JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

NUMBER I.

In respect to the commercial relations between the United States and other countries.

WHEREAS, the government relations which at present Preamble.
subsist between the United States and South America are mainly of a political nature; and whereas, the special arrangements of a commercial kind now existing between us and the said South American states are very limited; and whereas, a more liberal policy and practice would tend to forward and secure the commercial supremacy of the United States, and assist the more perfect enforcement of the laws of trade; and whereas, from her geographical position, New Jersey's commercial interests are paramount to all others; and whereas, it seems but consistent with the dictates of prudence that we should prepare, beforehand, to reap our share of the benefits that can be made to accrue from the revival of trade; therefore,

1. BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly Appointment of commercial agents recommended.
of the State of New Jersey, That in conformity with the desirability and in view of the possibility of securing these objects, the United States senators in congress from New Jersey, be and they are hereby instructed, and our representatives are requested to urge upon the general government the appointment of suitable agents to these South American states where no such agents now are, whose duty it shall be to collect and arrange in tabular form the statistics of the various commercial articles and native products of an exportable character, together with the relative distribution of the same among the various European nations in which they find a market, and report the same to the general government at an early day, in order that measures may be taken to advance by means of treaties, the mutual commercial interests existing between the said several South American states and the United States.

2. And be it resolved, That the governor of this state be and he is hereby requested to transmit copies of this resolution to the president and vice president of the United States, and to the governors of the several states whose legislatures are now in session, and to invite their co-operation in the method and object proposed.

Approved February 27, 1879.

NUMBER II.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Phil. Kearney Post Number One, Department of New Jersey, Grand Army of the Republic, have petitioned for the loan of twenty-four stand of arms and accoutrements, to be used by said post for burial purposes; therefore,

Quartermaster
general directed to send arms
and accoutrements.

1. BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the quartermaster-general be, and he is hereby empowered and directed to forward to said Phil. Kearney Post Number One, Department of New Jersey, Grand Army of the Republic, twenty-four stand of arms and accoutrements, not otherwise in use or needed by the militia of this state, taking their receipt therefor, and their agreement to return the same upon demand, and to preserve and keep the same while in their possession in perfect order.

2. And be it resolved, That this joint resolution shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 14, 1879.

NUMBER III.

Joint Resolution in relation to the appointment of a commission to inquire into the labor of the state prison.

WHEREAS, it is asserted and believed by large numbers Preamble.
of citizens of this state, that prison labor, as at present managed in the state prisons and penitentiaries of this and other states, affects injuriously the welfare and means of living of masses of our mechanics and workmen, by maintaining an unjust competition with their labor; therefore,

1. BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of Governor requested to appoint commissioners.
the State of New Jersey, That the governor be and he is hereby requested to appoint a commission, to consist of five persons, who shall make a careful inquiry into the subject of prison labor and whether it comes into competition with free labor, and if so, in what manner, and to what extent, and what, in their opinion, is the best means of preventing such competition, and at the same time providing proper maintenance for the prisoners; that said commission shall receive for their services and necessary expenses such compensation as may be approved by the governor; and that they shall report to the governor on or before the meeting of the next session of the legislature.

I, George B. McClellan, Governor of the state of New Jersey, do hereby make proclamation that in accordance with the provisions of "An act providing for decreeing and making known that certain laws and joint resolutions have become inoperative and void," approved March 3, 1873. The comptroller of the treasury has made report to me under date of July 31, 1878, that the parties interested in certain private acts passed at the legislative session of 1878, have failed to pay the sums assessed thereon and declared to be payable on the same, according to the requirements of the act entitled "An act to increase the revenue of the state of New Jersey," approved March 6, 1858, and the supplement thereto, approved March 18, 1859, and that by reason of such failure the following named acts have become inoperative and void :

I. "An act authorizing Permelia Hubbs to sell the real estate of which he illegitimate son, Albert C. Edmunds, died seized in the county of Hunterdon, and to dispose of the proceeds resulting therefrom," approved March 27, 1878.

II. "A supplement to an act entitled 'An act to authorize Reimer Henry Schacht to build a bridge from Morris Island, in Delaware river, to the bank along the Repaupo meadows, and to stake off the channel between the said island and the bank of said Repaupo meadows in the township of Greenwich, Gloucester county, New Jersey,' approved February nineteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-three," approved March 27, 1878.

[L. s.] Given under my hand and the great seal of sixth day of August, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

GEO. B. McCLELLAN.

By the Governor,
HENRY C. KELSEY,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

It is expected of the chief executive of this state that he should set apart a day to be devoted to family rejoicing and the giving of thanks to the Almighty for the blessings He has bestowed upon us as a people.

With this recurring season we have abundant reason to express our gratitude to the Giver of all good gifts. He has preserved to us the blessings of peace; He has granted to the husbandman in ample measure the fruits of his toil; prosperity has again commenced to smile upon our land; we have mercifully been shielded against the pestilence which has wrought such havoc among our brethren of other states, and we have good cause to thank Him, in their behalf, that the course of the seasons has been interrupted in order to bring their terrible trials to a close.

PROCLAMATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR. 371

Deeply feeling our dependence upon God, I, George B. McClellan, Governor of the state of New Jersey, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November, instant, as a day of public thanksgiving and praise unto Him for all His past mercies, and humble prayer for a continuance of His goodness to us.

The good people of this state know that vast numbers of our fellow citizens—once arrayed in arms against us, but now, through God's mercy, happily reunited with us—have undergone indescribable trials through the ravages of a fatal pestilence. Although the scourge is well nigh ended, yet its consequences still press with fearful weight upon multitudes of the survivors, and still call for relief and aid beyond the power of their immediate neighbors to afford: Therefore, I suggest, that in every church, in every community of this state, arrangements be made to enable every one, according to his or her means and disposition, to offer on the approaching day of Thanksgiving, as a thank-offering to the Lord for His abundant mercies towards us, and as a pledge of our fraternal love to them, money for the relief of our unfortunate fellow-citizens of the afflicted districts of the South.

Given under my hand and seal at the executive chamber, in the city of Trenton, this eighth day of November, in the year of [L. S.] our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and third.

GEO. B. McCLELLAN.

By the Governor:

JOHN A. HALL,

Private Secretary.
