restructuring resulting in Rutgers now being in the top 25 in research dollars and the newest member of the Big 10. $1.3 billion in new capital investment in all our universities for the first time in 25 years. A ground breaking teacher contract in Newark that finally acknowledges merit pay. Three years ago, a national reputation for corruption and division and waste. Today, a national model for reform and bipartisanship and leadership. Let's review this new reality specifically, to remind our constituents and ourselves how far we have come and to resolve to never return to the old, dark days of our past in Trenton.

Four years. Four balanced budgets. No new taxes. New tax relief to create 75,000 new private sector jobs.

A far different picture from the prior eight years, which saw 115 increases in taxes and fees. It hasn't been easy, but we have done it together. And the people of New Jersey are better off for it.

The story is the same on property taxes, maybe even better. They had increased 70% in the prior 10 years -- the most in the nation.

Together, we enacted a 2% per year cap on growth and the interest arbitration reform that was needed to make that cap work.

Many said it wouldn't work, but the record tells a different story.

Last year, property taxes in New Jersey grew by only 1.7% -- the lowest rise in two decades.

And our pension system, which was on a path to insolvency, is now on much more sound footing. With your help, we tackled the problem head on – modestly raising the retirement age, reducing incentives for early retirement, suspending COLAs until the plan is 80% funded, and yes, asking for something slightly closer to market in terms of employee contributions.

In total, the pension and health benefits reform package that you passed will save taxpayers over $120 billion over the next 30 years. Just as importantly, it will help make sure the pension is actually there when our public employees and school teachers retire. Other states have noticed: this reform is becoming a model for America.

When we combine this needed discipline on spending and taxes, with responsibility in addressing our long-term liabilities, with pro-growth actions on the regulatory side, we have made New Jersey a better place to do business.

The combination of policies that are not hostile to business, and an environment which actually welcomes new businesses and new jobs, is working.

It is clear. In a competitive world, policies matter. Companies have choices. Job-creators have choices. That is why our work is far from done.

That is why a top priority must be to continue New Jersey's record of excellence in education, and to fix problems where we are failing.

In higher education, the task force led with skill by former Governor Tom Kean has helped us develop strategies for making New Jersey's institutions more competitive. We need to turn New Jersey's universities – including Rutgers – from good to great, because that will help us keep more talented New Jersey students in New Jersey, and will strengthen the link between higher education and high quality jobs.

At the heart of these reforms we need, of course, is the plan to make sure that New Jersey's critically important medical and health sciences institutions remain world class. By merging Rutgers and UMDNJ in the north and Rowan and UMDNJ's Stratford campus in the south, we will enhance three established hubs of educational excellence in north, south, and central New Jersey. And we will bring Rutgers, and New Jersey medical education, into the 21st century. I thank you for passing this plan, and I was proud to sign it into law this summer.

In K-12 education, we have made great strides, but there is much more to be done.

Who would have thought, just three years ago, in the face of entrenched resistance, that I could stand here and congratulate us today for the following:

Ensuring accountability by passing the first major reform of tenure in 100 years;

Establishing performance-based pay in Newark through hard-nosed collective bargaining so that we can reward and retain the very best teachers where we need them most;

Implementing inter-district school choice, which has tripled its enrollment in the last 3 years and will grow to 6,000 students next year;

Growing the number of charter schools to a record 86 in New Jersey;

Signing the Urban Hope Act to turn failing schools into Renaissance Schools in Newark, Trenton, and Camden;

And finally, investing the largest amount of state aid to education in New Jersey history– $8.9 billion in this year's budget, over $1 billion higher than in Fiscal Year 2011.

In New Jersey, we have combined more funding with needed reform. Both money and reform of our schools are essential, but neither alone is sufficient. In New Jersey, we are leading the way for the nation by providing both.

As we assess the state of our state this afternoon, we should be proud of our record. The state is stronger today than it has been in years. We are recovering and growing, not declining and descending.

We are working together, not just as a people in digging out from Sandy and rebuilding our economy. Here in Trenton, in this chamber, we have had our fights. We have stuck to our principles. But we have established a governing model for the nation that shows that, even with heartfelt beliefs, bipartisan compromise is possible. Achievement is the result. And progress is the payoff.

So I want to thank President Sweeney and Speaker Oliver, Leaders Kean and Bramnick– for your hard work, for your frankness when we disagree, and for your willingness to come together on the truly important issues – on the big things.

Maybe the folks in Washington, in both parties, could learn something from our record here. Our citizens certainly have—now 61% of them believe our state is moving in the right direction—more than double the amount that believed it on that cold day in January three years ago.

Make no mistake; our work is far from finished.

Rebuilding the homes and infrastructure damaged and destroyed by Sandy is the next big challenge and it will take years. We will need to spend our funds wisely and efficiently. We will need to cooperate. We will need to learn the lessons from past disasters and listen to each other.

The good news is that strong leadership and bipartisan cooperation makes all these things possible . Our work over the last three years proves that beyond argument. Having worked hard to tackle our most urgent legacy problems – having faced up to and corrected some poor decisions from the past – we now have more freedom to chart a course of excellence in the future.

As we begin this new legislative year, we can now look ahead from Sandy, ahead from the national recession, to a brighter day for New Jersey.

The author Bern Williams once said, "Man never made any material as resilient as the human spirit."

For all I have seen and experienced as your governor in this extraordinary year, one experience will be indelibly etched in my memory. Her name is Ginjer.

As I walked around the parking lot of the fire department in Port Monmouth in one of the days soon after Sandy had laid waste to so much of our state, I saw so many of the scenes that I had come to expect in the aftermath of the storm.

Neighbors helping neighbors. Food being prepared for the hungry. First responders helping the homeless. Then I met nine-year-old Ginjer. Having a nine-year-old girl myself, her height and manner of speaking was immediately familiar and evocative. Having confronted so many crying adults at that point I felt ready to deal with anything. Then Ginjer looked at me, began to cry and told me she was scared. She told me she had lost everything; she had lost her home and her belongings. She asked me to help her.

As my eyes filled with tears, I took a deep breath and thought about what I would say to my Bridget if she said the same thing to me. If she had the same look on her face. If she had the same tears in her eyes. I asked her where her mom was and she pointed right behind her. I asked her if her dad was ok. She told me he was. So I told Ginjer, you haven't lost your home; you've just lost a house. A house we can replace, your home is with your mom and dad. I hugged her and told her not to cry—that the adults are in charge now and there was nothing to be afraid of anymore. Ginjer is here today—we've kept in touch—and I want to thank her for giving voice to New Jersey's children during Sandy and helping to create a memory of humanity in a sea of despair.

In this year ahead, let us prove the truth of the words I spoke to Ginjer that day. Let's put aside destructive politics in an election year. Let's put aside accusations and false charges for purely political advantage. Let's work together to honor the memories of those lost in Sandy. Let's put the needs of our most victimized citizens ahead of the partisan politics of the day. Let's demonstrate once again the resilience of New Jersey's spirit. And let us continue what we have started:

Rebuilding from Sandy with pride and determination; Restoring our economy to growth and prosperity after a decade of decline and high taxes; and Reclaiming the promise of New Jersey for future generations - presenting to our children renewed excellence in our schools, a sound and balanced budget, and a vibrant economy with jobs for those willing to work hard.

That is our mission - to hurdle barriers no matter how high, to fight the elements of doubt or disaster, and to leave this place better than we found it.

Let us prove, once and for all, that what I said to Ginjer is undeniably true: the adults are in charge. Let's accomplish the mission of rebuilding our battered state and restoring the hope and the faith and the trust of our people that government can work in a bipartisan way to restore our great way of life to all New Jerseyans.

In the year ahead, I look forward to working with all of you on that most important mission of all.

Thank you, God bless you, and God bless the great State of New Jersey.

The Benediction was delivered by Pastor Joe A. Carter, of New Hope Baptist Church, in Newark, New Jersey.

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2162
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 2162 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

The economic recession that began in the 2000s has significantly impacted hard-working New Jerseyans all across the State, from minimum-wage earners to displaced middle-class workers and small business owners. In these difficult financial times, those most impacted by challenging economic conditions need assistance. That is why I have consistently stated my intention to consider balanced and responsible changes to the minimum wage. Time and again, I have asked the Legislature to answer that call to compromise and work collaboratively on solutions that will assist minimum wage earners without collapsing the small and medium businesses that drive our economy.

Unfortunately, the Legislature declined my invitation to join in the serious and significant task of crafting a sensible and balanced wage proposal, choosing instead to pass this lopsided bill. The sudden, significant minimum-wage increase in this bill, coupled with automatic raises each year tied to the Unites States consumer price index, will jeopardize the economic recovery we all seek. We can only build our State's earnings if we foster an environment that lifts up the working poor and struggling small businesses alike, the critical participants in our integrated economy. Any legislative initiative that promotes one at the expense of the other is an obstacle to recovery, and an unnecessary ceiling on the growth of our economy.

Given these challenges, and coupled with New Jersey's ongoing recovery from Superstorm Sandy, I am convinced that many of New Jersey's small businesses would not be able to survive the minimum-wage increase and automatic annual raises contemplated in this legislation. These business owners, facing added expenses in the form of payroll, taxes, and the costs of recovery, will be confronted with three dire options: lay-off workers, raise prices, or leave New Jersey. Each of those outcomes is a step backward on the road to economic recovery, and the consequences of such action will be a significant blow to the very hard-working families this bill purports to help.

Balanced solutions that address these challenges, however, are available. New Jersey needs carefully calibrated changes to the minimum wage that recognize the needs of both the working poor and entrepreneurial businesses. Therefore, I recommend that the minimum wage be increased in a responsible manner that allows New Jersey's businesses to plan for its gradual implementation, and without the unpredictability of automatic increases based upon a volatile consumer price index.

To accomplish that goal, I propose a full one-dollar increase in New Jersey's minimum wage structure. Under my proposal, New Jersey's minimum wage earners would receive an immediate raise of twenty-five cents per hour. The following year, my plan will provide workers an additional fifty-cent per hour increase. Finally, in the third year of implementation, workers would again see a twenty-five cent per hour raise. By combining both immediate and long-term increases to minimum wage pay, my plan will give workers the additional income that will spur consumer spending, and help grow strong, sound families. At the same time, businesses will have a short, but necessary, period to plan for the implementation of the full one-dollar increase in a manner that will prevent the layoffs and relocations certain to accompany the Legislature's current proposal.

Additionally, and to make certain that New Jersey's working poor are on the strongest economic footing possible to continue their economic progress, today I recommend that, effective taxable year 2014, the benefit amounts provided under the New Jersey Earned Income Credit program be increased from 20 percent to 25 percent of the federal Earned Income Tax Credit amounts.

The phased one-dollar increase to our minimum wage, along with the increase to the New Jersey Earned Income Tax Credit, presents a comprehensive approach to the shared needs of businesses and employees. Implemented together, these recommendations will help New Jersey continue to chart a steady course to sustained success, and a certain economic future that will set the standard for our Nation. I urge the Legislature to concur swiftly and provide our citizens the wages, and tax benefits, they have earned.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 2162 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

For this purpose, 15 days or more shall constitute a month. c. The amount of the credit allowed pursuant to this section shall be applied against the tax otherwise due under N.J.S.54A:1-1 et seq., after all other credits and payments. If the credit exceeds the amount of tax otherwise due, that amount of excess shall be an overpayment for the purposes of N.J.S.54A:9-7 provided however, that subsection (f) of N.J.S.54A:9-7 shall not apply. The credit provided under this section as a credit against the tax otherwise due and the amount of the credit treated as an overpayment shall be treated as a credit towards or overpayment of gross income tax, subject to all provisions of N.J.S.54A:1-1 et seq., except as may be otherwise specifically provided in P.L.2000, c.80 (C.54A:4-6 et al.). d. Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3028 (Third Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill establishes a Clean Car Commission to, among other things, study advances made in low and zero emission vehicles, infrastructure necessary to support such vehicles, and tax incentives to encourage the purchase of such vehicles.

I commend the sponsors' intent of putting forth legislation to advance the use of alternatively fueled vehicles in an effort to improve air quality in New Jersey. However, because this bill is inconsistent with my Energy Master Plan, I return this bill with my recommendations.

First, in my Energy Master Plan, I encouraged the development and use of alternatively fueled vehicles but, in doing so, cautioned against public – rather than private – investment. New Jersey's already overburdened taxpayers cannot afford to subsidize the alternatively fueled vehicle market by funding the types of tax incentives Assembly Bill No. 3028 seeks to study. Instead, Government can foster investment by identifying and reducing regulatory and other impediments to the usage of alternatively fueled vehicles.

Second, my Energy Master Plan noted that to appreciably impact the greenhouse gases emitted by all manner of vehicles, a holistic approach that examines fleet vehicles, mass transit vehicles, and personal automobiles is necessary. Assembly Bill No. 3028, however, is narrowly focused only on personal automobiles – not fleets or mass transit where alternative fuel may be more viable and may provide more environmental benefits. Accordingly, the more reasoned and practical approach is to address alternatively fueled vehicles comprehensively and holistically, focusing on all vehicles, not a mere subset.

Therefore, I return this bill with my recommendations to create an 11-member task force chaired by the Commissioner of the Department of Environmental Protection to study, among other things, all manner of alternatively fueled vehicles (including personal automobiles, commercial fleet vehicles, and mass transit vehicles), and to identify regulatory and statutory obstacles and inefficiencies at the federal, State, local, and municipal level that frustrate and impede the use of alternatively fueled vehicles.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3028 (Third Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2577
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 2577 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

For generations, Atlantic City was a prolific engine that drove economic growth in our State and generated significant revenues to support critical programs throughout New Jersey. While Atlantic City's reputation and stature as one of the premier resort destinations on the East Coast are well-chronicled, it is no secret that revenue from the region's most important industries, gaming and tourism, has been in decline. Since the beginning of my Administration, I have stressed the importance of reversing the trend of economic contraction in Atlantic City and have made the revitalization of the region's gaming and tourism industries a key priority.

In furtherance of my commitment to these critically important industries, I signed landmark legislation in February of 2011 establishing the Atlantic City Tourism District. This law, the product of a joint effort between my Administration and the Legislature, sought to enhance tourism in Atlantic City by empowering the Casino Reinvestment Development Authority ("CRDA") to coordinate the marketing efforts of the casino industry, implement public safety initiatives in Atlantic City, and make critical investments in both gaming and non-gaming amenities in the region. The law also reorganized several State entities and authorities with tourism related duties and responsibilities in order to promote efficiency and achieve greater synergies between such entities.

While some of the provisions set forth in this legislation would serve to advance the important goals of the 2011 Tourism District law, others are at cross-purposes with the law's underlying objectives. Without question, one of the keys to success in Atlantic City lies with giving the CRDA the tools it needs to effectively implement the State's reform agenda. Toward that end, and consistent with the provisions of the Tourism District law, I firmly believe that the CRDA needs significant flexibility and freedom from burdensome, bureaucratic, and overly restrictive State mandates. Regrettably, some provisions of this bill fail to recognize that goal and would serve to tie the hands of the very agency that the Legislature and I entrusted and empowered to carry out the difficult task of revitalization in Atlantic City.

For instance, the bill proposes to restrict the CRDA's ability to manage its workforce by statutorily establishing conditions of employment affecting persons transferred to the CRDA by operation of the Tourism District law. Likewise, the bill mandates that certain other actions be taken by the CRDA, such as assessing fees upon certain casino licensees and establishing noise standards within the Tourism District. While such agency action may be appropriate and warranted, the 2011 Tourism District law aptly recognizes the CRDA as the appropriate entity to make such determinations.

We have made great strides in establishing the framework for sustainable, long-term economic growth and revitalization in Atlantic City. By increasing red-tape and bureaucracy in the State's oversight of the gaming and tourism industries, as proposed in this bill, we run the risk of hindering the progress we have made so far.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 2577 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

ASSEMBLY SUBSTITUTE FOR
ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2578

To the General Assembly:

The Assembly Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 2578 would revise and supplement the "Casino Control Act" to authorize Internet gaming through the licensed casinos operating in Atlantic City. This bill represents an important policy decision for the residents of New Jersey, and an historic opportunity to continue the State's leadership as a premiere destination for tourism and entertainment. Such a significant step must be carefully considered, balancing the benefits of job creation, economic development, and the continued revitalization of Atlantic City against the risks of addiction, corruption, and improper influence. It is my responsibility as Governor to make these determinations, always mindful of my duty to guarantee the continued welfare of our families, our neighbors, and the future generations who will call our State home.

With these goals in mind, I have concluded that now is the time for our State to move forward, again leading the way for the nation, by becoming one of the first States to permit Internet gaming. I authorize this step towards modernizing Atlantic City's entertainment attractions cautiously, with carefully constructed limitations that will ensure the highest integrity and the most robust oversight. Accordingly, pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning the Assembly Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 2578 with my recommendations for reconsideration.

The importance of the gaming and tourism industries in New Jersey cannot be overstated. Together, these businesses, and the tens of thousands of workers they employ, serve as a constant, critical engine of economic development. Since the first days of my Administration, I have stressed the need to confront the complex challenges threatening Atlantic City's unrivaled combination of natural seaside beauty, world-class attractions, and easy access from around the world. For these reasons, one of my earliest acts as Governor was to establish an Advisory Commission on Gaming, Sports and Entertainment to study the issues and to develop a comprehensive approach to preserving Atlantic City's stature as a premier resort destination. Through this effort, and working in collaboration with the Legislature, my Administration has implemented broad-based reforms to reinvigorate Atlantic City and create opportunities for economic growth in the region.

For example, in 2011, I signed into law the landmark legislation establishing a Tourism District in Atlantic City as the framework to launch comprehensive initiatives aimed at addressing blight and public safety. The Tourism District law has already led to a $30 million marketing plan and the realignment of State gaming agencies to minimize bureaucracy while enhancing oversight. That same year, I signed a second bill into law enacting the most comprehensive overhaul of the State's casino regulations since 1977. This reform eliminated many significantly outdated regulatory burdens, allowing the casino industry to reinvest and redevelop throughout the Tourism District.

While still in their infancy, these initiatives have begun to take hold with tangible progress evident in new commercial and residential construction, demolition of blighted buildings, investments in infrastructure, and an infusion of capital investment in new entertainment venues, convention facilities, retail and shopping attractions, and casinos. Our efforts have also led to the adoption of a Master Plan for the Tourism District, the establishment of a public safety task force, the formation of a Tourism Advisory Commission, and the creation of the Atlantic City Alliance to coordinate the collective marketing efforts of the casino industry.

Nonetheless, while these initiatives show that our shared commitment to the future of Atlantic City is bearing fruit, it is clear that much more work needs to be done. Since New Jersey took its first steps to authorize gaming in 1976, our State has been at the forefront of casino entertainment. Some experts predict that Internet gaming will infuse new opportunities and new development into Atlantic City, providing a mechanism to expand the State's already strong gaming options to a modern platform. Others caution that this type of convenience gaming will lead to declines in tourism, and a loss of visitors to the region. Moreover, important questions linger regarding what social impacts will follow the extension of casino wagering across the Internet. All of these issues counsel in favor of a narrowly tailored approach to Internet gaming that preserves the unique character of Atlantic City, while also embracing the tools that can reverse the trend of economic contraction in the State's gaming and tourism industries. Indeed, our State has a long history of sparingly granting the authorization for gambling, and only with the oversight and regulation that ensures entertainment does not descend into addiction.

Accordingly, I recommend that New Jersey's first Internet gaming law grant the Division of Gaming Enforcement in the Department of Law and Public Safety wide latitude and authority to establish a regulatory framework that provides for the most effective controls, monitoring, and supervision. Moreover, I believe that Internet gaming should be developed in an open and transparent manner, free from suspicion of self-dealing and improper influence. I therefore recommend changes to this bill that will extend the existing prohibitions on casino-related employment for State employees and State legislators to Internet gaming licensees, and their promoters or affiliates. In addition, I propose a sensible requirement that State elected officials promptly disclose their past and present representation of entities seeking or holding Internet gaming licensees.

Next, the bill should be revised to do more to prevent the documented harms that can accompany excessive gambling. Our State cannot carelessly create a new generation of addicted gamers, sitting in their homes, using laptops or iPads, gambling away their salaries and their futures. For this reason, I recommend an enhanced level of funding for compulsive gambling treatment programs and additional financial support for other beneficial purposes for which casino gaming was originally authorized. I also recommend an annual analysis of the potential problems and harms associated with these new games to be undertaken at the expense of Internet gaming licensees.

Finally, I believe that Internet gaming in New Jersey should be carefully studied and periodically revisited. I recommend that this law authorizing Internet gaming in New Jersey sunset after a period of ten years, giving future leaders the perspective and opportunity to revise and renew Internet gaming as appropriate. Taken together, these recommendations will provide the balance of opportunity and oversight that has characterized gaming in New Jersey for more than three decades.

Like all of the most sensitive and significant policy matters, it is incumbent on the elected officials of this State to act with equal parts confidence and caution. In the wake of the devastating losses suffered by our residents in recent months, we must embrace new ideas to fuel our reconstruction and continued prosperity. Internet gaming should be a part of that effort. With the recommendations I propose today, we can revitalize one of our State's premier attractions, and reintroduce New Jersey and Atlantic City at the forefront of innovation and entertainment.

Accordingly, I herewith return the Assembly Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 2578 and recommend that it be amended as follows:

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3206

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3206 with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill would revise the "Neighborhood Revitalization State Tax Credit Act" to expand the existing program in two ways. First, the bill would increase the annual total amount of credits allowable under the Neighborhood Revitalization State Tax Credit program from $10 million to $15 million. Second, the bill would expand the scope of the program to allow gross income taxpayers that have income attributable to a business to participate in the tax credit program. While I applaud the sponsors' efforts to facilitate and promote private investment in distressed neighborhoods, I cannot approve the bill in its present form because of its adverse impact on existing budgetary obligations.

Without question, the Neighborhood Revitalization State Tax Credit program is a laudable program that effectively spurs investment in neighborhood revitalization and preservation projects across the State. Throughout the course of my Administration, I have supported the program and have provided for its continued operation. However, while I believe that the program is an important component of the State's efforts to promote economic growth statewide, and I support the bill's provisions that expand the program to include gross income taxpayers, an expansion of the overall tax credits provided in the bill from $10 million to $15 million is inadvisable.

While this bill would remove $5 million of revenue to the State's General Fund this year and each year thereafter, it does not identify any replacement funds or corresponding budget cuts to offset the revenue loss. As such, the provision of this bill increasing the annual total amount of the tax credit by $5 million runs counter to my continuing efforts to implement responsible budgetary practices that consider all spending and revenue-related initiatives within the context of the annual budget process.

As I have previously stated, I take my constitutional obligation to maintain a balanced budget very seriously and I take great pride in the strides my Administration has made to end the fiscal mismanagement that plagued the State in the years before I took Office. This tax credit bill, passed outside of the annual budget process and creating a $5 million negative impact on State revenues, represents a return to the ill-advised fiscal practices of the past.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3206 and recommend that it be amended as follows:

2013 Budget Message

Governor Chris Christie

Lt. Governor Guadagno, Madam Speaker, Mr. President, members of the Legislature, fellow New Jerseyans:

I am pleased to present to you my budget for Fiscal Year 2014.

The budget continues a journey you began with me three years ago – to get New Jersey's house in order; to turn Trenton upside down; to make hard but better choices so that we could put our state back on a path to growth.

For the fourth year in a row, the budget maintains the fiscal discipline we need to restore New Jersey. Fiscal sanity has indeed returned to Trenton.

For the fourth year in a row, this budget is balanced and imposes no tax increases on the people of New Jersey. I want every New Jersey citizen to remember just how different things were before we arrived. 115 tax and fee increases in eight years. Skyrocketing spending. $13 billion in deficits left on our doorstep by the irresponsibility of the past.

We must never take for granted what we have already achieved. Reduced spending. New jobs. Balanced budgets four years in a row. And lower taxes. It is truly a new day for New Jersey.

For the fourth year in a row, the budget funds the key initiatives necessary to rebuild our state and restore our prospects for future growth and greatness.

It provides a record amount of funding for our schools.

It once again fully funds the pension contribution we agreed to in the landmark pension reform we enacted together in 2011. In fact, no previous governor has contributed what we have contributed to our pension fund.

This budget also triples our job creating business tax cuts and incentives for growth that we put in place two years ago.

It also provides for those most in need: our lowest-income families, those with chronic illnesses, and people with developmental disabilities.

In total, the budget I am submitting to you today provides $32.9 billion in state spending. While we are meeting the needs of our people in this budget, we are doing it by spending less than the state spent in Fiscal Year 2008. Let me repeat that for you. Six years later, a budget that still spends less. Where else is this happening in America? This is what happens when you have a government that tells people the truth, that makes the hard choices and actually manages our government.

When we looked around four years ago, we saw New Jersey in dire straits. Remember?

Jobs and families were leaving the state. Property taxes had increased 70% in the previous ten years. The state had increased taxes and fees 115 times in the prior eight years. The budget was in deficit even though the state had increased its debt nearly tenfold in the prior two decades.

We knew what we had to do. The results of the old path of higher taxes and higher spending were all around us -- and they were disastrous. As the late, great General Norman Schwarzkopf once said, "The truth of the matter is that you always know the right thing to do. The hard part is doing it."

Those who were supposed to be responsible for controlling taxes and spending before we came to office fundamentally deceived the people of our state. They said yes to everything – yes to higher taxes. Yes to more spending. We must not return to that era of recklessness and deceit.

Starting three years ago, the people of New Jersey rolled up their sleeves and we did it, we did it together.

We knew we needed to get state government spending under control. Together, we recovered from an era of taxes and deficits; restored balance to our finances; and rebuilt those things that will contribute to economic health in the future.

First, we immediately impounded $2.1 billion in reckless spending by the previous administration and its legislative budget leaders and balanced the Fiscal Year 2010 Budget with no new taxes.

We then quickly proposed a Fiscal Year 2011 Budget that had real cuts in every single department of state government and balanced an $11 billion budget deficit. Once again, we did it without raising taxes on the people of New Jersey. We also laid the groundwork for better choices ahead. We were able to put forward budgets in Fiscal Year 2012 and 2013 that held the line on spending but provided needed amounts for priorities like our children's schools and reformed pensions.

Now, the results are clear. New Jersey has turned around, and is growing again.

What hasn't grown is government. In fact, government has shrunk. Today there are 5,200 fewer state government employees than when we took office. In fact, there are over 20,000 fewer government employees across all levels of government. We promised smaller government to our people and we delivered.

The private sector and the private economy are a much different story. They have grown. Since January 2010, New Jersey has added 103,000 new private sector jobs. The last two years – 2011 and 2012 – have been the best two years of private sector job growth since 1999. We have defeated New Jersey's jobless decade through fiscal responsibility and pro-growth tax policies.

This budget will help continue that growth. The budget provides additional tax relief for the engine of our economy – small business. This marks the third year of implementing the bipartisan, job-creating tax reforms we enacted together and keeps us on the path to provide more than $2 billion in tax relief to business in New Jersey.

And this budget is balanced without gimmicks. In the past, too often the deficit was declared closed one year only to reappear the next when the band-aids were peeled off. No more. The state's reliance on one-time revenues has been dramatically reduced – they made up 13% of the budget under the budget leaders four years ago. Today, it is only 3% of the budget that I put before you. We have done the hard work to put us on the path to responsible and priority-focused budgets. No gimmicks this year means less trouble and better choices next year, and in our future.

Mark Twain once joked, "Always do right. It will gratify some and astonish the rest."

By doing right, by taking on the hard choices together, we have made our choices better today.

Just three years ago, our pension system was in ruins. Governors and the budget leaders in the legislature had been making little or no contributions. The system was not sustainable. Our police officers, our firefighters and our teachers were right to ask if their pensions would even be there when they retired.

Together, on a bipartisan basis, we enacted needed and historic pension and health benefit reforms. By making modest, but important and sensible changes to retirement age and incentives, to COLAs, to contributions from government employees, we saved the taxpayers $120 billion and put the pension system on much more sound footing. And we have continued to invest wisely in a diversified fashion, outperforming most other states and large endowments.

Today, our pension system is on a path to restored health. So I can say with confidence and some pride to you today that this budget contains a record pension payment by the state: $1.676 billion for Fiscal Year 2014, the largest pension contribution ever made by New Jersey. This will fund the third year of the landmark, bipartisan pension reform we enacted two years ago, and on the terms we agreed to.

And one message to those naysayers and perpetual cynics who refused to fund the pension on their own watch and opposed our reforms to protect the monied special interests: our citizens are fortunate that your type of politics is dying in Trenton. Our pension system is alive as a result.

It is a key step in showing what can be done if we come together to face up to our long-term liabilities, and address them head on in a spirit of principled cooperation.

We did this on property taxes too, enacting not only the 2% Property Tax Cap but the interest arbitration reform to make the cap work.

And again, the results are evident. In 2011, after a decade of 7% annual increases, New Jersey homeowners saw the lowest increase in two decades, down to 2.4%. And last year, we did even better: statewide, property taxes increased by only 1.4%, the lowest in twenty-four years.

This didn't just happen by accident. It happened because we took action. We enacted the cap. We enacted pension reform. We capped excessive school superintendent salaries. And we continued, even in challenging times, to fund the senior freeze – which we will again do in this budget.

It seems to me our leaders in Washington, DC could learn from our example here. Their failure to take on the nation's budget challenges and address the unsustainability of the nation's long-term liabilities is nothing short of inexcusable.

It's past time for Washington to get its act together. That will take two things: Bipartisanship. And leadership. Unfortunately, both are missing today.

Here at home, there is still much to be done to improve our fiscal health even more. This year, I ask you to take action on my proposal to prevent towns and counties from imposing user fees to blow through the 2% Property Tax Cap. Why not close this loophole? What are you waiting for? It is also time to finish the job with the property tax tool kit that will help municipal governments keep property taxes down in the long run.

So far, you have taken action on only six of the 20 bills which embody the toolkit. And the public is still waiting for action on legislation to remove barriers that prevent municipalities from sharing services, and to once and for all, end the practice of six figure checks for government employee sick days. The accumulated municipal government liability for sick and vacation leave in New Jersey is almost one billion dollars. It is time to finish the job and enact these needed reforms this year. These commonsense reforms can bring our property taxes down even further and perhaps even reduce them. If you fail to act, everyone in New Jersey will know who obstructed the solutions to our property tax problems.

One last word on the subject of taxes. Last year, I proposed cutting our income tax by 10%. When some objected, in the spirit of compromise and conciliation, I agreed to the essence of the Senate plan on tax cuts. Then, in a fit of political partisanship, some in this chamber decided to deny New Jerseyans the tax cut they so desperately need and deserve.

It is clear to me that on this subject we simply disagree. I believe New Jerseyans are overtaxed. Many of you in this chamber repeatedly vote for tax increases. So, let me be direct with you - I have compromised and offered your plan for tax cuts. You have reneged on your promise to me and the people of New Jersey. I will not shut down the budget process to continue this argument; the people's business and our least fortunate citizens' needs are too vitally important in the aftermath of Sandy. But, if you change your mind and concur with my conditional veto, my Administration will figure out how to pay for this long overdue tax relief. If you do not, I am content to let the voters decide this in November.

We have learned from experience that taking on problems now will leave us better off in the future. We have seen that it works. The first step is to change the mindset, to change the conversation. And that means putting the people we serve first, and then getting down to work.

In the past year, of course, our economy has been challenged by Superstorm Sandy. In the face of this unprecedented emergency, we have stood together: recovering, rebuilding, restoring.

I want to thank the members of this legislature and our congressional delegation, on both sides of the aisle, for their support of the $60.4 billion emergency relief package which congress enacted last month. We stood firm, and we stood together.

I want to make sure we can move ahead quickly, and without endangering resources for other key priorities.

So today, I am proposing the establishment of a $40 million Sandy contingency fund for those expenses not reimbursed by the federal government. This will ensure that we can move ahead with maximum speed, and that those things that fall through the cracks do not bankrupt families, businesses or local governments.

This will allow us to get small businesses back on their feet, without delay.

It will allow us to continue to make progress on restoring key roads and infrastructure, regardless of federal timelines.

It will help us rebuild the shore. I grew up going to the shore every summer, and I still do. It is the heart of New Jersey. It still beats strong, in every one of us.

The shore will come back – as I've said, it will come back stronger than ever. And I will tell you this: I expect to go the Jersey Shore every summer for the rest of my life, including this summer of 2013.

Sandy cast a bright light on the dedication, bravery and professionalism of our first responders. To each and every one of you, we are grateful.

To honor your service, we need to make sure there are more of you – so in this budget I propose an over 35% increase in funding to train the volunteer emergency medical personnel of tomorrow.

While Sandy is a challenge that has confronted us today, the most important investment we can make for our long term future is in education.

Therefore, for the third year in a row, I am increasing state aid to New Jersey's schools. This budget provides an increase of $87 million for school aid, bringing total state aid to education to almost $9 billion – an all-time record, for the second year in a row. With this budget, 378 school districts will see funding increases and no district in New Jersey will experience a decline in K-12 formula school aid for Fiscal Year 2014.

With this record commitment to funding must come an unyielding dedication to reform. Here too, we have made great steps in these last three years, but our job is far from finished.

I have repeated to you my belief that a quality education in New Jersey should not be a function of your zip code but a product of your hard work and enthusiasm.

To make good on this belief, I am including $2 million to fund a pilot program of opportunity scholarship grants for needy students. Any child in a chronically failing school should have the choice to find a better one, whether it be out-of-district or non-public. These grants will show that choice can work, even – indeed especially – in some of our most underperforming school districts. I have been fighting for three years to end the abandonment of these children and their families. Today, that fight continues.

I am providing today $5 million for an "Education Innovation Fund" in New Jersey, to implement the best, new, innovative teaching models in all of our schools – including the use of technology and the internet. Technology has transformed every other industry in America, to all of our great benefit. Let's make sure it transforms education as well, for the better.

These two initiatives, combined with record-setting support, are part of a reform agenda that must be an urgent priority for this legislature.

We must continue to support, fund, and implement the historic tenure reform that we enacted on a bipartisan basis last year.

We must also continue to authorize, fund, start, and support our charter schools in New Jersey.

Our student achievement ranks high among the states, but it does not rank high everywhere in our state. And we should settle for nothing less than being the very best in education, in innovation, and in achievement no matter where you live, this is the key to a brighter future for New Jersey.

Now, in higher education, I am once again proposing to increase student assistance through the Tag Grant Program. The budget calls for an increase of $17 million in Tag funding. And I am restoring aid to independent colleges with a $1 million increase in their funding.

The voters also agreed with me that we needed to invest capital in our state colleges and universities. For the first time in a quarter century, they voted overwhelmingly to invest in our children's future. We will put to work this spring over $1.6 billion in state and private funds to build classrooms, laboratories and other facilities to grow and modernize our higher education system.

The correlation between the ability to get a job, a higher income, and educational attainment is clear. So let's make the path to college available to every New Jerseyan who's willing to do the work to get there.

Ensuring a quality education is one means of creating opportunity for the state's most vulnerable populations. Another is ensuring adequate quality health care.

New Jersey is a leader in the nation in reforming our Medicaid program. Last year the federal government approved our innovative and strategic reform proposal, which does right by the people the program is designed to serve.

We have taken groundbreaking steps to ensure high-quality, cost-effective and comprehensive health care for New Jerseyans by focusing on controlling costs, promoting community-based care, preserving hospital funding and integrating primary and behavioral health care.

For example, as a result of our reforms, instead of having the standard Medicaid program that forces seniors into nursing homes as the only option when they need long-term care, our seniors will now have a choice. They will be able to stay in their homes and communities while receiving the services and support they need.

It's simple. We are putting people first.

Which is why, after considerable discussion and research, we have decided to participate in Medicaid expansion under the Affordable Care Act. While we already have one of the most expansive and generous Medicaid programs in the nation, including the second highest eligibility rate for children, we have an opportunity to ensure that an even greater number of New Jerseyans who are at or near the poverty line will have access to critical health services beginning in January 2014.

For a single adult, 133% of the poverty level is under $16,000 a year. These people are consistently among those who need help the most – men and women who have suffered trauma in their lives, live with mental illness, rely on New Jersey's emergency rooms for primary health care needs, or those citizens who lack insurance or access to treatment.

Expanding Medicaid will ensure New Jersey taxpayers will see their dollars maximized. Federal funding will cover 100% of the costs of this expansion for the first three years and then leveling to 90% in 2020.

Let me be clear, refusing these federal dollars does not mean that they won't be spent. It just means that they will be used to expand health care access in New York, Connecticut, Ohio or somewhere else. Accepting these federal resources will provide health insurance to tens of thousands of low-income New Jerseyans, help keep our hospitals financially healthy and actually save New Jersey taxpayers money. In fact, taxpayers will save approximately $227 million in Fiscal Year 2014 alone.

Let me be clear, I am no fan of the Affordable Care Act. I think it is wrong for New Jersey and for America. I fought against it and believe, in the long run, it will not achieve what it promises. However, it is now the law of the land. I will make all my judgments as governor based on what is best for New Jerseyans. That is why I twice vetoed saddling our taxpayers with the untold burden of establishing health exchanges.

But in this instance, expanding Medicaid by 104,000 citizens in a program that already serves 1.4 million, is the smart thing to do for our fiscal and public health. If that ever changes because of adverse actions by the Obama Administration, I will end it as quickly as it started.

Even without the Affordable Care Act, we have continued to work to provide health care to the uninsured, including many thousands of low-income children through New Jersey family care. This budget continues that effort by providing a $47 million increase for family care.

And our commitment to prevention in health care extends beyond Medicaid – it is across the board.

Emma's Law requires babies in New Jersey to be screened for 60 disorders that can cause serious health problems. This budget increases funding for newborn screening by $1.6 million so that it can be done at no additional cost to New Jersey's parents.

This budget supports our health care clinics that serve over 1.4 million patient visits each year. Total support for Federally Qualified Health Centers is now at $50 million – an all time high.

We are also protecting last year's significant increase for cancer screening under the New Jersey Cancer Education and Early Detection Program. The budget provides $12 million for cancer outreach, screening, and follow-up services.

And this budget provides substantial funding for our hospitals – some $966 million. To maximize our share of federal matching funds, we have reformed the way we calculate distributions so that hospitals are reimbursed based on the level and quality of care they provide to patients.

We are also bringing those with disabilities into the economic mainstream. So since the beginning, my Administration has paid particular attention to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and mental illness.

I have signed a bill to eliminate offensive and archaic references in our laws and regulations. We have created a central registry of offenders who willfully abuse, neglect or exploit a person with intellectual disabilities.

We have expanded housing opportunities for people with disabilities. And we have made New Jersey an "employment first" state – which is better for families, employers and people with disabilities.

Today, I am proud to announce that we have settled an eight-year-old Olmstead lawsuit with Disability Rights New Jersey. The suit claimed that New Jersey was not complying with U.S. Supreme Court mandates to allow people with developmental disabilities to live in the least restrictive and most appropriate setting.

In response, we have increased funding for community-based services; we have reduced the waiting list for in-home supports and services, and we have expanded group homes and supported living options.

We all know New Jersey's sad history of over institutionalization. We have institutionalized more citizens than any state other than Texas. It is shameful. It is ineffective. And, in this Administration, it is ending. We are allowing people with disabilities to live where they and their families want them to live: at home, in the community, among family and friends. So this suit is settled.

But to continue this progress, my budget includes $83 million for community placements and services for those with developmental disabilities.

Some of our worst health and mental health problems are related to another problem: drug addiction.

Last year, I proposed to you that we require treatment for convicted drug offenders. It seems a lot smarter to me to allow those battling drug addiction the chance to reclaim their lives through treatment rather than wasting away in prison. I appreciate your passing this landmark legislation, and was happy to sign it into law last summer.

This budget supports the expansion of the Drug Court Program to implement this law – increasing funding by over $4.5 million for drug court.

However, you failed to adopt a bail reform package designed to keep the most violent, sociopathic offenders behind bars while awaiting trial. Failure to put this measure on the ballot is inexcusable and it makes every New Jerseyan less safe and our justice system less effective.

As New Jersey's former U.S. Attorney, I know law enforcement. I know how to combat violent crime. Along with Attorney General Chiesa, we have instituted programs which have crime declining, corruption on the run and thousands of guns off the street with our gun buyback program.

Violent criminals on the streets make every citizen less safe and put witnesses at risk. If there is room on the ballot for other issues, there is certainly room for a bail reform amendment, which will give prosecutors and judges the tools to keep violent sociopaths behind bars.

Please do not fail our citizens again – how many more New Jerseyans need to be maimed or killed by repeat offenders before we act? Put bail reform on the November ballot and let New Jersey citizens vote for greater public safety for themselves and witnesses of violent crime.

At the end of the day, a budget is a blueprint for how to move forward. And this is our plan.

It holds the line on spending, while funding the most important priorities like education for our kids and the reformed pension plan. It encourages growth with tax reductions, and helps us rebuild from Sandy. It continues those things that will hold down property taxes. It makes a record contribution to our pension system, accounting for 85% of all our increased spending. It reforms those programs which help the most vulnerable – encouraging prevention, work, and treatment – even while providing the needed support so all New Jerseyans can participate in a growing economy and building a better future. And it does all that while spending less of the people's hard earned money than we did six years ago.

Fiscal discipline. Investments in growth. Inclusion of all. Bipartisan solutions today—not a return to the reckless budgeting practices of the Corzine years. These are our principles. They are working. They are building a better New Jersey for everyone.

I know for some it is tempting to go back to the old ways. "Let's loosen the purse strings; we can spend more if you let us tax more," they say. But we have seen the result of this approach, and it is ugly. It doesn't work.

It is tempting for others to fight over every item on this agenda. To play the old partisan games. To block progress in search of a better headline. To put their political future ahead of the future of the state. But we know that doesn't work either. Just look at the results in Washington. Is that what we want in New Jersey? Do we really want to return to the tax and spend Trenton of the four years before we arrived?

Our approach has been to stand up and say what we believe in. To plant our feet on the ground and hold fast to our principles. To fight for what you believe in. But, when you see the other side moving a little closer to you, to recognize that progress and reach out your hand in compromise. To find the answer, instead of keeping the issue. Indeed, to be the answer.

That requires being willing to act, and willing to lead.

The reforms we put in place, the investments we make, the discipline we instill, may not all yield results this year or in this term, but they are vital nevertheless. They are part of our obligation to leave state government, to leave New Jersey, to leave this country, better than we found it.

For these past three years, we have been about results, and we are not going to change now. And the people are better off for it.

We have turned Trenton upside down. We have gotten the budget under control, and we have begun to address the long-term health of pensions. We have spurred a wave of over 100,000 new jobs. And we have taken the steps to hold down property taxes. We have improved our schools at the same time.

Let's not stop now. Let's not turn back. Let's not fail to be bold with the challenges ahead. Let's finish the job.

The people of New Jersey have trusted us. They have put their faith in us to come together. It's truly remarkable what we have accomplished in these last three years. The state is growing again. But we can make things even better.

So let's continue to fight for our principles. Let's work on a bipartisan basis. And let's get to work for the people who gave us these jobs in the first place. We have weathered the worst storm in our state's history with bold leadership, decisive action and bipartisan cooperation. The sky ahead is limitless if we just have the courage to stay the course.

Thank you, God bless you, and God bless the great state of New Jersey.

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 1271

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 1271 with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill would allow employers to take a tax credit against their corporation business tax or gross income tax liabilities for wages paid to "qualified interns" in tax years 2013 and 2014. According to the sponsors, the bill is "designed to encourage businesses to hire post-secondary students to learn firsthand about their chosen field of study and help them get their foot in the door to eventually secure full-time employment." The Legislature estimates that the tax credit proposed in this bill would reduce revenues received by the State through the corporation business tax and gross income tax by approximately $7 million over the next two years.

While I support the concept of increased employment opportunities for future college graduates, the Legislature has offered no data to show that this type of tax credit will actually lead to increased long-term employment. Tellingly, the bill's own provisions call for a study concerning the effectiveness of such tax credits as a job-creation tool subsequent to the expiration of the two-year tax credit program. I believe that fiscal prudence requires us to conduct this study, including whether similar programs have been effective in this State or other jurisdictions, before we commit $7 million of taxpayer funds to implement the program.

Therefore, I recommend that the Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Workforce Development undertake a review of the proposed "qualified intern" tax credit program, as well as similar tax credit programs in New Jersey and other jurisdictions. The Commissioner should develop findings and recommendations on whether this type of tax credit program would be effective in increasing long-term employment for future college graduates. The Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Workforce Development should report such findings and recommendations directly to me no later than twelve months after the enactment of this bill.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 1271 and recommend that it be amended as follows:

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2593

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 2593 with my recommendations for reconsideration.

Under current law, municipalities and fire districts prepare and adopt local fire mutual aid plans to coordinate the effective use of resources. These plans are designed to ensure that proper planning criteria, command support, and coordination measures are established to guide fire fighters when more than one municipality, fire district, or fire department responds to an emergency. This bill would amend current law to explicitly require local fire mutual aid plans to establish a command structure that includes deputy chiefs and battalion chiefs.

I support the sponsors' efforts to ensure that a clearly designated and delineated command structure is established prior to emergency situations necessitating mutual aid. Without question, proper planning and effective preparedness are essential to preserving and protecting our citizens in times of emergency. Indeed, New Jersey's emergency preparedness and response capabilities were never more tested than they were immediately before, during, and after Superstorm Sandy. Despite the incomparable severity of Sandy, the collective efforts of our municipal, county, and State-level fire, police, EMS, and emergency management personnel demonstrated, once again, the unparalleled professionalism, efficiency, dedication, and selflessness of our emergency first responders.

Nonetheless, I am concerned that this bill may not afford municipalities and fire districts sufficient flexibility to establish plans best suited to their individual needs. Moreover, I am concerned that by explicitly delineating the chain of command in State statute, current municipal arrangements concerning incident command support could be unnecessarily disrupted. One of the most pertinent lessons learned from Superstorm Sandy is that State and local first responders need to have the authority to react with agility to the rapidly changing circumstances that accompany catastrophic events. Unfortunately, without further study and analysis, I cannot be certain that the changes proposed in this bill advance that goal.

Accordingly, I recommend that the Director of the Division of Fire Safety in the Department of Community Affairs undertake a review of the laws, rules, and regulations concerning the preparation and adoption of local fire mutual aid plans, and the coordination and deployment of fire service resources during an emergency where mutual aid is necessary or appropriate. The Director shall develop findings and recommendations on whether revisions to existing procedures concerning local fire mutual aid plans are necessary, including whether a statutorily delineated chain of command is appropriate and necessary. The Director shall report such findings and recommendations directly to me no later than six months after the enactment of this bill.

Therefore, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 2593 and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 2, Line 35: Insert new section 1: "1. The Director shall develop findings and recommendations on whether revisions to existing procedures concerning local fire mutual aid plans are necessary, including whether a statutorily delineated chain of command is appropriate and needed. The Director shall report such findings and recommendations to the Governor no later than six months from

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 61

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 61 without my approval.

This bill seeks to impose oversight upon Superstorm Sandy recovery funds even though such oversight is already in place. While I thank the sponsors for their efforts, and for sharing in my commitment to the transparent and efficient administration of Sandy recovery funding, this bill would produce unnecessary redundancies and waste government resources.

Since Sandy struck, my Administration has prioritized the recovery and rebuilding of New Jersey communities devastated by Sandy in an expeditious and transparent manner. In November 2012, I formed the Office of Recovery and Rebuilding to manage that effort. That office, in conjunction with other state departments and agencies, has worked diligently to oversee and coordinate recovery and rebuilding efforts, making significant progress.

I have also implemented comprehensive and stringent safeguards to ensure that all federal reconstruction resources received by the State are utilized responsibly, transparently, and efficiently. On February 8, 2013, I signed Executive Order No. 125 ordering comprehensive oversight of federal Sandy recovery funds. That Order established an independent, legal review, led by the State Comptroller, of the procurement process for state contracts using federal funds, a network of Accountability Officers across State government to facilitate the review, and a transparency website for all such contracts relating to Sandy recovery efforts. Building on that commitment to ensure the proper use of taxpayer dollars, I also signed Assembly Bill No. 60, bipartisan legislation providing integrity oversight monitors in the implementation of recovery and rebuilding projects. Collectively, those measures are designed to ensure the responsible, transparent, and accountable use of taxpayer dollars.

This bill would simply duplicate those efforts. For example, this bill requires the State Treasurer to maintain a transparency website for the administration of Sandy recovery funding even though the State Comptroller already maintains such a transparency website pursuant to my Executive Order. The Comptroller's website accomplishes the same purpose as the bill – to allow the public to track state contracts and expenditures involving federal Sandy-related funding.

Moreover, I am also concerned that the bill tasks the State Treasurer to oversee Sandy recovery funds when I already directed the State Comptroller and the Office of Recovery and Rebuilding to report to me directly on the progress of the independent review process and the transparency website. In my judgment, these teams are better suited to handled that responsibility.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 61 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Chris Christie

Governor

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2878

(Third Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 2878 (Third Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill prohibits an employer from requiring a current or prospective employee to disclose their usernames, passwords, and related information concerning the current or prospective employee's personal social media accounts.

I greatly appreciate the sponsors' earnest effort to safeguard the privacy of job candidates and employees from overly aggressive invasions by employers. Cognizant of the ills surrounding unwanted and unnecessary intrusions into an individual's personal information, I recently signed similar legislation that prohibited institutions of higher education from asking current or prospective students to provide information about their personal social media accounts. I commend the sponsors for continuing to focus on this important issue.

Those privacy concerns, however, must be balanced against an employer's need to hire appropriate personnel, manage its operations, and safeguard its business assets and proprietary information.

Unfortunately, this bill paints with too broad a brush. For example, under this bill, an employer interviewing a candidate for a marketing job would be prohibited from asking about the candidate's use of social networking so as to gauge the candidate's technological skills and media savvy. Such a relevant and innocuous inquiry would, under this bill, subject an employer to protracted litigation, compensatory damages, and attorneys' fees — a result that could not have been the sponsors' intent.

In view of the over-breadth of this well-intentioned bill, I return it with my recommendations that more properly balance between protecting the privacy of employees and job candidates, while ensuring that employers may appropriately screen job candidates, manage their personnel, and protect their business assets and proprietary information.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 2878 (Third Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 3, Section 4, Line 13: Delete in its entirety and insert "b. Report an alleged violation of this act to the Commissioner of Labor and Workforce Development;"

Nothing in this act shall prevent an employer from conducting an investigation: (1) for the purpose of ensuring compliance with applicable laws, regulatory requirements or prohibitions against work-related employee misconduct based on the receipt of specific information about activity on a personal account by an employee; or (2) of an employee's actions based on the receipt of specific information about the unauthorized transfer of an employer's proprietary information, confidential information or financial data to a personal account by an employee d. Nothing in this act shall prevent an employer from viewing, accessing, or utilizing information about a current or prospective employee that can be obtained in the public domain"

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2982
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 2982 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill would provide State Lottery winners the option to remain anonymous for one year after claiming a prize.

I appreciate the sponsors' desire to help Lottery winners avoid unwanted publicity and the potential burdens that can often accompany their good fortunes. The benefits of anonymity, however, must be balanced against the effects on both transparency and the mission of the Lottery, which is to produce the maximum amount of revenues for education and State institutions. This bill could undermine the transparency that provides taxpayers confidence in the integrity of the Lottery and its games. Moreover, the bill could have the unintended consequence of reducing Lottery sales by hampering marketing efforts and the public excitement generated when Lottery winners are announced. Given these concerns, a more prudent approach would be to better understand the consequences of the bill before it is enacted.

Therefore, I am returning this bill with my recommendation that the State Treasurer undertake a review of the applicable laws, regulations, and rules concerning the disclosure of lottery winners in New Jersey and other jurisdictions. The Treasurer shall develop findings and recommendations on how delayed disclosure of lottery winners affects both lottery integrity and lottery sales. The Treasurer should report such findings and recommendations directly to me no later than December 31, 2013.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 2982 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 4, Line 31: Insert new section 1: "1. The State Treasurer shall undertake a review of the disclosure and nondisclosure of lottery winners in New Jersey and other jurisdictions and how nondisclosure affects transparency and lottery sales. The Treasurer shall report any findings and recommendations directly to the Governor no later than December 31, 2013."

Respectfully,
Chris Christie
Governor

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3614

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3614 without my approval.

This bill would require any contract between the State and a private entity that provides for "the operation of the state Lottery by the private entity" be subject to the Legislature's approval.

Plainly, the sponsors misunderstand the Department of the Treasury's announced intent to contract for marketing and sales services to support the State Lottery. Simply put, the Department's plan is intended to modernize and maximize the potential of the Lottery, and any such contract would be strictly limited to the provision of marketing and sales services. The Department would not, at the end of an open and transparent public procurement process, "privatize" the operation of the State Lottery as the bill's sponsors suggest. Ultimately, I will only sign such a contract if convinced that it will improve our State's Lottery and benefit the people of New Jersey.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3614 without my approval.

Respectfully,
Chris Christie
Governor

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 1273

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 1273 with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill requires that once in a 24-month period, the State Health Benefits Program ("SHBP") and the School Employees' Health Benefits Program ("SEHBP") shall provide, at no cost, claims experience data to a participating public employer within 30 days of receipt of a written request for the data.

My administration is committed to encouraging governmental entities to thoroughly consider the cost to taxpayers when determining what provider to engage when providing health benefits. Accordingly, I support the intent of this bill. However, this bill deals only the SHBP and SEHBP and does not address joint insurance funds where governmental units combine for the purpose of providing health benefits. Accordingly, in order to encourage all governmental units to consider all options, I am recommending that the bill be amended to also require that joint insurance funds provide claims experience data in the same manner as the SHBP and SEHBP.

Also, the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA") and related privacy rules limit the disclosure of protected health information. Thus, I am recommending that the bill be amended to ensure that the claims data only be provided in a manner that complies with HIPAA and related regulations.

Therefore, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 1273 and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 2, Title, Line 1: After "Program" insert "and joint insurance funds,"

Page 2, Title, Line 2: After "(C.52:14-17.25 et seq.)" insert "and P.L.1983, c.337 (C.40A:10-36 et seq.)"

Page 2, Section 1, Line 15: Delete "30" and insert "60"

Page 2, Section 1, Line 16: After "employer." Insert "Notwithstanding the above, the State Health Benefits Program shall issue claims experience data only in a manner that complies with the privacy requirements of the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Pub. L.104-191, and related regulations."

Page 2, Line 17: Insert new section 2: "2. A joint insurance fund established pursuant to P.L.1983, c.372 (C.40A:10-36 et seq.) and subsection e. of section 1 of P.L.1979, c.230 (C.40A:10-6) for the purposes of providing health benefits or health insurance coverage shall provide at no cost to the requestor, and not more than once in a 24-month period, complete claims experience data to a public employer that participates in the joint insurance fund and makes a written request for its claims experience information, including loss reports and large claims data. The joint insurance fund shall provide the information in an electronic and manual format to the participating public employer who has made a written request for its information, within 60 days of the receipt of the written request made by the public employer. Notwithstanding the above, the joint insurance fund shall issue claims experience data only in a manner that complies with the privacy requirements of the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Pub. L.104-191, and related regulations."

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 1279
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 1279 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill directs the New Jersey Turnpike Authority ("Authority") to study potential opportunities for increasing revenue at rest areas and service plazas along the New Jersey Turnpike and the Garden State Parkway.

Consistent with my commitment to reduce the size, scope, and cost of State government, I issued Executive Order 17 creating the New Jersey Privatization Task Force ("Task Force"). The Task Force examined areas where government services and functions could be provided by the private sector and concluded that privatization offers a variety of benefits to governments and taxpayers, including lower costs, improvements in the quality of services, and access to private sector capital and professional expertise. Most important, the Task Force identified more than $200 million in potential cost savings across State agencies.

In its May 31, 2010 report, the Task Force recommended further study of ways to generate revenue through the provision of additional and higher-quality services along the New Jersey Turnpike and Garden State Parkway. I applaud the Legislature for recognizing this recommendation; however, to fulfill that goal, the Authority needs sufficient flexibility to pursue the panoply of potential benefits from such services. Therefore, I recommend various amendments to the bill so that the Authority has the discretion to examine the full range of potential benefits from additional private sector services, including lower costs and improvements in the quality of services.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 1279 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 2, Section 1, Line 10:	After "revenue" insert "and lowering costs"

Respectfully,
Chris Christie
Governor

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 1578

(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 1578 (First Reprint) without my approval.

The independent contractor model is a common approach by which trucking businesses engage drivers in this State. This bill, however, seeks to establish a presumption that truck drivers in the drayage and parcel delivery industries are presumed to be employees rather than independent contractors. It further seeks to impose criminal penalties upon businesses that classify their drivers as independent contractors if the presumption is not overcome.

The willful misclassification of workers as independent contractors denies drivers the benefits and protections that come with employee status. Misclassification may also place honest businesses at a competitive disadvantage and may serve as a means of avoiding tax obligations. Nevertheless, the approach taken in this bill is overreaching and has the potential to cause severe and significant economic harms to New Jersey's trucking industry.

I am especially troubled by the criminal penalties imposed by this bill on businesses that misclassify their drivers, even if the misclassification is not willful. Given that the inquiry as to whether a truck driver is an independent contractor or an employee is necessarily fact-sensitive, a prudent trucking business seeking to use the independent contractor model may choose to leave the State rather than risk criminal culpability. Thus, this bill not only impacts willful misclassifiers, but may harm virtually any trucking business engaging drivers as independent contractors.

In addition to making New Jersey unfriendly to the trucking industry, the bill would likely have other undesirable consequences. For example, if trucking businesses flee the State, overseas shippers are likely to deliver goods to ports in other states and all manner of commerce could see adverse price impacts. In light of the need to continue to improve the economic climate in New Jersey, I cannot sign a bill that would have such a chilling effect on business.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 1578 (First Reprint) without my approval.

Respectfully,

Chris Christie

Governor

In order to add the MCANJ President, the bill requires the removal of a public member.

Under current law, there are five seats on the GRC. One seat is reserved for the Commissioner of Community Affairs, and another seat is reserved for the Commissioner of Education. The remaining three seats are for "public members," persons appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, who are not employed by the government.

Thus, under current law, only two seats on the GRC are reserved for government employees, with the remaining three reserved for individuals who are not employed by the government. Current law reflects a policy that government transparency is best preserved if government employees are not permitted to dominate the GRC through a majority. I agree with that principle. OPRA currently strikes a delicate balance with respect to the composition of the GRC. While perhaps not the intention of the Legislature, this bill would disturb that balance in a way that could inadvertently undermine transparency and public access to government records.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 1857 without my approval.

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2737

(Third Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 2737 (Third Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill seeks to "clarify" that a 1987 law exempting newly constructed multiple dwelling housing units from rent control ordinances for a period of time does not apply to senior citizen housing.

While I am mindful that many senior citizens live on fixed incomes and cannot easily afford rent increases, many believe that rent control distorts the market for rental housing and depresses the housing supply, thus leading to an overall rise in rent. In fact, the legislative findings accompanying existing law state that rent control may hinder the construction of new rental housing.

Therefore, while I support the sponsors' intent to protect the economic circumstances of senior citizens, it is not clear that this bill will have the desired impact. Accordingly, I recommend that the Director of the Division of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs undertakes a review of the application of rent control ordinances to housing constructed for senior citizens and develop findings and recommendations regarding the impact of rent control ordinances on the supply and cost of housing constructed for senior citizens.

Therefore, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 2737 (Third Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 2, Title, Line 1: Delete "clarifying the application of the statutory exemption from" and insert "concerning"

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3039
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3039 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

Lupus is a serious chronic, autoimmune disease that impacts the lives of thousands of New Jersey residents every day. While I applaud the sponsors' intent to raise awareness and better educate health care providers and the general public on the harmful effects of lupus, I believe the bill should be amended to instead launch a one-year effort that will swiftly implement the provisions of this bill. I support the development of a comprehensive lupus education and awareness plan, including the creation of a directory of lupus-related health care services and a listing of health care providers who specialize in the diagnosis and treatment of lupus, and I earnestly await the efforts of a one-year task force I recommend herein.

Raising awareness of public health concerns and the impact of chronic disease is a laudable goal. To that end, I was pleased that, earlier this summer, the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention awarded the New Jersey Department of Health a grant for the prevention and management of diabetes, heart disease, and other chronic diseases. This initiative will help coordinate and integrate all State programs that address chronic disease prevention and disease management, as well as promote an overall wellness program and culture in New Jersey.

The efforts of the task force embodied in my recommendation will undoubtedly aid the Department in the development of the chronic disease initiative and, therefore, it is evermore critical that the task force quickly perform its important work.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3039 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3082

(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3082 (First Reprint) without my approval.

This bill addresses vehicle license cost recovery fees, which are imposed by motor vehicle rental companies on their customers in order to recover costs related to licensing, titling, registration, inspection, and plating of their motor vehicles. The bill explicitly authorizes motor vehicle rental companies to charge such fees and requires that the amount of the fee reflect the proportional part of all licensing, titling, registration, inspection, and plating fees incurred by the company and attributable to the rental. The bill also requires that the vehicle license cost recovery fee be identified separately in the rental contract.

Current law does not prohibit motor vehicle rental companies from collecting vehicle license cost recovery fees, and, indeed, many motor vehicle rental companies operating in New Jersey already collect such fees. This legislation has the potential to create confusion, both because such a fee is not currently prohibited by law and because the bill does not make clear that the fee would not be mandated by the State. In fact, given the detailed requirements in the bill, if this bill were to become law, it is possible a consumer would assume that the State of New Jersey is imposing a fee, which it does not and I will not.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3082 (First Reprint) without my approval.

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3222

(Third Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3222 (Third Reprint) without my approval.

This bill creates a host of new regulations purporting to deter theft in the scrap metal industry. Specifically, the bill requires that scrap metal operators maintain a record of receipts for all scrap metal purchases. Additionally, the bill increases the scope of records that these businesses must maintain and constricts their purchasing options. Furthermore, the bill requires operators of scrap metal businesses to electronically submit records maintained on the purchase or receipt of scrap metal.

Deterring scrap metal theft in New Jersey is a laudable objective. However, I am concerned that significantly increasing recordkeeping and reporting requirements on scrap metal businesses will impose substantial expenses and administrative burdens on operators in this State. Businesses that abide by the law, especially our State's small business community, should not be penalized with overly burdensome requirements. Imposing additional hurdles on legitimate small businesses may deter law-abiding scrap metal businesses that contribute to our State's economy from operating in New Jersey.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3222 (Third Reprint) without my approval.

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3227

(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3227 (First Reprint) without my approval.

This bill would establish a new real estate licensure classification for the sale of timeshare interests. Under current law, the professional brokered sale of real estate is restricted to real estate brokers, broker-salespersons, and salespersons.

While I appreciate the sponsors' intent to provide more opportunities for those seeking to work in the real estate industry, I am concerned that the bill will not properly ensure that the needs of consumers purchasing or selling a timeshare are fully addressed. The proposed education requirements for timeshare salespersons are substantially less than those currently required for real estate salespersons and brokers. In contrast, under current law, referral agents, whose activities are limited to referring prospects for the sale, purchase, or lease of real estate, must complete more pre-licensure education than the timeshare salesperson licensee under this bill. As such, the proposed education requirements for timeshare salespersons appear insufficient to adequately cover core real estate curriculum and training. In addition, this bill would hinder other safeguards currently in place under existing real estate licensure law, as timeshare salesperson would not be subject to certain compliance standards applicable to other real estate licensees.

Consumer protection is an important concern of my Administration, and timeshare sales involve complex transactions that impose significant financial obligations on consumers. Consumers should have confidence in the salespersons managing their real estate transactions. Therefore, I cannot approve a new licensure process that reduces professional requirements and hinders safeguards that exist under current law.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3227 (First Reprint) without my approval.

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3270

(Second Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3270 (Second Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill requires the Commissioner of Labor and Workforce Development, in consultation with the Commissioner of Education, to develop a career exploration report that provides students in seventh to twelfth grades with information concerning employment in high-demand industries. Each school district is required to distribute hard copies of the report to parents and guardians.

I support sensible and cost-efficient measures designed to further educate our students about how they can explore career options. To that end, the Departments of Education and Labor and Workforce Development already provide employment and career information to students in addition to what is taught in the classroom. For example, the departments collaborate on a free online career guidance system known as the New Jersey Career Assistance Navigator, www.njcan.org, which provides comprehensive and current employment and career information to students, educators, and parents.

In light of the State's current efforts on this front, and to avoid unnecessary duplication and waste, I am returning this bill with my recommendation that the Commissioner of Labor and Workforce Development and the Commissioner of Education undertake a review of all existing efforts of their respective departments to provide middle and high school students with information concerning employment in high-demand industries and report back to me on whether current efforts provide sufficient career guidance to students.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3270 (Second Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3489
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3489 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill would allow a horse racing permitholder to enter into a contractual agreement with a horsemen's association to redistribute a portion of statutorily designated purse monies for the purposes of advancing, preserving, and enhancing the overall economic well-being of the State's horse racing and breeding industry. The bill would allow a harness racing permitholder to enter into an agreement with the Standardbred Breeders' and Owners' Association of New Jersey, in the case of harness racing, and a thoroughbred permitholder to enter into an agreement with the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, in the case of running races.

I commend the sponsors' efforts to further effectuate the privatization of New Jersey's horse racing industry by allowing permitholders and horsemen's associations to enter into private contracts to distribute purse monies as they see fit in order to enhance the well-being of New Jersey's horse racing industry. However, while the purpose of the bill is salutary, the broad language of the bill has the potential to adversely impact the overall integrity of New Jersey's horse racing industry. Specifically, the bill's broad language potentially would allow parties to mask their parochial interests in contractual agreements purported to be in the best interests of the industry.

Based upon the foregoing, I return this legislation with my recommendations to provide safeguards that ensure that all contractual agreements made pursuant to this bill are indeed in the best interests of New Jersey's self-sustaining horse racing industry.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3489 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 31, Section 11, Line 5: Delete "the purposes of" and insert "a use that the New Jersey Racing Commission approves as directly"

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3659
(Fourth Reprint)
(Corrected Copy)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3659 (Fourth Reprint) (Corrected Copy) without my approval.

As is widely known, New Jersey already has the second strictest gun laws in the United States as reported by the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence. Controlling violence in our communities, however, demands that we continue to evaluate our laws to make certain that fundamental rights and public safety are equally respected. To that end, in early 2013, the NJ SAFE Task Force set forth a comprehensive and common sense plan to strengthen New Jersey's existing gun laws by, among other things, responsibly expanding the State's already stringent gun laws in certain key areas. One recommendation was to limit future sales of one specific type of firearm: the Barrett 50 caliber long-range rifle. Their proposal was a narrowly crafted, prospective limitation.

This bill, however, goes well beyond that recommendation and would instead criminalize the ownership of a whole class of firearms that are technically capable of firing any ammunition of 50 caliber or greater. Indeed, this legislation would ban many of the firearms currently and lawfully used by competitive marksmen for long-range precision target shooting that, due to their size (approximately four to five feet in length) and weight (approximately 35 pounds), are not used by criminals. Tellingly, the Legislature points to no instance of this class of firearms being used by even a single criminal in New Jersey. The wide scope of this total ban, therefore, will not further public safety, but only interfere with lawful recreational pastimes.

Moreover, while the bill purports to allow current owners of these guns to continue their possession, drafting errors in the bill actually eliminate all lawful possession of the firearms in this classification. As a result, I am advised by the Office of the Attorney General that this bill would instead impose criminal liability on all current owners of these weapons, including those individuals who had properly registered their guns with law enforcement officials.

As Governor, and the former chief federal prosecutor for our State, I recognize that the threats to our safety and security demand vigilance, deterrence, and a tireless enforcement of our criminal laws. This bill, however, will not further our collective fight against crime, but serve only to confuse law-abiding gun owners with the threat of imprisonment for lawful recreation. I cannot approve of that result, and I encourage the Legislature to instead take immediate action on the dozens of commonsense improvements I have proposed that will truly deter criminals.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3659 (Fourth Reprint) (Corrected Copy) without my approval.

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3668

(Second Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3668 (Second Reprint) without my approval.

Today, I signed the bi-partisan Fiscal Year 2014 Appropriations Act passed by the Legislature. For the fourth year in a row, this balanced and responsible budget maintains fiscal discipline, while providing for essential services for all New Jerseyans. Equally important, and like the last three budgets proposed by my Administration, the 2014

Appropriations Act contains no tax increases, maintains spending below the levels of Fiscal Year 2008, and includes a prudent surplus.

The 2014 Annual Budget is the result of the tireless efforts of both my Administration and the Legislature working collaboratively to achieve a framework for government that benefits all New Jerseyans. By addressing our State's needs together, without regard for political party but without compromising our fundamental beliefs, we achieved a budget that balances policies, priorities, and needs. I am thankful for the efforts of the Senate President, the Speaker of the Assembly, and the entire Legislature for their willingness to join me in the spirit of compromise to pass this fiscally sound budget that maintains our State's path to greater prosperity. Since taking office, I have worked to repair the fractured and unproductive culture of divisive governance by collaborating with my fellow elected officials. Together, in stark contrast to past practice in Trenton and current practice across the nation, we in New Jersey continue to demonstrate the great good that can be accomplished when public servants put the people, and not petty partisan politics, first. The 2014 Appropriations Act is but another illustration of New Jersey leading by example.

Today, I also return a number of bills without my approval. Accompanying the budget, but not part of the negotiated appropriation, were proposals that would deplete the State's fiscal resources, restructure government in a significant manner, and significantly alter the policy and spending priorities set forth in the Appropriations Act. Given those impacts, these bills should have been considered as part of the bi-partisan budget negotiated between my Administration and the Legislature. Taken together, these bills would potentially add hundreds of millions of dollars to State and local budgets, frustrating New Jersey's already over-burdened taxpayers and undermining the budget I signed today. While each bill may have merit, consideration of that merit is better accomplished in the context of negotiating a balanced budget, as we have done this year.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3668 (Second Reprint) without my approval.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR
ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3680
(Third Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Committee Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 3680 (Third Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill would expand the Grow New Jersey ("GrowNJ") and Economic Redevelopment and Growth ("ERG") tax incentive programs, while phasing out the Business Retention and Relocation Assistance Grant, the Business Employment Incentive, and the Urban Transit Hub Tax Credit programs. For the expanded GrowNJ and ERG programs, the bill recalibrates the allocation of tax incentives to maximize economic development and private-sector job growth, while lowering program eligibility thresholds for New Jersey's municipalities in the most need of economic redevelopment.

I commend the sponsors' efforts to improve New Jersey's already successful economic development programs. The new opportunities for our State's businesses, employers, and workers contained in this bill represent a significant and needed modernization. However, I recommend modifications to the level of incentives for certain projects, and different requirements for businesses and developers seeking to invest in New Jersey's economy through these incentive programs. With these minor, but important, modifications incorporated, I look forward to swiftly signing this bill.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Committee Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 3680 (Third Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3797

(Second Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3797 (Second Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

By Directive of the Attorney General of the State of New Jersey, State law enforcement officers and agencies are required to report information regarding firearms that are seized from criminals, recovered in a criminal investigation, or discovered as abandoned or discarded. The Attorney General's Directive requires this information be shared with database systems including the National Crime Information Center's 2000 System; NJ Trace (a part of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives' ("ATF") e-Trace System); and the National Integrated Ballistics Identification Network. This bill would require the same reporting – a requirement that, while redundant of our existing law enforcement efforts, is nonetheless worthwhile.

However, the bill would also require the Superintendent of State Police to issue various reports that disclose firearms trace data received from the ATF. This reporting requirement extends to data already provided by the federal government, data currently in the possession of law enforcement, and all future data received. According to the Office of the Attorney General, that requirement violates federal law. Named for their sponsor, United States Representative Todd Tiahrt, the "Tiahrt Amendments" have been attached to the appropriations bills of the United States Department of Justice since 2003, and prohibit the knowing and public disclosure of ATF trace data information that law enforcement entities receive by virtue of their participation in the ATF firearms trace system database program. Without question, the existing Attorney General Law Enforcement Directive mandating submission of crime gun and abandoned gun information is a laudable program that enhances law enforcement efforts to combat gun trafficking. However, the law is clear with regard to the prohibition against public disclosure of ATF trace data information that law enforcement entities receive by virtue of their participation in the ATF firearms trace system database program.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3797 (Second Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 4149
(Second Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 4149 (Second Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill authorizes the New Jersey Racing Commission to grant a special permit to conduct a horse racing event on the beach. The bill also authorizes the Commission to grant a special permit to conduct a steeplechase race meeting at a location other than a racetrack. The bill authorizes wagering for both of these new races.

I commend the sponsors for their interest in enhancing New Jersey's self-sustaining horse racing industry and applaud their efforts to attract horse racing fans, families, and tourists to New Jersey to witness a unique horse racing event on the beach. However, I believe that the bill's provision that would allow wagering at special steeplechase race meetings deserves further consideration to determine how wagering at such events would affect surrounding local communities. An expansion of wagering events at locations other than racetracks or outside Atlantic City requires careful deliberation and is not warranted at this time.

I believe a special horse racing event on the beach will attract more people to our State while nonetheless preserving the breadth of horse racing around the State. Therefore, I am recommending that the bill be amended to only authorize the special running race meeting on the beach.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 4149 (Second Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 3, Section 1, Line 16:	After "simulcasting" insert "within this State"

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 4171

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 4171 without my approval.

Today, I signed the bi-partisan Fiscal Year 2014 Appropriations Act passed by the Legislature. For the fourth year in a row, this balanced and responsible budget maintains fiscal discipline, while providing for essential services for all New Jerseyans. Equally important, and like the last three budgets proposed by my Administration, the 2014 Appropriations Act contains no tax increases, maintains spending below the levels of Fiscal Year 2008, and includes a prudent surplus.

The 2014 Annual Budget is the result of the tireless efforts of both my Administration and the Legislature working collaboratively to achieve a framework for government that benefits all New Jerseyans. By addressing our State's needs together, without regard for political party but without compromising our fundamental beliefs, we achieved a budget that balances policies, priorities, and needs. I am thankful for the efforts of the Senate President, the Speaker of the Assembly, and the entire Legislature for their willingness to join me in the spirit of compromise to pass this fiscally sound budget that maintains our State's path to greater prosperity. Since taking office, I have worked to repair the fractured and unproductive culture of divisive governance by collaborating with my fellow elected officials. Together, in stark contrast to past practice in Trenton and current practice across the nation, we in New Jersey continue to demonstrate the great good that can be accomplished when public servants put the people, and not petty partisan politics, first. The 2014 Appropriations Act is but another illustration of New Jersey leading by example.

Today, I also return a number of bills without my approval. Accompanying the budget, but not part of the negotiated appropriation, were proposals that would deplete the State's fiscal resources, restructure government in a significant manner, and significantly alter the policy and spending priorities set forth in the Appropriations Act. Given those impacts, these bills should have been considered as part of the bi-partisan budget negotiated between my Administration and the Legislature. Taken together, these bills would potentially add hundreds of millions of dollars to State and local budgets, frustrating New Jersey's already over-burdened taxpayers and undermining the budget I signed today. While each bill may have merit, consideration of that merit is better accomplished in the context of negotiating a balanced budget, as we have done this year.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 4171 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Chris Christie

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 4232
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 4232 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill seeks to allow certain "pilot counties" to use the "undesignated fund balances" or "unreserved retained earnings" of county utilities authorities to fund county infrastructure projects, with such projects potentially unrelated to the water or wastewater infrastructure that is maintained by the individual utility authority.

While I support the sponsors' desire to find ways for counties to fund infrastructure projects without reliance on property taxes, this bill could unfairly burden New Jerseyans. In 2010, I signed into law the bipartisan measure that capped property tax hikes at a maximum of 2% per year, subject to limited exceptions. Enactment of "Cap 2.0" was a key first step in controlling the State's property tax burden and one of the most important early achievements of my Administration. It is imperative that we continue to limit the fiscal burdens on New Jerseyans. While this bill would advance the public policy goal of facilitating county utilities' efforts to support worthwhile infrastructure projects, it may also have the unintended consequence of increasing the burden on taxpayers through higher utility user fees.

Because the bill would permit the pilot counties to use utility funds to support other projects, I am concerned that the bill would put pressure on utilities to raise user fees or invest less in maintaining utility-related infrastructure. Imposing additional burdens on residents of this State, whether in the form of property taxes or fees, is unacceptable as we continue to regain our economic footing. Likewise, disincentivizing the maintenance of vital utility-related infrastructure is problematic, especially when the State is continuing to recover from Superstorm Sandy. If a county wishes to fund a truly necessary infrastructure project, it should examine its own budget to appropriately prioritize spending.

Accordingly, I recommend that any arrangement that would allow counties to use utility funds for non-utility purposes should be subject to State oversight. Before a pilot county can use utility funds in the manner described in this bill, the county and the utility must apply to the Director of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs and obtain his or her approval. Furthermore, I recommend that the pilot program expire after a period of four years.

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 4232 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 2, Section 2, Line 34: Delete "The" and insert "Upon application to and approval by the Director of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs, the"

Page 2, Section 2, Line 36: Delete "Legislature" and insert "Director of Local Government Services"

Page 12, Section 6, Line 25: After "county" insert ", and only following application to and approval by the Director of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs"

Page 12, Section 7, Line 28: After "immediately" insert "and shall expire 4 years following the date of enactment"

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 4237

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 4237 without my approval.

This bill would change the date of the 2013 general election from November 5, 2013, to October 16, 2013, the same day as the special election that I called in order to swiftly elect a new Senator to fill the vacancy in New Jersey's elected representation in the United States Senate.

Historically, New Jersey's general election takes place every year on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. Moving the date of the general election has the potential to cause unnecessary voter confusion, as the general election takes place at the same time each year. While the bill would require the Secretary of State to provide appropriate notice regarding the date change, there is no guarantee that every voter would know that the general election had been moved to October. Thus, in a year in which we had to quickly adapt to fill a vacancy in the United States Senate caused by the passing of Senator Frank Lautenberg, this bill could have caused needless confusion among voters. I cannot support unnecessary legislation that carries the risk that some New Jersey citizens could lose their opportunity to vote in the general election.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 4237 without my approval.

Respectfully,

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 4249

(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 4249 (First Reprint) without my approval.

This bill would designate October 16, 2013, as an "early voting day" for both the special election to fill New Jersey's United States Senate vacancy and for the general election scheduled for November 5, 2013. Effectively, this bill would have resulted in the elimination of the October 16 special election because all ballots cast on October 16 would be considered "early," and thus New Jersey voters would be unable to elect a new United States Senator until the completion of the general election in November.

New Jersey voters deserve to have their voices heard in the United States Senate as soon as practicable, which is why I called for a special election in October. I cannot support legislation that would require the citizens of New Jersey to wait to choose their representation in the United States Senate.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 4249 (First Reprint) without my approval.

Respectfully,

Chris Christie

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3059

(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3059 (First Reprint) with my recommendations.

This bill is the Legislature's second attempt to expand the duties of the Financial Policy Review Board (the "Board") with respect to the State's Annual Capital Transportation Program (the "Program"), and incorporates the provisions of Assembly Bill No. 2288, which I conditionally approved.

As I stated in the conditional approval of Assembly Bill No. 2288, I believe expansion of the Board's oversight responsibility is unnecessary as the Department of Transportation engages in a constant, ongoing review of the Program, and the Legislature reviews the Program each year as part of the budget process. I believe that the Board best serves the taxpayers in its fundamental role as an independent entity that annually reviews and certifies the State's transportation financing. Altering those duties would only impede the Board's ability to discharge that critically important task.

Moreover, the majority of information required under the bill is currently available on the YourMoneyNJ.com and Department of Transportation websites. My Administration is committed to transparent spending of taxpayer dollars and, to that end, established these sites to provide taxpayers with tools to understand public finances and make government accountable. Requiring the Board to establish an additional website to provide this same information is not an effective use of public funds. However, as I recommended previously, in the interest of ensuring that information on State's Annual Capital Transportation Program remains available to taxpayers in future administrations, the bill should be amended to statutorily require the Department of Transportation to include information on the Program on its website.

Accordingly, I recommend that the bill be amended so that it maintains the Board's current responsibilities and codifies into law the transparency my Administration has brought to the Program.

Therefore, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3059 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 2, Title, Lines 1-2: Delete "Financial Policy Review Board and amending and supplementing P.L.2006, c.3" and insert "Annual Transportation Capital Program and supplementing Title 27 of the Revised Statutes"

Page 2, Line 6: Insert new section 1: "1. The Department of Transportation shall provide access to comprehensive information related to the Annual Transportation Capital Program on its website. The information available on the website shall, include, but not be limited to: the Annual Transportation Capital Program and Five-Year Capital Plan; the New Jersey Transportation Trust Fund Authority's financial plan; the Statewide Capital Investment Strategy, the State Transportation Improvement Program; New Jersey Transit Corporation's capital lease financing program; information on contractual payments made to the State or the New Jersey Transportation Trust Fund Authority by the New Jersey Turnpike Authority to fund the Annual Transportation Capital Program; information on contractual payments made to the State or the New Jersey Transportation Trust Fund Authority by the South Jersey Transportation Authority to fund the Annual Transportation Capital Program; information on Port Authority of New York and New Jersey reimbursement for projects in the Annual Transportation Capital Program; information on annual federal reimbursements related to current and prior year Transportation Capital Program; the use of monies from the General Fund for the New Jersey Transportation Trust Fund as projected in the Annual Transportation Capital Program; the Financial Policy Review Board's State of the Condition of Transportation Financing certification and any corrective active plans related thereto; and any other information that the commissioner deems relevant to providing transparency with regard to the Annual Capital Transportation Program and the financing thereof. Information available on the Department's website related to the Annual Transportation Capital Program shall be updated on a regular basis as may be appropriate, but all information shall be reviewed and updated at least annually."

ASSEMBLY SUBSTITUTE FOR
ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR
ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 321

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Substitute for Assembly Committee Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 321 with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill seeks to establish a pilot program for the protection of certain domestic violence victims. The bill would require the Attorney General and the State Parole Board to create a new and novel electronic monitoring system in Ocean County that would track persons who have already violated the terms of a Court-ordered domestic violence restraining order. The system envisioned by this bill would also track the location of the victim and provide twenty-four hour monitoring to alert the victim when the attacker's signal is in the vicinity. The bill would appropriate $1 million and create new fees and penalties applied State-wide to be used to offset the cost of the Ocean County pilot program.

I applaud the Legislature's attention to both the need to protect victims of domestic violence, and the possibilities for using new technologies to create safer communities. Indeed, I have called for wholesale changes to our system of criminal justice that would provide our Courts with much needed flexibility to detain and hold the most dangerous and violent offenders. I welcome proposals like this bill that call for enhanced monitoring and supervision of defendants released back onto our streets. As noted in the bill, however, the technology necessary to provide the monitoring, warning, and round-the-clock supervision does not appear to be currently available to law enforcement. Given that limitation, appropriate steps should first be taken to evaluate the feasibility of implementing such a robust monitoring system, and any alternatives that may exist for improved oversight of serious offenders in all counties of our State. Therefore, I recommend that the Attorney General conduct a thorough evaluation of the availability of the technology needed to create and implement this monitoring system and report back to me in no more than 120 days. With the Legislature's swift concurrence with these recommendations, this expeditious but thorough study will be in hand by the Spring. Together, my Administration, members of the law enforcement community, and the Legislature, will then be able to make an informed decision before the end of the fiscal year this July as to whether this monitoring system, or a suitable alternative to protect victims of domestic violence, can be implemented. This collaborative approach will ensure that our mutual goal of protecting victims of domestic violence is pursued responsibly and feasibly this year.

Therefore, I herewith return Assembly Substitute for Assembly Committee Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 321 and recommend that it be amended as follows:

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2887
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 2887 (First Reprint) without my approval.

With this bill, the Legislature seeks to require the State's Energy Master Plan ("EMP") to incorporate benchmarks designed to measure the State's progress towards meeting its long-term energy objectives and for the EMP to analyze the efficiency of generation capacity and the State's energy infrastructure. In advancing this bill, however, the Legislature overlooked the fact that my 2011 EMP already includes interim implementation of measures designed to achieve the State's long-term objectives and discusses in detail the promotion of a diverse portfolio of new, in-state, clean-energy generation and the accordant energy infrastructure opportunities and challenges facing the State. Thus, Assembly Bill No. 2887 (First Reprint) is unnecessary as it requires what my Administration is already doing.

Further, the advancement of this redundant legislation must be contrasted with the Legislature's failure to act on other priority initiatives. For example, informed by lessons learned from Tropical Storm Irene and two months before Superstorm Sandy made landfall, I sent to the Legislature "The Reliability, Preparedness, and Storm Response Act of 2012." That legislation was another step in my Administration's commitment to protect ratepayers and improve utility response to emergencies by, among other things, substantially strengthening and modernizing the Board of Public Utilities' ("BPU") enforcement powers. In the intervening 16 months, the Legislature has failed to pass that important legislation. Instead, the Legislature advanced a version of my proposal that watered down the enforcement mechanism and exempted certain utilities from its purview.

Rather than devote time and deliberation to meaningful reform legislation informed by Irene and confirmed by Sandy, the Legislature has delivered to my desk a superfluous bill that fundamentally does not alter the State's EMP and does not address existing energy infrastructure issues identified by my Administration.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 2887 (First Reprint) without my approval.

Respectfully,
Chris Christie
Governor

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3445

(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3445 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill provides that a pet owner may board public transportation with their pet when a state of emergency has been declared and an evacuation is in progress, provided that the pet does not constitute a health or safety hazard. The bill requires that the animal be under the owner's control by use of a leash or tether, or properly confined in an appropriate container or by other suitable means.

Pets are important to many families, and protecting pets during a state of emergency is a laudable goal. Current State and local emergency evacuation plans, however, already are required to address the needs of animals and, therefore, the evacuation of pets via public transportation should be consistent with those plans. Also, although the bill indicates that an animal should not be permitted to board public transportation if the animal causes a health or safety hazard, the bill does not establish a standard for refusing boarding. Finally, the bill should make clear that passengers with service animals shall be given priority seating in accordance with the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

Therefore, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3445 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

Page 2, Section 1, Line 8:	Delete "a dog, cat, bird, fish or"
Page 2, Section 1, Lines 9-10: a health or safety hazard"	Delete "which does not constitute or"

Page 2, Section 1, Line 13: Delete "purpose" and insert "purposes. Domestic companion animal does not include livestock as defined in N.J.A.C. 2:2-1.1"

Page 2, Section 1, Line 24: After "means" insert ", provided that such boarding is authorized by and consistent with the provisions of the State of Emergency Operation Plans developed pursuant to paragraph (1) of subsection a. of section 18 of P.L.1989, c.222 (C.App.A.:9-43.1) pertaining to the needs of animals and individuals with an animal under their care"

Page 2, Section 1, Line 28: After "(C.App.A:9-33.1)." insert "A domestic companion animal may be refused permission to board any public transportation or public transportation service, even if the animal is under the owner's control or properly confined in accordance with this subsection if there is reasonable cause to believe that, due to attendant circumstances, permitting the animal to board would pose a health or safety hazard. c. All passengers with service animals shall be given priority seating on all means of transportation regulated by this act in accordance with the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990" (42 U.S.C. s.12101 et seq.). For the purposes of this act, service animal shall have the same meaning as set forth in the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990" (42 U.S.C. s.12101 et seq.) and any regulations under the act."

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3972
(Second Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 3972 (Second Reprint) without my approval.

This bill would create a twenty-one member task force to study and evaluate issues associated with the establishment and implementation of full-day kindergarten.

Ensuring that all children have access to an excellent education is a top priority of my Administration. To this end, the Division of Early Childhood Education within the Department of Education has annually tracked the number of full-day kindergarten programs throughout the State and has consistently assisted school districts pursuing a full-day kindergarten program. Currently, almost three-quarters of school districts offer a full-day kindergarten program, and each year more and more districts transition to a full-day program. In light of the work currently carried out by the Division of Early Childhood Education, the contemplated purpose of the sizable task force created by this bill would be redundant. Further, while the Department of Education is ready, willing, and able to assist districts in implementing a full-day program, the decision of whether to offer a full-day program should reside with local boards of education and their constituents.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3972 (Second Reprint) without my approval.

Respectfully,
Chris Christie
Governor

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 4097

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 4097 without my approval.

This bill revises current standards applicable to the issuance of an amended birth certificate by the State Registrar of Vital Statistics. Specifically, the bill requires issuance of an amended birth certificate on receipt of a form completed by the person's licensed health care provider that indicates that the person has undergone clinically appropriate treatment for the purpose of gender transition, based on contemporary medical standards, or that the person has an intersex condition. The bill also permits a minor to apply for an amended birth certificate if submitted by a parent or guardian on behalf of the minor. In addition, current law requires the State Registrar to place the original certificate of birth and all papers pertaining to the amended certificate of birth under seal, which is not to be broken except by order of a court. The bill permits the seal to be broken on the request of the person, or upon the request of the parent or guardian, if the person is a minor. Finally, the bill clarifies that the amended certificate shall not be marked as amended.

A birth certificate is an important legal document. In many instances, the production of a birth certificate is a prerequisite to obtaining other critical identification documents that factor into decisions concerning employment, financial services, education, and travel. Birth certificates are often required to complete myriad security-related tasks. Accordingly, proposed measures that revise the standards for the issuance of amended birth certificates may result in significant legal uncertainties and create opportunities for fraud, deception, and abuse, and should therefore be closely scrutinized and sparingly approved.

Unlike many other states, New Jersey already has an administrative process in place to streamline applications to amend birth certificates for gender purposes without court order. Under the proposal before me, however, the sponsors seek to alter the amended birth certificate application process without maintaining appropriate safeguards. Consequently, further consideration is necessary to determine whether to make such significant changes to State law concerning the issuance of vital records.

Accordingly, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 4097 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Chris Christie

Governor

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 4339
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 4339 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill codifies the establishment of an existing toll-free helpline, the "Mom2Mom Peer Support Program" helpline, currently operated by the New Jersey Department of Children and Families ("DCF") in conjunction with University Behavioral HealthCare of Rutgers University. The helpline provides peer support for mothers of children with special needs, in addition to clinical services, telephone assessments, a network of service providers, live chat, and support groups. The bill requires DCF to continue the operation of the helpline with University Behavioral HealthCare of Rutgers University and requires an annual appropriation from the General Fund for the maintenance of the helpline.

This bill emphasizes the critical importance of a peer support helpline to assist mothers of children with special needs. Indeed, the "Mom2Mom Peer Support Program" helpline plays an important role in my Administration's efforts to ensure the safety and well-being of the children and families in our State, and, since its 2010 establishment, has fielded over 28,000 calls from mothers, caregivers, and their families.

I applaud the sponsors for their efforts to facilitate the continued operation of a peer support helpline for mothers of children with special needs. However, the bill's requirement for an annual appropriation from the General Fund to DCF for the maintenance of the helpline is unwarranted. Since becoming Governor, I have repeatedly called for responsible budgeting that carefully calibrates revenues and expenditures for adoption of a balanced budget through the annual appropriations act at the beginning of each fiscal year. Regrettably, and notwithstanding my calls for fiscal restraint, the Legislature has continued to propose expenditures outside of the State Budget. The required annual appropriation proposed in Assembly Bill No. 4339 is another such example.

As noted previously, my Administration has fully supported and funded the "Mom2Mom Peer Support Program" helpline since 2010 without the need for an appropriation by the Legislature outside of the annual appropriations process. Accordingly, I recommend language enabling the maintenance of this important program into the future, while simultaneously eliminating any potential circumvention of the budget process or unnecessary burden on the taxpayers of New Jersey.

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 4339 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:
