Governor Chris Christie Travels to Springfield to Hold a Town Hall on the New Jersey Comeback

Wednesday, April 25, 2012 Tags: Budget and Spending

Trenton, NJ – Tomorrow, Governor Christie will travel to Springfield to hold his fifteenth town hall of the year and discuss his Fiscal Year 2013 Budget priorities and continuing the New Jersey Comeback. The Governor's budget proposal provides critical tax relief for New Jersey families and businesses, increases state funding for education to its highest level in history, and targets funding for programs and services to protect the most vulnerable in our state.
