AWARDS OF CONTRACT ANNOUNCED

Public Libraries Awarded FY 1997 Electronic Resources Grant
182 libraries awarded grants totaling $452,237

In order to provide to every resident of New Jersey full and equal access to online library electronic resources, the State Library developed a grant program to assure that every public library has at least one state-of-the-art multimedia computer capable of both accessing remote databases and CD-ROM databases. Public libraries already having this state-of-the-art computer were given a grant to purchase telecommunications, equipment, software, materials and services that expand their access to electronic resources. Equipment purchased with grant funds will assist public libraries in providing new or expanded reference and/or information or children services using this new technology.

ANALYSIS OF THE GRANT APPLICATIONS

The RFP and application for Electronic Resources for Public Libraries was mailed to 203 public libraries. Ninety percent or 183 of the libraries submitted applications; 20 libraries did not. Of the 183, 182 libraries passed and were awarded a contract.

Sixty percent or 109 of the libraries approved for an award of contract applied for Program A which is for libraries who do not currently own an IBM compatible multimedia computer with a Pentium processor.

Forty percent or 73 libraries approved for an award of contract applied for Program B which is for libraries who already have this equipment and allows for the purchase of the hardware and software required for Program A or for the upgrade of existing equipment and/or for the purchase of telecommunications or of other technology related equipment and service.

Tischler Memorial Fund FY 1997 Grant Program: Electronic Resources for Public Libraries
30 libraries awarded grants totaling $147,521

The Tischler Memorial Fund was established as the result of a bequest by Nathaniel Tischler and his wife, Florence Taylor Tischler, to the State Library. Their intention was to improve library service throughout New Jersey, particularly to "small and needy" municipalities and communities. The objective of the FY 1997 grant is to assist public libraries in the provision of new or expanded reference or information or children's services through access to remote electronic resources via the Internet and the World Wide Web.

ANALYSIS OF THE GRANT APPLICATIONS

The RFP and application was mailed to 39 public libraries selected according to criteria developed by the State Library. Seventy-nine percent or 31 of the libraries submitted applications; 8 libraries did not. Of the 31, 30 libraries passed and were awarded a contract.

Eighty-three percent or 25 of the libraries approved for an award of contract applied for Program A which is for libraries who do not currently own an IBM compatible multimedia computer with a Pentium processor and do not currently have graphical access to World Wide Web (WWW) databases.

Seventeen percent or 5 libraries approved for an award of contract applied for Program B which is for libraries who already have this equipment. Libraries may establish a graphical access account with an Internet Service Provider and can purchase the hardware and software required for Program A and/or purchase telecommunications or other technology-related equipment and service. Four libraries eligible for Program B already had Internet accounts with graphical access to World Wide Web databases.

Nine of the libraries planned to make the Internet available to library staff for mediated reference services, while 21 libraries planned to make the Internet available to patrons.

Twenty-one libraries planned to acquire SLIP or PPP Internet accounts operating on regular telephone lines, while 2 libraries planned to install ISDN lines and 7 libraries either had or planned to install 56k dedicated lines.

THE FOLLOWING PUBLIC LIBRARIES WERE AWARDED GRANTS:

Absecon, Audubon, Belvidere, Berlin Borough (Marie Fleche Library), Bloomingdale, Bogota, Boonton Holmes, Pound Brook, Burlington (Library Company of), Butler, Caldwell, Dunellen, East Greenwich, Hackettstown, Haddon Heights, Haledon, Jamesburg, Milford, Milltown, Mount Arlington, Newfield, Northfield (Otto Bruyns Public Library), Pitman (McCowan Memorial Library), Riverton, South Amboy (Dowdell Library), Spotswood, Swedesboro, Washington (Warren Co.), Westville, Wharton.
