

Financial Services Talent Network

For employers and education/training providers

The Financial Services Talent Network connects key stakeholders in the financial services industry for the purpose of solving staffing and training problems. Working together, these leaders can define “best practices” and ultimately get New Jersey residents to work in financial services jobs. The Financial Services Talent Network customizes the services and products offered to support employers in this industry.

What can being a part of the Financial Services Talent Network do for you?

Employers

- Partner with you, at no cost to you, to locate and assess entry-level talent and mid-career professional talent who are seeking career opportunities in the financial services sector
- Introduce you to employment specialists who will help you secure financial incentives to hire, develop and retain talent
- Lead discussions with educational institutions to design and develop industry-specific training programs
- Offer you opportunities to provide strategic input about workforce issues and policies to key workforce officials at the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development
- Connect you with Labor Market Information analysts who will provide you with current data and the financial services industry

Education/Training Providers

- Help you to more effectively connect with employers in the financial services sector so you can better understand the training requirements of this growing industry
- Meet with your students to better prepare them for intern and career opportunities in the Financial Services sector
- Work with you to connect recent graduates with alumni who can offer career opportunities
- Offer you opportunities to provide strategic input about workforce issues and policies to key workforce officials at the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development

Contact

Charles Wallace, Director
Financial Services Talent Network
cwallace@aaccnj.com
(609) 571-1607

Follow us!

LinkedIn

financialservicesnj.org

Financial Services Talent Network

For jobseekers

The Financial Services Talent Network — a strategic partnership of industry employers, government agencies, educational institutions, and professional and nonprofit community organizations — is committed to taking an in-depth look at this important industry and its challenges, and developing a plan for cultivating a well-trained workforce.

In 2013 the financial services industry employed an estimated 200,300 workers (Current Employment Statistics). According to the 2012 Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages, financial services workers in New Jersey are paid 87.3% more than the state average of all industries.

What can being a part of the Financial Services Talent Network do for you?

- Give you the inside scoop on how to use Jobs4Jersey.com to tap financial services job opportunities in New Jersey
- Alert you to the best online job search tools and information about the financial services industry
- Let you know about relevant training opportunities designed to lead to the most in-demand jobs in this growing industry
- Connect you with information about training programs and financial assistance offered by the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development

Contact

Charles Wallace, Director
Financial Services Talent Network
cwallace@aaccnj.com
(609) 571-1607

Follow us!   financialservicesnj.org

Chris Christie, Governor
Harold J. Wirths, Commissioner

Jobs4Jersey.com

WHERE TALENT  MEETS OPPORTUNITY

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF LWD
LABOR AND WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT
nj.gov/labor