If a tariff is rejected, the number which such tariff bears shall not be used again. Such tariff shall not thereafter be referred to as cancelled, amended, or otherwise, but the tariff issued in lieu of such rejected tariff shall bear, under the statement specifying the tariff superseded thereby, a notation in substantially the following form:

Each title page containing rates or provisions established pursuant to the order of the Department shall bear the following notation:

16:51-11.15 Passenger fares for named or limited period

(a) Passenger fares covering a named and limited period, issued for special parties, conventions, excursions, and other extraordinary reasons, may properly be established on short notice. To avoid the necessity for special application in cases of this kind, the Department has made a general order fixing the named time of notice of round-trip excursion fares. Railroads may be governed accordingly.

(b) Fares for an excursion limited to a designated period of not more than 10 days may be established upon posting a tariff one day in advance of the effective date in two public and conspicuous places in the waiting room of each station where tickets for such excursions are sold and mailing two copies of tariff to the Department.

(c) Fares for an excursion limited to a designated period of more than 10 days and not more than 30 days may be established upon posting a tariff three days in advance of the effective date in two public and conspicuous places in the waiting room of each stations where tickets for such excursions are sold and mailing two copies of tariff to the Department.

(d) The term "limited to a designated period" used in this section means the period beginning with the first day on which the transportation can be used and ending with, and including, the day upon which the return trip must be completed.

(e) A series of temporary round-trip excursion fares limited for designated period as set forth in (b) and (c) above, the effectiveness of which extends over a period exceeding 30 days but not more than one year, may be published in the same tariff and established as provided in (c) above as to certain of the fares and accompanying provisions, and on statutory notice as to the remainder. For example, tariff is filed with the Department March 2 to be effective March 7, 14, 21, 28, April 4, 11, 18 and 25, with final return limit of eight days in addition to date of sale. From March 7 to final return limit of ticket sold, April 25, is 58 days. In connection with the sales dates of March 7, 14, 21 and 28, the tariff must indicate by appropriate symbol that insofar as it is effective on those dates it is issued under authority of the Department of Transportation, State of New Jersey. The tariff insofar as it is effective on that date of April 4, 11, 18, 25, is filed on statutory notice, and no notation to that effect is necessary.

(f) Supplement permitted; changes in tariff.

1. No supplement may be issued to a tariff filed under authority of (b) above, except for the purpose of canceling the tariff, and the title page of tariff must so state.

2. A tariff issued under authority of (c) and (e) above may have only one supplement in effect at one time.

3. Changes in tariffs of two or more pages issued under authority of (c) and (e) above may be made for the following purposes:

i. To change or add dates of sale; but the effectiveness of a tariff, as amended, issued under authority of (e) above shall not extend over a period exceeding one year;

ii. To extend return limit;

iii. To add selling stations or destinations, routes, or privileges;

iv. To reduce fares.

4. Changes specified in (f)3 above in a tariff issued under authority of (c) above established by supplement to the tariff in the same manner as authorized in said subsection (c) for the tariff.

If tariffs and supplements thereto, classifications, and so forth, are filed with the Department by a designated and authorized agent of the carrier, notice of such authorization must be filed with the Department, by and in the name of the carrier. In cases of change of agency similar authorization shall be filed by and in the name of the carrier. The type or form of such authorization is not hereby specified and one or more agents may be shown thereon.
