“Certification” means a minority-owned or women-owned business enterprise has been authenticated as being at least 51 percent independently owned and managerially controlled and operationally controlled either by minorities or females for participation in State programs requiring certification, as judged and determined by the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development.

“Commissioner” means the Commissioner of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development.

The term means that the applicant currently must possess the knowledge and authority to weigh all advice given and make an independent determination, and that the applicant should have experience and technical competence in the business to which certification is being sought, that is, the working knowledge and ability needed to operate a business in the given industry or service area. Managerial and operational control will also not be deemed to exist if in the judgment of the Administrator of the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office and by normal industry standards, minorities or women are not reasonably judged to be in control of that business. 12A:11-1.3 Standards of certification for minority businesses and women businesses

(a) A business may be eligible to be certified as a minority business, a women business, or both.

(b) In order to be eligible to be certified under the Act a minority or women business must be independently owned, operated, and controlled and can demonstrate the ability to be considered a "going concern" by normal industry standards. Newly-formed businesses and businesses whose ownership and/or control has changed recently are closely scrutinized to determine the reasons for the timing of the formation or change in the business.

1. For purposes of these rules, a business shall be deemed to be independently owned, operated, and controlled, if its management is responsible for both its daily and long term operation, and that management owns at least 51 percent interest in the business. The ownership and control by minorities or women shall be real, substantial, and continuing and shall go beyond the pro forma ownership of the business as reflected in its ownership documents. Examples of insufficient contributions include: a promise to contribute capital; a note payable to the business; owners who are not minorities or women; or the mere participation of minorities or women as employees, rather than as a manager. The minority or woman owner shall enjoy the customary incidents of ownership and shall share in the risks and profits commensurate with their ownership interests, as demonstrated by an examination of the substance, rather than form, of any arrangements.

i. Recognition of the business as a separate entity for tax or corporate purposes is not necessarily sufficient for recognition as an MBE or WBE. In determining whether a potential MBE or WBE is an independent business, all relevant factors shall be considered, including the date the business was established, and the degree to which financial, equipment leasing, and other relationships with such non-minority and non-women businesses vary from industry practice.

ii. Only businesses performing a commercially useful function may be certified under this program. An MBE or WBE is considered to perform a commercially useful function when it carries out its responsibilities by actually performing, managing, and supervising the work involved. To determine whether an MBE or WBE is performing a commercially useful function, the amount of work subcontracted, industry practices, and other relevant factors shall be evaluated.

iii. Minority and women business enterprises engaged in the procurement of materials and supplies must be significantly and substantially involved in the production or have evidence of movement of inventory on hand, in and out of his or her or its facility (leased, owned, or rented) to be considered for certification.

(c) In order to be eligible as a minority business, a business must be a sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity authorized under the laws of the United States, which is at least 51 percent owned, operated and controlled by persons who are Black, Hispanic, Asian American, American Indian or Alaskan native.

(d) In order to be eligible as a women business, a business must be a sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity authorized under the laws of the United States, which is at least 51 percent owned, operated, and controlled by persons who are women, without regard to race.

Amended by R.1998 d.238, effective May 18, 1998.
See: 30 N.J.R. 968(a), 30 N.J.R. 1835(a).

12A:11-1.4 Certification procedures for minority businesses and women businesses

(a) Any business which seeks to be certified under the Act as a minority business and/or women business must apply to the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development. For this purpose, the Department shall prepare a New Jersey Uniform Certification Application. This form shall be available from the Department, and other agencies and departments of the State which maintain programs which require certification of minority and women businesses.

(b) As part of its application to the Department a business shall provide all required information and documents requested by the Uniform Certification Application and any additional information requested by the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office. The information to be submitted for review shall include:

1. Place of business;

2. Names and addresses of the owners, partners, or shareholders as applicable, and their representative shares of ownership;

3. Names and addresses of members of the board of directors in the case of corporations;

4. Names and addresses of the officers of the business;

5. Names and addresses of capital investors and the amount of capital contributed. Gifted ownership shall not be considered;

6. Personal and Corporate Tax Returns for each owner, director and officer of the enterprise for the past three consecutive years (including W2's);

7. Numbers of shares of all classes of stock issued, and stock outstanding in the case of a corporation;

8. The bonding capacity and history of the business;

9. The affiliation of the business or any of its owners, officers or directors with any other business entity;

10. A representative list of current and prior clients for the past two years where applicable;

11. A complete list of major real and personal property holdings of the business;

12. A complete disclosure of financial statements and balance sheets;

13. A complete listing of banking institutions with which the business is affiliated;

14. A complete listing of previously attained certifications and a listing of all legal entities which denied certification; and

15. Copies of office/warehouse, lease/rental agreements and/or deeds, and mortgages when homebased.

(c) An applicant must fully and accurately complete, when directed in writing, all relevant parts of the Uniform Certification Application. Failure of a complete application shall result in rejection.

(d) An applicant who fails to comply with specifically requested additional information or documentation shall be considered in non-compliance and shall be subject to rejection.

(e) If the applicant knowingly supplies incomplete or inaccurate information the applicant shall be disqualified under these rules, barred from reapplying for certification for a period of up to 18 months from the date of notice of disqualification, and may be subject to other penalties described in N.J.A.C. 12A:11-1.9.

(f) In order to be certified under the Act, a business must also comply with any pre-approvals or other eligibility requirements legitimately established by the contracting agency in whose program the business wishes to participate.

12A:11-1.5 Acceptance as a certified minority business or women business

(a) When a business is determined by the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office to be a minority and/or women business, the business will be added by the Department to the electronic database. The businesses on this database shall be eligible for all appropriate State programs which require certification as a criteria for participation in a specific program. There shall be no limit to the number of businesses on the database. Each business shall be placed on the database denoting its status as minority and/or women business enterprise.

(b) When a business is placed on the electronic database, that business shall be eligible for all appropriate State programs which require certification as a criteria for participation. Once a business is placed on the database, it cannot be denied an opportunity to participate in the various State programs until it is removed from the database.

(c) When a business is placed on the electronic database it shall be informed by the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office by mail of its certification status. The Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office shall also issue an individual certification number exclusive to the business as part of the certification procedure.

Amended by R.1998 d.238, effective May 18, 1998.

See: 30 N.J.R. 968(a), 30 N.J.R. 1835(a).

A business may apply to be certified by the Department's Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office, at any time, whenever State programs require certification of the control and ownership of a business under the Act as a minority business and/or women business.

Amended by R.1998 d.238, effective May 18, 1998.

See: 30 N.J.R. 968(a), 30 N.J.R. 1835(a).

12A:11-1.7 Right of withdrawal

An applicant firm for the State of New Jersey Unified Certification Program may request in writing, to the Administrator, that its application be withdrawn. Such withdrawal shall be approved prior to any approval, denial or rejection being made by the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office, and will not be prejudicial to any subsequent application. The Administrator would only disapprove a request for withdrawal if a determination of approval, denial or rejection had been made by the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office. The applicant may reapply not sooner than 120 calendar days following the date of withdrawal approval. An applicant may withdraw once during a 12 month period.

New Rule, R.1998 d.238, effective May 18, 1998.
See: 30 N.J.R. 968(a), 30 N.J.R. 1835(a).

12A:11-1.8 Denial of certification as a minority or women business

(a) When a business has been denied certification based upon the information provided by that business in its submitted Uniform Certification Application or its annual Certification Verification Statement the business may appeal the decision of the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office.

(b) A business that is denied certification shall have 10 days from the date of notification of the denial to request a hearing with the Contracting Opportunity and Certification Administrator for his or her or its first level appeal. The Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the hearing and of the right of the applicant to attend and be represented at the hearing. The hearing shall be conducted by the Administrator. The burden of proof of eligibility lies with the applicant. The applicant may appeal the decision of the Administrator by requesting in writing to the Office of the Commissioner of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development a final appeal within 15 days from receipt of the initial appeal decision. The letter shall include all information available relevant to the appeal. The applicant will be informed of a date, time, and place and circumstances upon which the applicant may appear personally before the Commissioner or his or her designee. The applicant may accept or reject the opportunity to personally appear at this hearing before a decision statement is issued.

(c) The procedure for appeal of a denial of certification shall be executed in the same manner as hearings for a challenge to a certified business as provided by N.J.A.C. 12A:11-1.9. The Contracting Opportunity and Certification Office shall be considered as the challenger pursuant to N.J.A.C. 12A:11-1.9.

(d) An applicant who receives a decision from the Office of the Commissioner that the denial has been reaffirmed may reapply one year after the original date of denial.

12A:11-1.9 Procedure for challenging a business certified as a minority business and/or women business

(a) The qualifications under these rules of a business on the electronic database may be challenged by any other business on the State bidders list or the State set-aside bidders list, and any State department or agency. The Commissioner shall have the discretion to dismiss a challenge for insufficient evidence.

1. A certification challenge shall be made in writing to the Department, with copies to the challenged business and to the appropriate contracting agency where a specific contract is at issue.

2. A certification challenge to the Department must be concerned with the authenticity of a business under these rules as a minority business or women business enterprise. Challenges of any other kind must be directed to the State department or agency which requires those other qualifications.

3. The written challenge shall be accompanied by supporting documentation of the charges.

(b) In the case of a challenge to a certified minority or women business enterprise, the State agency or department making a contract award under a specific program shall be notified within three days of receipt of a challenge and shall immediately suspend any further awards under the contract for a period not to exceed 20 days so the Department may conduct a hearing, if warranted.

1. In the event that a currently certified minority and/or women business is unsuccessfully challenged under these rules by the Department, the State agency or department shall proceed to award the contract as otherwise authorized by State statute.

2. In the event that a currently certified minority and/or women business is not disqualified by the Department within 20 days, any contract awards suspended at the time due to the challenge shall be allowed to be awarded without prejudice.

3. The right to challenge a currently certified minority and/or women business is in addition to and is independent of any protest hearing rights which are afforded by any State agency or department.

(c) When the Department receives a challenge, upon the request of the business whose certification is at issue, the Department shall conduct a hearing on the matter as follows. The business must request the hearing within five days of the suspension of a contract award or in the case when no contract award is involved, within five days from receipt of notice that the business is subject to a challenge proceeding.

1. The Department shall notify all interested parties of the time and place of the hearing, and of the right to attend and be represented at the hearing.

2. The burden of proof lies with the challenger. However, the Department may use its own resources to ascertain the viability of a challenge and the status of a business.

3. The hearing will be conducted by the designee of the Commissioner. This designee shall issue a written report to the Commissioner of the Department within five days of the close of the hearing.

4. A participant at the hearing who is a party to the challenge procedures will be permitted to file written exceptions to the hearing officer's report no later than three days from the issuance of the report.

5. Thereafter, the Commissioner shall issue a final decision on the challenge and notify the parties by certified letter.

6. The entire hearing challenge procedure shall take no more than 20 days to complete; time shall not be considered to run until a contract award is suspended. In the case where no contract award is in question, time will run from the date of the notification to the business by certified mail that it is the subject of a challenge proceeding.
