They shall also carefully enter the number of the first-choice, second-choice, third-choice, and other-choice votes for each candidate on said tally sheet and make immediate return thereof to the city clerk. Only one vote shall be counted for any candidate on any one ballot, all but the highest of two or more choices on one ballot for one and the same candidate being void. All ballots shall be void which do not contain first-choice votes for as many candidates as there are offices to be filled. If a ballot contains either first, second or third-choice votes in excess of the number of offices to be filled no vote in the column showing such excess shall be counted.

Number of choices.

Except as hereinbefore provided all choices shall be counted as marked on the ballot.

Determination of result.

On the day following the said election the city clerk shall determine the successful candidates as hereinafter provided in this section, and shall immediately make and file the result thereof in the office of the city clerk. Said canvass by the city clerk shall be publicly made, in the manner following:

If no election
by first choice.

(a) Candidates receiving a majority of first-choice votes for any office shall be elected. If the full number of candidates to be elected do not receive such a majority of the first-choice votes for such office, a canvass shall be made of the second-choice votes received by those candidates for office who are not elected by first-choice votes; said second-choice votes shall be added to the first-choice votes received by such candidates, and candidates who, by such addition, shall receive a majority shall be elected.

(b) If, after adding the first-choice and second-choice votes of the candidates not elected by first-choice votes, the full number of candidates to be elected do not receive a majority of first-choice and second-choice votes combined, a canvass shall be made of the third-choice votes received by those candidates for said office who are not elected by first-choice and second-choice votes combined; said third-choice votes shall be added to the first-choice votes and second-choice votes, received by such candidates, and candidates who, by such addition, shall receive a majority, shall be elected.

If no election
by first and second choices.

(c) If, by the count of either first-choice votes or first and second-choice votes, or first, second and third-choice votes, as above provided, more candidates than there are offices to be filled shall receive a majority, the candidate or candidates equal in number to the number of offices to be filled having the highest vote shall be elected.

Candidates receiving highest votes elected.

(d) If the full number of candidates to be elected do not receive a majority by adding first, second and third-choice votes, as above directed, a canvass shall then be made of the other-choice votes received by those candidates for said office who are not elected, either by first-choice votes or by adding first and second-choice votes, or by adding first, second and third-choice votes, said other-choice votes shall be added to the first, second and third-choice votes received by such candidates, and the candidates equal in number to the number of offices remaining to be filled who receive the highest number of votes by the said addition shall be elected.

If no election
by adding three choices.

(e) A tie between two or more candidates shall be decided in favor of the one having the highest number of first-choice votes. If they are also equal in that respect, then the highest number of second-choice votes shall determine the result. If they are still equal then the highest number of third-choice votes shall determine the result. If this does not decide, then the tie shall be determined by lot, under the direction of the city clerk.

Ties.

"Majority" defined.

(f) Whenever the word "majority" is used in this section it shall mean more than one-half of the total number of valid ballots cast at such election.

Informalities not to invalidate.

(g) No informalities in conducting said municipal elections shall invalidate the same, if they be conducted fairly and in substantial conformity with the requirements of this act.

Proclamations by the Governor.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Among the vital problems which call upon our people for solution, the continual waste of life, energy and property in all parts of the country by fire, is one of the most important. Conservation of natural and acquired resources is a subject which is deservedly receiving practical attention. Our forests are being preserved, our water power and waterways developed and utilized and the hidden forces of nature conserved and made subservient to the well-being of man.

The fire waste, rightfully so called because loss by fire is never anything but waste, is increasing annually. The incidental losses due to the interruption of business are beyond computation. The destruction of life and health, the discouragement of ambition due to property loss and bereavement, are likewise incalculable. The fact that much of this is preventable is a reproach to us as a people, and it calls for immediate remedy.

To arouse our people to a true sense of these dangers and to an active interest in reducing and ultimately preventing them, I hereby proclaim that Tuesday, the Eleventh day of November, 1913, shall be known and observed as FIRE PREVENTION DAY throughout the State of New Jersey.

Let the observance of this day be characterized by simple and practical measures of fire prevention. I recommend the collection, removal and destruction of all inflammable rubbish and refuse.

Let all furnaces, heating pipes and chimneys be inspected and repaired if found defective in the least degree.

Let all public and private institutions, hotels, factories, theatres, hospitals, asylums and other buildings, other than homes, be carefully inspected for fire hazards and let any changes be made at once that will further protect the occupants from danger by fire.

Let all basements, cellars, stairways, elevator shafts, yards, attics and other out-of-the-way places, where rubbish may be carelessly thrown, be thoroughly cleaned out on that day, and let the rule be established that thereafter they shall be kept clean.

Let municipal authorities give such attention to matters of building regulations, fire fighting apparatus and all other public measures for fire protection and prevention as will enable them to announce on Fire Prevention Day the inauguration or accomplishment of definite measures in this department of public welfare.

Lastly, let fire drills be held on that day in institutions, factories and in public, private and parochial schools, and I earnestly recommend that educational authorities cause the pupils under their charge to be instructed on that day by various direct methods upon the dangers of fire and a simpler means of fire prevention.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of New Jersey, at Trenton, this twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-eighth.

[GREAT SEAL.]

JAMES F. FIELDER,

*President of the Senate,
Acting Governor.*

By the Governor:

DAVID S. CRATER,
Secretary of State.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
TRENTON.

Our fathers have handed down to us the hallowed custom of devoting one day of each year to reflection upon the bounties of our Creator and the giving of thanks for the blessings we have received.

Therefore, I, LEON R. TAYLOR, Speaker of the House of Assembly, Acting Governor of the State of New Jersey, in order that this custom may be fittingly followed, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November, as a day of meditation and thanksgiving, and do appeal to the citizens of our State to observe this day in devotion, prayer and the giving of thanks for the blessings bestowed upon us individually, our happiness as a people and the prosperity which attends our State and Nation.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of New Jersey, at the Executive Chamber, this third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirteen and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-eighth.

[GREAT SEAL.]

LEON R. TAYLOR,
Acting Governor.

House of Assembly,
Acting Governor:
DAVID S. CRATER,
Secretary of State.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
TRENTON.

The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis has designated Sunday, December seventh, next, as the National Tuberculosis Day. The study of the subject of the prevention of tuberculosis should not be confined to these self-sacrificing individuals who have taken it upon themselves to collect information, urge the need of legislation, collect statistics and educate the public in the ways and means of preventing the spread of this terrible disease. It properly becomes a part of the duty of the State to aid and assist in all ways in which it is possible to do so.

Much information has been disseminated by the various bodies which have made a study of tuberculosis, and it clearly becomes the duty of everyone interested in the cause of humanity and the welfare of our State to observe and compel the observance of such rules as have been adopted by those bodies for the prevention of the spread of the disease.

Therefore, I, LEON R. TAYLOR, Speaker of the House of Assembly, Acting Governor of the Commonwealth of New Jersey, in the name and for the people of New Jersey, do issue this proclamation and urge the observance of December seventh, 1913, as TUBERCULOSIS DAY.

[GREAT SEAL.]      Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of New Jersey, this twenty-first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-eighth.

LEON R. TAYLOR,
Speaker of the House
of Assembly,
Acting Governor.

House of Assembly,

Secretary of State."

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

WHEREAS, The one hundred and thirty-eighth session of the Legislature of this State, which adjourned sine die on the ninth day of April, nineteen hundred and fourteen, passed several bills which have since been approved by the Governor, reorganizing certain boards or commissions of this State, terminating the tenure of those heretofore serving thereon and providing for new appointments to be made thereto by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate; and

WHEREAS, The power of the Governor to make ad interim appointments to such offices is doubtful and the situation thus created is of such importance that in the opinion of the Governor public necessity requires the convening of the Senate that it may receive and act upon nominations to such boards or commissions;

Now, Therefore, I, JAMES F. FIELDER, Governor of the State of New Jersey, in and by virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution, do hereby convene the Senate of said State, to meet in their Chamber, at the State House, in the City of Trenton, on Friday, the twenty-fourth day of April, A. D. 1914, at twelve o'clock noon.

[GREAT SEAL.] Given under my hand and the
great seal of the State of New Jersey, at Trenton, on the seventeenth days of April, A.
D. 1914.

JAMES F. FIELDER,
Governor.

NEW JERSEY SUPREME COURT.

ROBERT H. McCARTER, Attorney General of the State of New Jersey,

vs.

IMPERIAL TRUSTEE COMPANY.
On Information.

RULE FOR JUDGMENT.

An information having been filed against the Imperial Trustee Company, the defendant in the above entitled cause, and upon the issues joined therein, a trial having been had before the Honorable Jonathan Dixon, Justice of the Supreme Court holding a Circuit Court in and for the County of Hudson, and a verdict having been rendered in favor of the informant, and against the defendant, upon two counts of the said information, and notice having been given of this application to enter judgment upon the postea, and Robert H.
