Governor to Announce New Charter Schools

Gov. Christie Whitman will announce the next round of approved charter schools tomorrow at 11:00 a.m. at the Princeton Charter School, 575 Ewing Street, Princeton. The announcement will be preceded by a tour of the school. The Governor will be joined by Commissioner of Education Leo Klagholz.

The Governor signed the law authorizing the creation of charter schools in 1996. Currently, there are thirteen charter schools operating statewide in the 1997-98 school year.
