Case Notes

Board of education was not ordered to grant a high school diploma to student who suffered from irritable bowel syndrome where he had not received the required 130 credit hours for his senior year. By denying the request for a diploma prior to his completion of 130 credit hours, irreparable harm would not be caused to the student since the diploma would be granted to him upon the completion of four additional courses; the case law was clear that, without meeting the minimum credit requirements set forth by the board of education, the student had no right to a diploma; and the interest of the board in maintaining its minimum credit requirements was extremely significant for, without being able to enforce its minimum regulations for academic achievement, the board would be unable to effectively educate students. B.M. ex rel. A.M. v. Jackson Twp. Bd. of Educ., OAL Dkt. No. EDS 4717-08, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 489, Emergent Relief Final Decision (June 18, 2008).
