Case Notes

Government Records Council (GRC) erred in simply accepting a records custodian's statement that all the records an individual sought were protected by statute; neither N.J.S.A. 43:21-11(g), nor N.J.A.C. 12:15-2.1, 12:15-2.2 barred access to all the requested documents, and the GRC should have reviewed them to determine which documents were protected from production under the Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 to 47:1A-13. Paff v. New Jersey Dep't of Labor, 379 N.J. Super. 346, 878 A.2d 31, 2005 N.J. Super. LEXIS 242 (App.Div. 2005).

i. Requests for claim-related information received directly from a claimant or employers who are parties to a claim, in writing, in person or by telephone are to be honored once the identity of the claimant or employer has been verified and provided that the intended use of such information does not conflict with the provisions of N.J.S.A. 43:21-11(g).

ii. Telephone, informal, or written requests from an attorney or other individual who states that he or she is the claimant's representative are not to be honored unless the claimant provides the Department with a signed and dated authorization for the release of the specified information;

3. To claimants, employers, and the public, disclosure of the names, geographic location and standard industrial classification (SIC) or North American Industry Classification (NAIC) of employers except where the disclosure of physical location may jeopardize the health and/or safety of an employer, its workforce or its clients. Such release shall not include number of employees, employment rank, employment size class, wages, taxes, client information or any other data identifiable to individual employers, to more than one employer with the same trade name, or to employees;

4. To officers or employees of any agency of the Federal government or any state, territorial or local government (or officers or employees of a foreign government agency with which reciprocal arrangements have been made and which is lawfully charged with the administration of an unemployment compensation or trade readjustment allowance law) if such disclosures will not impede the operation of, and are not inconsistent with, the purposes of the New Jersey Unemployment Compensation and Temporary Disability Benefits Laws.

i. Requests by law enforcement agents for the release of Departmental information shall be made in writing, and the identity of the requester shall be verified prior to the release of information by the showing of a badge, warrant, written and signed request on agency letterhead, or some other similar indication of official purpose.

(1) Information which may be released includes the claimant's name, current address, current or most recent employer, and the next scheduled reporting date; and

ii. Public officials shall establish that the information requested is to be used in furtherance of their public duties and shall certify in writing that the confidentiality of the disclosed information shall be maintained.

(1) Telephone inquiries from public officials may be answered verbally, provided that the identity of the caller can be verified; and

(2) Written requests by public officials on official letterhead shall be honored, provided that the information shall be used in furtherance of their public duty or provided that the claimant has requested that the information be released.

iii. Information may be disclosed to third parties under contract to public agencies if the disclosure of such information is for the sole purpose of assisting officials in the furtherance of their public duties. Both the third party and the public agency official must certify in writing that the disclosed information will be used only for this purpose and that the confidentiality of the disclosed information will be maintained as mandated by State and/or Federal law.

5. To officers or administrators of public or private organizations such as colleges, universities, or foundations to perform research or engage in public service activities, which can be expected to benefit the residents of New Jersey by improving or promoting their health, safety, economic or social well-being, provided that the benefit of such research or public service activity to New Jersey residents is certified in writing by the administrator of the New Jersey municipal, county or State executive agency, or his or her designated representative, and provided that
