SECTION XVII

Of the Act entitled "An Act concerning Inns and Taverns," passed February 24th, 1797.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the said courts, and they are hereby respectively empowered and directed, at every of their spring sessions hereafter, to ascertain the rates and prices of the several liquors, meat and entertainment for man, and also fix the several sums for the provender, stabling and pasture for horses, to be taken by every licensed innholder and tavern-keeper within their respective counties; and every such innholder and tavern-keeper shall obtain from the clerk of the court, and, in ten days after such session, fix or set up to open view, in the most public room in his or her inn and tavern, a fair copy of the Rates and Prices of the articles and things so ascertained by the said court, with a copy of this clause thereunto subjoined, attested by the said clerk, and keep up the said copy so as aforesaid, exposed to open view, until a new rate shall be made, under the penalty of four dollars for every day that he or she shall refuse, neglect or omit to fix, set or keep up the same, to be sued for and recovered by action of debt, with costs, in any court of record having cognizance thereof by any person or persons who shall prosecute for the same; and further, if any innholder and tavern-keeper shall ask, demand or receive a greater price for any liquors, diet, lodging, provender, stabling, pasturage, or other article, than by such rate shall be allowed, he or she so offending shall, for every offence, forfeit and pay four dollars, to be recovered in the manner last above mentioned, and his license shall immediately thereupon become void; and lastly, the said clerk shall be entitled to receive from such innholder and tavern keeper for the copy of rates aforesaid, and this section thereunto annexed, the sum of fifty cents.

By order of the Court.

Wm. Emery CLERK.
