Governor Whitman to Speak at National Conference on Smart Development

New Jersey Gov. Christie Whitman will deliver the keynote address at the Second Annual National Partners for Smart Growth Conference in Austin, Texas on Tuesday.

Gov. Whitman was invited to speak about New Jersey's efforts to preserve 1 million acres of open space and farmland over the next decade. The conference, focused on balancing open space preservation and development, is hosted by the Environmental Protection Agency in conjunction with the Urban Land Institute and the Smart Growth Network.

New Jersey is one of three states being featured for its smart growth initiatives. Florida and Texas will also be featured.
