(a) State certification requirements are those structured training and competency evaluation requirements that are prescribed by the State Board of Education in order to protect the public. In addition, the teaching and other background experiences of candidates for professional positions may often be important considerations in the local selection of specific staff for specific positions. Each district board of education shall determine the types of background experiences and personal qualities, if any, that the district requires or prefers successful candidates for specific positions to possess in addition to appropriate State certification. Such local requirements shall be based upon a careful review of the position in question, and the requirements shall emphasize the nature of experience and the quality of individual achievement desired, rather than only the amount of experience.

(b) No teaching staff member shall be employed in the public schools by any board of education unless he or she is the holder of a valid certificate (see N.J.S.A. 18A:26-2). In addition, district boards of education should exercise their right and responsibility to require job candidates to present other, more detailed documentation of their competency. Such documentation includes resumes, references, records of past experiences, college transcripts, certification test scores, assessment reports, internship evaluations, and other documentation of competency relevant to the specific position.

(c) District boards of education shall assign to administrative positions those functions which are consistent with the individual qualifications of the position occupant, and shall support the establishment of structures for making instructional decisions that take administrator qualifications into account.

Case Notes

Board of education's decision to withhold principal's salary increment due to his excessive absenteeism was not related predominately to evaluation of principal's performance, and thus principal's appeal should be through arbitration, and not to Commissioner of Department of Education. *Edison Tp. Whenever the title of any employment shall not be found in the certification rules or in these rules, the holder of the employment shall be classified as nearly as may be according to the duties performed, pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.3.

Law Review and Journal Commentaries

Recovering from Taxman. Sean R. Kelly and Deanna M. Beecham, 148 N.J.L.J. 128 (1997).

Case Notes

School board's affirmative action plan of preferring minority teachers over nonminority teachers in layoff decisions where teachers were equally qualified violated Title VII. Taxman v. Board of Educ. of Township of Piscataway, C.A.3 (N.J.) 1996, 91 F.3d 1547.

School board could terminate tenured speech correction teacher and have services provided by educational services commission. Impey v. Board of Educ. of Borough of Shrewsbury, 273 N.J.Super. 429, 642 A.2d 419 (A.D.1994), certification granted 138 N.J. 266, 649 A.2d 1286, affirmed 142 N.J. 388, 662 A.2d 960.

Evidence supported State Board of Education determination that school district had legitimate basis for restructuring guidance department so as to eliminate position of guidance counselor, which required education services certification, and to create new position of class supervisor, which required certification in both educational services and administration. Dennery v. Board of Educ. of Passaic County Regional High School Dist. No. 1, Passaic County, 131 N.J. 626, 622 A.2d 858 (1993).

If newly created position is similar to tenure holder's abolished position but also requires additional or different responsibilities, newly created position is not considered substantially similar to former position for purposes of determining whether local board must extend tenure holder's tenure rights to new position. Dennery v. Board of Educ. of Passaic County Regional High School Dist. No. 1, Passaic County, 131 N.J. 626, 622 A.2d 858 (1993).

Local school board may not sidestep educator's tenure rights by simply renaming position or tacking on additional meaningless requirements; local board must extend teaching-staff member's tenure rights to newly created position. Dennery v. Board of Educ. of Passaic County Regional High School Dist. No. 1, Passaic County, 131 N.J. 626, 622 A.2d 858 (1993).

Service as guidance counselor under educational services certification did not automatically entitle tenured guidance counselor to tenure in position which fell under both educational services and administrative certificates; requirement of dual certification and service in position under particular certificate for tenure under that certificate was not unreasonable, arbitrary or capricious. Dennery v. Board of Educ. of Passaic County Regional High School Dist. No. 1, Passaic County, 131 N.J. 626, 622 A.2d 858 (1993).

Where newly created position of class supervisor required performance of additional duties apart from those performed by tenured guidance counselor, guidance counselor, who had acquired tenure in her position under educational services certificate, was not entitled to tenure rights to newly created position which required certification under both educational services and administration. Dennery v. Board of Educ. of Passaic County Regional High School Dist. No. 1, Passaic County, 131 N.J. 626, 622 A.2d 858 (1993).

Teacher on leave has no contract for that year and position would be filled, after one year leave is over, on basis of appropriate seniority rules; tenured teacher filling temporary vacancy continued to accrue seniority credits. Lammers v. Board of Educ. of Borough of Point Pleasant, 260 N.J.Super. 390, 616 A.2d 1293 (A.D.1992), certification granted 133 N.J. 438, 627 A.2d 1143, reversed 134 N.J. 264, 633 A.2d 526.

Tenured high school teacher could not be turned down for temporary vacancy in middle school, since departmentalized middle school is classified as secondary school for employee entitlement purposes. Lammers v. Board of Educ. of Borough of Point Pleasant, 260 N.J.Super. 390, 616 A.2d 1293 (A.D.1992), certification granted 133 N.J. 438, 627 A.2d 1143, reversed 134 N.J. 264, 633 A.2d 526.

School teacher was entitled to have 30 days of unpaid absences credited toward seniority, though teacher took more than 30 days maternity leave. Cohen v. Emerson Bd. of Educ., 225 N.J.Super. 324, 542 A.2d 489 (A.D.1988).

Teacher did not accrue secondary seniority credits by providing statutorily mandated services in public school to sixth, seventh and eighth parochial students who were added to students from public school where public school clearly was in elementary category, though parochial school was departmentalized in same way as equivalent departmentalized public schools. Cohen v. Emerson Bd. of Educ., 225 N.J.Super. 324, 542 A.2d 489 (A.D.1988).

Teacher was entitled to seniority credits for nine unused sick days applied to her maternity leave where teacher had been employed in preceding school year and indicated she intended to return after maternity leave. Cohen v. Emerson Bd. of Educ., 225 N.J.Super. 324, 542 A.2d 489 (A.D.1988).

Teacher's seniority could be recalculated according to new regulations after their operative date as reasonable exercise of education commissioner's administrative rulemaking power. Cohen v. Emerson Bd. of Educ., 225 N.J.Super. 324, 542 A.2d 489 (A.D.1988).

"Seniority" provisions of teacher tenure statute concerned only rights inter sese of tenured teachers and did not authorize dilution of teacher's tenure rights by reduction in work hours and retention of nontenured teacher full-time in secondary school position solely on basis of nontenured teacher's "seniority" in the secondary setting. Bednar v. Westwood Bd. of Educ., 221 N.J.Super. 239, 534 A.2d 93 (A.D.1987), certification denied 110 N.J. 512, 541 A.2d 1371.

Tenured secondary school physical education teacher entitled to reinstatement to elementary school teaching position held by nontenured teachers upon reduction in force of teaching staff. *Capodilupo v.
