Capital celebration for triumphant return of Jersey Guard Brigade

By Wayne Woolley, DMAVA/PA

For the nearly 3,000 Soldiers of the New Jersey Army National Guard's 50th Infantry Brigade Combat Team, the thanks for successfully completing their mission in Iraq started with a parade through downtown Trenton on Friday. It turned into one of largest public celebrations in the state capital's history.

Although severe thunderstorms dropped buckets of rain early Friday morning, the ominous clouds began to break up in the minutes before the parade was to begin. By the time the brigade commander, Col. Steven Ferrari, stepped in front of Gov. Jon Corzine to begin the official pass in review, the sun was shining.

Maj. Gen. Glenn K. Rieth, the adjutant general, said it was appropriate that the parade to honor the brigade that had completed the state's largest combat deployment since World War II stepped off in front of the state's new memorial to that conflict.

"The members of the 50th IBCT are part of America's next Greatest Generation," Rieth said.

The parade was only the first portion of the public outpouring of gratitude to the brigade. The second phase of the celebration was held at the end of the parade route in the Sovereign Bank Arena. This portion focused on the thousands of family members who were without a husband, or wife, or father or mother during the long deployment.

Entertainment acts including Joe Piscopo, Holiday Express, the USO Liberty Bells and Sarah Dash, a former vocalist with Patti Labelle and The Blue Bells performed in the arena.

Tribute to N.J. Vets book extends sale dates to June 30

Through a special offer, the National Guard Militia Museum of New Jersey and the Star Ledger are extending the pre-publication sale "A Tribute to New Jersey Veterans" until the end of June for all recently returned National Guard members. This 128 page, historical hard-cover book will be available on July 4, and includes numerous unpublished photos from the museum's collections, the NJ National Guard, Star Ledger's archives, and personal collections. These photographs chronicle the men and women who have protected democracy since the inception of our country right up to

Helmets to Hardhats

The New Jersey State Building and Construction Trades Council's Helmets to Hardhats Program (NJ H2H) is designed to help transitioning military personnel, National Guardsmen and Reservists find the careers in the building and construction industry. The program seeks to help military members find a career in one of 15 affiliated trades, such as electrical workers, carpenters and painters.

They work in cooperation with the national Helmets to Hardhats program, adding a personal component to the program's on-line services. NJ H2H offers veterans preparation for successful application to any of New Jersey's registered apprenticeship programs in the building and construction trades. Services include career counseling, entrance test preparation and referral to supportive services.

For program registration and information, visit online at www.njbctc.org/h2h or contact at 732-499-7295 or at H2H@njbctc.org.

Employees required to register for MBOS

From the desk of Lisa J. Dandrea, Human Resources, Personnel Assistant

MBOS is the Member Benefits Online System. Through MBOS, employees may review their pension contributions, loan status, health benefits information, update their beneficiary information, apply for retirement, as well as many other applications. It has been encouraged that all employees register for this helpful tool. However Pensions is now working on MBOS being a requirement in order for employees to make certain updates to their personal information.

Effective immediately, in all cases where an employee is eligible to become a member of the Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS), the employer will be required to submit all enrollment information to Pensions via online. Important to note is that the online PERS Enrollment Application does not include the Designation of Beneficiary page. Instead, once the member is enrolled and issued a pension number, they must register for a MBOS account at: www.state.nj.us/treasury/pensions/mbosregister.htm and complete the online Beneficiary Designation form. Until the member completes his or her Designation of Beneficiary, the member's "Estate" will be the beneficiary of record.

Current employees –note, even if you are already enrolled into PERS, if you wish to make any changes to your beneficiary information, you too will need to be registered for MBOS. Members will not be able to submit the Change in Beneficiary Designation paper form since this will no longer be acceptable through the Division of Pensions and Benefits.

Visit the link above for complete instructions to register for MBOS. If you encounter any problems with registration, you may e-mail Pensions and Benefits with your questions/concerns and they can assist you through the process. You may also obtain a tri-fold brochure with MBOS instructions from your Human Resources Office.
