SUBCHAPTER 1. PURPOSE, SCOPE AND DEFINITIONS

17:14-1.1 Purpose and scope

(a) The rules in this chapter are jointly promulgated by the Department of Commerce and Economic Development (hereinafter, "Department of Commerce") and the Department of the Treasury to implement N.J.S.A. 52:32-17 et seq. and Executive Order No. 84, dated March 5, 1993, to establish a set-aside program that requires State agencies with contracting authority to make a good faith effort to award seven percent of public construction contracts and subcontracts to eligible minority-owned businesses and three percent of public construction contracts and subcontracts to eligible female-owned businesses. These percentage goals are overall program goals for each State contracting agency. State contracting agencies are expected to apply their business judgment when establishing set-aside subcontracting goals for individual contracts.

(b) These rules apply only to State construction contracts awarded by any State contracting agency and are not applicable to the award of State contracts for the purchase of goods and services not related to construction contracts.

(c) Applications and questions regarding eligibility as a minority business or female business should be addressed to:

17:14-1.2 Definitions

The following words and terms, when used in this chapter, shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

“Certification” means that a minority-owned or woman-owned business has been authenticated as being at least 51 percent owned and controlled either by minorities or females for participation in State programs requiring certification, as judged and determined by the Set-aside and Certification Office of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development.

“Commissioner” means the Commissioner of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development or his or her designee.

“Construction contract” means any contract to which the State or any State contracting agency is a party involving any construction, renovation, reconstruction, rehabilitation, alteration, conversion, extension, demolition, repair or other changes or improvements of any kind whatsoever of any public structure or facility or highway. The term also includes contracts for consultant services, the supervision, inspection and other functions incidental to actual construction.

“Consultant” means an architect, engineer, construction manager, or other consultant providing technical and professional services in support of a design or construction or highway project.

“Contractor” means any party performing or offering to perform a construction contract or consultant contract, or any party providing materials or goods used to perform a construction contract issued by a contracting agency of the State of New Jersey.

“Delegated purchasing authority” means the authority of a State agency to award contracts on its own pursuant to authority delegated to it by the Director, Division of Building and Construction, as established in N.J.S.A. 52:34-7.

“Division of Building and Construction” means the State agency within the Department of the Treasury which provides a centralized design and construction contract procurement and administration service for other State agencies pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:18A-151 et seq.

“Female business” means a business which has its principal place of business in the State, is independently owned and operated and is at least 51 percent owned and controlled by women.

“Minority business” means a business which has its principal place of business in the State, is independently owned and operated and is at least 51 percent owned and controlled by persons who are African Americans, Latinos or Asian Americans, defined as follows:

1. African American: a person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.
2. Latino: a person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American, Caribbean Island or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.
3. Asian American: a person having origins in any of the original people of the Far East, southeast Asia, and Indian subcontinent, Hawaii or the Pacific Islands.

“Non-remedial targets” means numerical objectives which a State contracting agency may establish in lieu of or as a supplement to the remedial goals to ensure that discrimination is not presently occurring on publicly funded construction projects.

“Registration” means the process by which any business can have its eligibility for participation in minority and female set-aside determined.

“Remedial goals” means the statutorily determined percentages of contracts awarded by each State contracting agency to eligible minority and female businesses in order to eradicate the effects of past discrimination.

“Set-aside contract” means a contract, or subcontractable portion of a contract when that portion is so allocated, specifically designated by a contracting agency as exclusively available for award to either an eligible minority or female business.

“State contracting agency” means any board, commission, committee, authority or agency of the State which possesses the legal authority to award and make construction contracts and includes the following except where expressly inconsistent with statutory authority:

1. DEPARTMENTS

Agriculture
Banking
Commerce and Economic Development
Community Affairs
