

Public utility ratemaking procedures, although quasi-legislative in origin, are conducted like quasi-judicial proceedings (cites former N.J.A.C. 1:1-6(a)3). Adjudicatory proceedings often involve disputed factual issues and require adversary proceeding for proper resolution (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.5(a)3). Shapiro v. Albanese, 194 N.J.Super. 418, 477 A.2d 352 (App.Div.1984).

Former N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.6 and 1.7 did not usurp the agency head's authority to decide what constitutes a contested case. In Re: Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, 90 N.J. 85, 447 A.2d 151 (1982).

SUBCHAPTER 3. COMMENCEMENT OF CONTESTED CASES; JURISDICTION OF THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

1:1-3.1 Commencement of contested cases in the State agencies

A contested case shall be commenced in the State agency with appropriate subject matter jurisdiction. A contested case may be commenced by the agency itself or by an individual or entity as provided in the rules and regulations of the agency.

Case Notes

New Jersey limitations for disputing individualized education plan did not bar reimbursement claim. Bernardsville Bd. of Educ. v. J.H., C.A.3 (N.J.)1994, 42 F.3d 149, rehearing and rehearing in banc denied.

1:1-3.2 Jurisdiction of the Office of Administrative Law

(a) The Office of Administrative Law shall acquire jurisdiction over a matter only after it has been determined to be a contested case by an agency head and has been filed with the Office of Administrative Law or as otherwise authorized by law, except as provided by N.J.A.C. 1:1-17. The Office of Administrative Law shall not receive, hear or consider any pleadings, motion papers, or documents of any kind relating to any matter until it has acquired jurisdiction over that matter, except as provided by N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.

(b) When the Office of Administrative Law acquires jurisdiction over a matter that arises from a State agency's rejection of a party's application, and at the hearing the party offers proofs that were not previously considered by the agency, the judge may either allow the party to amend the application to add new contentions, claims or defenses or, if considerations of expediency and efficiency so require, the judge shall order the matter returned to the State agency. If the matter is returned to the agency and thereafter transmitted for hearing, the agency's response to any new contentions, claims or defenses shall be attached to the transmittal form required by N.J.A.C. 1:1-8.2.

(c) Matters involving the administration of the Office of Administrative Law as a State agency are subject to the authority of the Director. In the following matters as they relate to proceedings before the Office of Administrative Law, the Director is the agency head for purposes of review:

1. Disqualification of a particular judge due to interest or any other reason which would preclude a fair and unbiased hearing, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.12;
2. Appearances of non-lawyer representatives, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.4;
3. Imposition of conditions and limitations upon non-lawyer representatives, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.5;
4. Sanctions under N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 consisting of the assessment of costs, expenses, or fines;
5. Disqualification of attorneys, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.3; and
6. Establishment of a hearing location pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-9.1(b).

See: 27 N.J.R. 609(a), 28 N.J.R. 1503(a).

In (c)4 added fines.

Case Notes

State Department of Education, rather than administrative law judge, had jurisdiction to conduct due process review of responsibility for education of blind, retarded child. L.P. v. Edison Bd. of Educ., 265 N.J.Super. 266, 626 A.2d 473 (L.1993).

Agency, rather than Superior Court, was proper place for challenge to special education being provided to blind, retarded child. L.P. v. Edison Bd. of Educ., 265 N.J.Super. 266, 626 A.2d 473 (L.1993).

Administrative agencies enjoy a great deal of flexibility in selecting the proceedings most suitable to achieving their regulatory aims. A high degree of discretion in exercising that choice reposes in the administrative agency (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.2). Crema v. N.J. Dep't of Environmental Protection, 94 N.J. 286, 463 A.2d 910 (1983).

1:1-3.3 Return of transmitted cases

(a) A case that has been transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law shall be returned to the transmitting agency if the transmitting agency head so requests in written notice to the Office of Administrative Law and all parties. The notice shall state the reason for returning the case. Upon receipt of the notice, the Office of Administrative Law shall return the case.

(b) A case shall be returned to the transmitting agency by the Clerk of the Office of Administrative Law if, after appropriate notice, neither a party nor a representative of the party appears at a proceeding scheduled by the Clerk or a judge (see N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4). Any explanations regarding the failure to appear must be in writing and received by the transmitting agency head within 13 days of the date of the Clerk's notice returning the case. A copy of the explanation shall be served on all other parties. If, based on such explanations, the agency head believes the matter should be rescheduled for hearing, the agency head may retransmit the case to the Office of Administrative Law, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-8.2.

(c) Upon returning any matter to the transmitting agency, the Clerk shall issue an appropriate notice to the parties which shall advise the parties of the time limit and requirements for explanations as set forth in (b) above.

(d) The agency head may extend the time limit for receiving explanations regarding the failure to appear when good cause is shown.

Amended by R.1989 d.605, effective December 18, 1989.
See: 21 N.J.R. 3207(a), 21 N.J.R. 3914(a).

Deleted language stating that an initial decision shall be entered returning the case.

Amended by R.1991 d.279, effective June 3, 1991 (operative July 1, 1991).

See: 23 N.J.R. 639(a), 23 N.J.R. 1786(a).

Added new subsections (b) and (c), recodifying original rule text as subsection (a).

Amended by R.1991 d.513, effective October 21, 1991.

See: 23 N.J.R. 1728(a), 23 N.J.R. 3133(a).

Explanation for failure to appear to be submitted within 13 days.

Case Notes

Case remanded from state superior court requires remand to Office of Administrative Law for determination of whether constitutional claims were within scope of remand order. R.D. v. Bernards Township Board of Education, 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 481.

1:1-4.2 Settlement by agencies prior to transmittal to the Office of Administrative Law

If an agency attempts settlement prior to transmitting the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, settlement efforts may be conducted in any manner the agency believes may be appropriate and productive. The agency may utilize its own personnel or may request in writing to the Director of the Office of Administrative Law the services of an administrative law judge. An administrative law judge who conducts pre-transmission settlement efforts at the request of an agency will not thereafter be assigned to hear the case if settlement efforts are unsuccessful and the case is transmitted.

SUBCHAPTER 5. REPRESENTATION

1:1-5.1 Representation

A party may represent him or herself, be represented by an attorney authorized to practice law in this State, or, subject to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.4 and 1:1-5.5, be represented or assisted by a non-lawyer permitted to make an appearance in a contested case by New Jersey Court Rule R. 1:21-1(e) or be represented by a law graduate or student pursuant to R. 1:21-3(b). Except as provided by N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.4 and 1:1-5.6, a corporation must be represented by an attorney.

1:1-5.2 Out-of-state attorneys; admission procedures

(a) An attorney from any other jurisdiction, of good standing there, or an attorney admitted in this State, of good standing, who does not maintain in this State a bona fide office for the practice of law, may, at the discretion of the judge, be admitted pro hac vice for the one occasion to participate in the proceeding in the same manner as an attorney authorized to practice in this State pursuant to New Jersey Court Rule R. 1:21-1 by complying with the following procedure:

SUBCHAPTER 4. AGENCY RESPONSIBILITY BEFORE TRANSMISSION TO THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

1:1-4.1 Determination of contested case

(a) After an agency proceeding has commenced, the agency head shall promptly determine whether the matter is a contested case. If any party petitions the agency head to decide whether the matter is contested, the agency shall make such a determination within 30 days from receipt of the petition and inform all parties of its determination.

(b) When a question arises whether a particular matter is a contested case, legal advice shall be obtained from the Attorney General's office.

(d) Cross-examination of witnesses in conference and plenary hearings shall be conducted in a sequence and in a manner determined by the judge to expedite the hearing while ensuring a fair hearing.

(e) When all parties and witnesses have been heard in conference and plenary hearings, opportunity shall be offered to present oral final argument, in a sequence determined by the judge.

(f) Unless permitted or requested by the judge, there shall be no proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, briefs, forms of order or other dispositions permitted after the final argument in plenary hearings. Whenever possible, proposed findings or other submissions should be offered at the hearing in lieu of or in conjunction with the final argument.

1. When proposed findings or other submissions are permitted or requested by the judge, the parties shall conform to a schedule that may not exceed 30 days after the last day of testimony or the final argument.

2. When the judge permits proposed findings or other submissions to be prepared with the aid of a transcript, the transcript must be ordered immediately. The 30-day submission time frame shall commence upon receipt of the transcript.

3. Any proposed findings of fact submitted by a party shall not be considered unless they are based on facts proved in the hearing.

4. Any reference in briefs or other such submissions to initial decisions shall include sufficient information to enable the judge to locate the initial decision. This shall include either the Office of Administrative Law docket number or a reference to New Jersey Administrative Reports or another published and indexed compilation.

(g) In conference hearings, no proposed findings of fact, including conclusions of law, briefs, forms of order or other dispositions may be offered or required after the final argument, except for the purpose of expressing the terms of a settlement.

(h) The hearing shall be concluded in conference and plenary cases after the final argument or, if a schedule has been established for subsequent submissions, when the time established for the filing of such items has expired.

(i) A telephone hearing may be designated by the Clerk or judge as a conference or plenary hearing. A telephone hearing, whether conference or plenary, is begun by the judge placing a conference call on a designated date and time to the parties in the case.

Amended by R.1991 d.44, effective February 4, 1991.
See: 22 N.J.R. 3278(b), 23 N.J.R. 293(a).

1:1-14.8 Conduct of proceedings on the papers

(a) Upon transmittal of a case that may be conducted as a proceeding on the papers, the Clerk shall schedule a hearing and send a notice of hearing to the parties. The notice shall permit the party requesting the hearing to select a telephone hearing or a proceeding on the papers in lieu of the scheduled in-person hearing.

(b) Along with the notice of hearing, the Clerk shall transmit a certification, to be completed if the party requesting the hearing chooses to have a proceeding on the papers.

(c) A completed certification must be returned to the Clerk no later than 10 days before the scheduled hearing date. Statements, records and other documents which supplement the certification may also be submitted. Upon request and for good cause shown, the Clerk may grant additional time for submission of supplemental documents.

(d) At the conclusion of the time allotted in (c) above, the Clerk will assign the record for review and determination by a judge. The record consists of the certification and supplemental documents, as well as documents transmitted with the file by the transmitting agency. In a proceeding on the papers, the hearing is concluded when the clerk assigns the record to a judge.

(e) If the party requesting the hearing does not appear at the scheduled in-person or telephone hearing and no certification is received, the matter shall be handled pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14.

Amended by R.1988 d.517, effective November 7, 1988.

See: 20 N.J.R. 1979(c), 20 N.J.R. 2749(a).

Deleted text from (e) and substituted new. The new text changes the timing of exchange to receipt of the notice of filing of the case, rather than the notice of hearing.

Amended by R.1991 d.279, effective June 3, 1991 (operative July 1, 1991).

See: 23 N.J.R. 639(a), 23 N.J.R. 1786(a).

In (c): revised N.J.A.C. citation.

1:1-14.9 Orders; preparation of orders

(a) Any resolution which does not completely conclude the case shall be by order. Orders may be rendered in writing or orally on the record by the judge.

(b) Unless such review is precluded by law, all judges' orders are reviewable by an agency head in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10 or when rendering a final decision under N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.6.

(c) Orders may be prepared by a party at the direction of a judge. When prepared by a party, the order shall be filed with the judge and served on all parties who may within five days after service object to the form of the order by writing to the judge with a copy to all parties. Upon objection to the form of the order, the judge, without oral argument or any further proceedings, may settle the form of the order either by preparing a new order or by modifying the proposed order. After signing the order, the judge shall cause the order to be served upon the parties.

1:1-14.10 Interlocutory review

(a) Except for the special review procedures provided in N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6 (emergency relief), and 1:1-12.5(e) (partial summary decision), an order or ruling may be reviewed interlocutorily by an agency head at the request of a party.

(b) Any request for interlocutory review shall be made to the agency head and copies served on all parties no later than five working days from the receipt of the written order or oral ruling, whichever is rendered first. An opposing party may, within three days of receipt of the request, submit an objection to the agency head. A copy must be served on the party who requested review. Any request for interlocutory review or objection to a request shall be in writing by memorandum, letter or motion and shall include a copy of any written order or ruling or a summary of any oral order or ruling sought to be reviewed. Copies of all documents submitted shall be filed with the judge and Clerk.

(c) Within 10 days of the request for interlocutory review, the agency head shall notify the parties and the Clerk whether the order or ruling will be reviewed. If the agency head does not so act within 10 days, the request for review shall be considered denied. Informal communication by telephone or in person to the parties or their representatives and to the Clerk within the 10 day period will satisfy this notice requirement, provided that a written communication or order promptly follows.

(d) A party opposed to the grant of interlocutory review may, within three days of receiving notice that review was granted, submit to the agency head in writing arguments in favor of the order or ruling being reviewed. A copy shall be served on the party who requested review.

(e) Where the agency head determines to conduct an interlocutory review, the agency head shall issue a decision, order or other disposition of the review at the earliest opportunity but no later than 20 days from receiving the request for review. Where the interests of justice require, the agency head shall conduct an interlocutory review on an expedited basis. Where the agency head does not issue an order within 20 days, the judge's ruling shall be considered conditionally affirmed. The time period for disposition may be extended for good cause for an additional 20 days if both the agency head and the Director of the Office of Administrative Law concur.

(f) Where the proceeding generating the request for interlocutory review has been sound recorded and the agency head requests the verbatim record, the Clerk shall furnish the original sound recording or a certified copy within one day of the request. The party requesting the interlocutory review shall provide the agency head with all other papers, materials, transcripts or parts of the record which pertain to the request for interlocutory review.

(g) Within five working days of the agency head's notice that an interlocutory review will be conducted, the judge, in his or her discretion, may provide the agency head and the parties with a written memorandum stating the basis for the order or ruling.

(h) The time limits established in this section, with the exception of (e) above, may be extended by the agency head where the need for a delay is caused by honest mistake, accident, or any cause compatible with due diligence.

(i) An agency head's determination to review interlocutorily an order or ruling shall not delay the scheduling or conduct of hearings, unless a postponement is necessary due to special requirements of the case, because of probable prejudice, or for other good cause. Either the presiding judge or the agency head may order a stay of the proceedings, either on their own or upon application. Applications for stays should be made in the first instance to the presiding judge. If denied, the application may be resubmitted to the agency head. Pending review by the agency head, a judge may conditionally proceed on an order or ruling in order to complete the evidential record in a case or to avoid disruption or delay in any ongoing or scheduled hearing.

(j) Except as limited by (m) below and N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4(a), any order or ruling reviewable interlocutorily is subject to review by the agency head after the judge renders the initial decision in the contested case, even if an application for interlocutory review:

1. Was not made;
2. Was made but the agency head declined to review the order or ruling; or
3. Was made and not considered by the agency head within the established time frame.

(k) In the following matters as they relate to proceedings before the Office of Administrative Law, the Director is the agency head for purposes of interlocutory review:

1. Disqualification of a particular judge due to interest or any other reason which would preclude a fair and unbiased hearing, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.12;
2. Appearances of non-lawyer representatives, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.4;
3. Imposition of conditions and limitations upon non-lawyer representatives, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.5;

4. Sanctions under N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 consisting of the assessment of costs, expenses, or fines;

5. Disqualification of attorneys, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.3; and

6. Establishment of a hearing location pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-9.1(b).

(l) Any request for interlocutory review of those matters specified in (k) above should be addressed to the Director of the Office of Administrative Law with a copy to the agency head who transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law. Review shall proceed in accordance with (b) through (h) above.

(m) Orders or rulings issued under (k)1, 2, 3, 5 and 6 above may only be appealed interlocutorily; a party may not seek review of such orders or rulings after the judge renders the initial decision in the contested case.

Unless the requesting party is the State or a political subdivision thereof, the request shall be accompanied by a reasonable security deposit not to exceed either the estimated cost of the transcript as determined by the preparer or $300.00 for each day or fraction thereof of the proceeding, the deposit to be made payable to the preparer. The Clerk shall promptly arrange for the preparation of the transcript with a copy for the case file. Upon completion of the transcript, the preparer shall forward the transcript to the requesting party and the copy to the Clerk. The preparer shall bill the requesting party for any amount due for the preparation of the transcript and the copy or shall reimburse the requesting party for any overpayment.

(b) An unofficial copy of a sound recorded proceeding may be obtained by making a request to the Clerk accompanied by a blank standard cassette of appropriate length.

(c) A transcript of any stenographically recorded proceeding may be obtained by requesting the appropriate stenographic firm to prepare a transcript, except as specified in (d) below. The requesting party shall provide notice of the request to the Clerk and to all other parties. Unless the requesting party is the State or a political subdivision thereof, the stenographic firm may require a reasonable security deposit not to exceed either the estimated cost of the transcript as determined by the preparer or $300.00 for each day or fraction thereof of the proceeding. The reporter shall promptly prepare the transcript and shall file a copy with the Clerk at the time the original is delivered to the requesting party. The reporter shall bill the requesting party for any amount due for the preparation of the transcript and the copy or shall reimburse the requesting party for any overpayment.

(h) The following shall apply to all transcripts:

1. Transcripts must be prepared in accordance with State standards established by the Administrative Director of the Courts.

2. Unless a proceeding has been sealed, any person may request a transcript or a recording of the proceeding. However, if the person requesting a transcript or tape recording was not a party to the proceeding, the requester, when making the request, must also notify all parties of the request. If a party objects to the request, a written objection must be filed immediately with the Clerk and served on the requester and all other parties to the proceeding. This objection shall be reviewed by the judge who presided over the proceeding.

3. If a proceeding was sealed, only parties to the proceeding may request a transcript or a tape recording and the contents of the transcript or recording shall not be disclosed to anyone except in accordance with the order sealing the proceeding.

(i) Any party or person entitled by Federal statute or regulation to copy and inspect the verbatim transcript may arrange with the Clerk to review any transcript filed under (a) or (c) above and shall also be permitted to hear and receive a copy of any sound recorded proceeding pursuant to (b) above. 1. Has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;
