Trenton, NJ – As part of the sixth Season of Service, Giving the Gift of Support, Governor Chris Christie, along with the Facing Addiction Task Force, Pastor Joe A. Carter and the New Hope Baptist Church, will host a Candlelight Vigil on the front steps of the New Jersey State House on Wednesday, December 21 starting at 4:00pm. The vigil is being held in support of the people, families, and loved ones impacted by substance use issues and will honor the lives taken by addiction. This call to action for eliminating the stigma surrounding this disease will gather the statewide recovery community and the loved ones of those affected to take a stand for recovery this holiday season.

Attendees are asked to RSVP with their name, email address, phone number and organization (if applicable) to GiftofSupport@nj.gov or (609) 777-2500.
