NJ Division of Taxation Extends Filing Deadline until Midnight Tonight to Mirror IRS Decision

Trenton — Following the Internal Revenue Service's lead, the New Jersey Department of the Treasury's Division of Taxation announced Wednesday that it is providing taxpayers with an additional day to file and pay their taxes.

New Jersey individuals and businesses with a filing or payment due date of April 17 will now have until midnight on Wednesday, April 18. Taxpayers do not need to do anything to receive this extra time.

The IRS issued the notice late Tuesday evening following system outage issues that surfaced early on the April 17 tax deadline. New Jersey's system was not affected by any similar issues.

"While New Jersey did not experience any system issues, our goal is to ease any confusion and aid taxpayers who may be dealing with additional burdens caused by delays at the federal level," said State Treasurer Elizabeth Maher Muoio. "In the event that taxpayers affected by the IRS issue did not take the steps to submit their state returns electronically, we thought it prudent to grant a concurrent extension."
