Fall Festival Issue

The Newsletter of the Library for the Blind and Handicapped

FULL DAY FESTIVAL PLANNED

The Library has planned events from 10:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. Planned events include musician Patricia Shih who blends folk with jazz, Broadway, classical, rock and country music for all ages. Ms. Shih moves her listeners to search for a common thread that runs through humanity, and to celebrate the differences between us. She spices up her presentations with lots of audience participation.

The keynote speaker Fiona Page, a storyteller, will describe her experiences trying to hang onto literature after becoming blind in 1987.

Vendors will be available all day demonstrating special equipment and Seeing Eye puppies will go through their training paces. Paws on Wheels of Burlington County will provide small furry mammals to touch, pet and enjoy. Learn how to respect animals in their environment. Don't miss this day full of educational and fun information!

KEYNOTE
SPEAKER

When Fiona Page became blind in 1987, she found herself contemplating how to stay in the world of words when they were no longer easily at her grasp. Becoming a "Braille fail," Fiona had to learn to depend on her ears. Listening to many fine storytellers and reading whatever was available on audio she developed her own style, which came with countless hours of thinking, pondering, and plotting on how to remain a storyteller.

And remain a storyteller, she did! Rooted in trickster stories of the past like Brer Rabbit, Brer Gator, Miss Liddie of the Okefenokee Swamp, and others, she renders an artful tale blended with connections to our contemporary lives.

Books and Equipment

When you come to the Library to visit, it's always fun to leave with books you want to read or exchange equipment that is not functioning. We want to provide you with the very best service we can. The Festival is such a busy time for us in Reader Services and Machine Lending that we ask you to please call the Library, 1-800-792-8322, a week in advance and we will have your requests ready and waiting for you. That will leave us with plenty of time to get acquainted in person and handle any last minute changes to your service that you'd like us to do.

Thank you!

I would like to take home books with these numbers or in these subjects

I need a new cassette machine _____

Fiona says, "I realize losing my eyesight pushed me into developing my mind, being more creative, and having the courage to risk trying new ideas." Folklore with tones of mystery and intrigue ending with a surprising twist and giving you an unexpected belly laugh is Fiona's story of choice.

Come see and hear Fiona Page at the Fall Festival, Saturday, October 18, 2003!
