10A:71-3.2 Calculation of parole eligibility terms

(a) This section shall not apply to adult inmates sentenced pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:113-4 for a term of life imprisonment, N.J.S.A. 2A:164-17 for a fixed minimum and maximum term or N.J.S.A. 2C:1-1(b). The aggregation provisions of N.J.S.A. 30:4-123.1, et seq. shall apply to such inmates.

(b) Except as provided in N.J.A.C. 10A:71-3.3(i), this section shall not apply to juvenile or young adult inmates.

(c) The parole eligibility terms for adult inmates shall be determined by the following:

1. Where a life term, with no mandatory-minimum term, has been imposed, the parole eligibility term shall, except as provided in (c)3 below, be 25 years.

2. Where a specific term, with no mandatory-minimum term, has been imposed, the parole eligibility term shall, except as provided in (c)3 below, be one-third of the specific term or 25 years, whichever is less.

3. Where a life term or a specific term with a judicial or statutory mandatory minimum term has been imposed, the parole eligibility term shall be the mandatory minimum term, provided that such minimum term is greater than otherwise required by subsection (c)1 or (c)2 above.

4. Where the inmate is serving a term and a concurrent or consecutive specific term, with no mandatory-minimum term, is subsequently imposed on or after June 21, 1994, the parole eligibility term on the subsequently imposed specific term shall be one-third of the balance of the specific term determined by reducing the specific term by credit awarded pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:44-5(b)(2).

5. Where the inmate is serving time due to a revocation of parole, the parole eligibility term shall be the future parole eligibility term set by the appropriate Board panel upon revocation of parole pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-7.16, 7.16A or 7.16B.

6. Where the inmate has been required to serve an additional term due to institutional infractions, the parole eligibility term shall include any additional term of incarceration required to be served.

7. Where a specific term to the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center has been imposed, the inmate shall be eligible for parole consideration only upon recommendation by the Special Classification Review Board pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:47-5 except that in no case shall an inmate committed to the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center become eligible for parole prior to the expiration of any mandatory minimum term imposed.

i. When an inmate committed to the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center is transferred out of the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center by order of the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:47-4(b), the inmate shall be eligible for parole consideration pursuant to (c)1, 2, 3 or 5 above as appropriate.

8. Where the inmate has been denied parole and required to serve a future eligibility term pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-3.21, a new book eligibility date shall be established by adding the additional term to the current book eligibility date and by including, in the case of an adult inmate, commutation credits based on the additional term only.

9. Where the inmate's actual eligibility date has passed at the time of the initial parole release hearing and the inmate has been denied parole and required to serve a future eligibility term pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-3.21, a new book date shall be established by adding the additional term to the actual eligibility date and by including, in the case of an adult inmate, commutation credit based on the additional term only.

10. If an inmate has been returned to confinement from the Intensive Supervision Program for any reason and if the inmate's parole eligibility date has passed at the time the inmate is returned to confinement, the following provisions shall apply in the case of an inmate denied parole release on or after May 21, 1990:

i. A new book eligibility date shall be established by adding the additional term established pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-3.21 to the date of the inmate's return to confinement.

ii. In the case of an adult inmate, the new book date shall include commutation credits based on the additional term only.

iii. In the case of an adult inmate, only work and minimum credits earned from the date of the inmate's return to confinement shall be applied in the calculation of the actual eligibility date. In the case of a young adult inmate, program participation credits determined pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-3.3 shall be applied to reduce the primary eligibility date established pursuant to this section.

(d) When a consecutive term is imposed, the parole eligibility term derived from the consecutive term, less county jail credits, shall be added to the parole eligibility term derived from the original term, less county jail credits, to determine the aggregate parole eligibility term. Applicable credits pursuant to (g)2 and (g)3 below shall be deducted from the aggregate parole eligibility term unless said term is determined pursuant to (c)3 above.

(e) When a concurrent term(s) is imposed, the parole eligibility term from the original term, less county jail credits, shall be added to the date the original term began to determine the flat eligibility date on the original term. The parole eligibility term on the concurrent term(s), less county jail credits, shall be added to the date the concurrent term(s) began to determine the flat eligibility date on the concurrent sentence. The aggregate parole eligibility term shall be that period of time between:

1. The earlier of the two dates on which the terms began; and

2. The later of the two flat parole eligibility dates. Applicable credits pursuant to (g)2 and (g)3 below shall be deducted from the aggregate parole eligibility term unless said term is determined pursuant to (c)3 above.

(f) Where a specific term to the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center has been imposed, and the inmate has not been transferred out of the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:47-4(b), the parole eligibility term, for the purposes of aggregation with any specific or life term, shall be set by the adult Board panel upon its acceptance of the recommendation by the Special Classification Review Board pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:47-1, et seq.

(g) Credits shall reduce parole eligibility terms as follows:

1. County jail credits pursuant to R.3:21-8 shall reduce any parole eligibility terms determined pursuant to (c) above.

2. Commutation credits applied pursuant to N.J.S.A. 30:4-140 and credits for diligent application to work and other assignments earned pursuant to N.J.S.A. 30:4-92 shall reduce any aggregate parole eligibility terms except those determined pursuant to (c)3 above.

3. When an aggregate parole eligibility term includes a parole eligibility term determined pursuant to (c)3, such aggregate term shall be reduced by credits pursuant to (g)2 provided, however, that such credits accrued shall only be awarded subsequent to the expiration of the eligibility term determined pursuant to (c)3 above as calculated from the date such parole eligibility term began.

4. Upon the expiration of a parole eligibility term determined pursuant to (c)3 above, commutation credits and credits for diligent application to work and other assignments accrued during the service of the parole eligibility term determined pursuant to (c)3 above shall not reduce an adjusted parole eligibility date established pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-3.4 or a future parole eligibility date established pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-3.21, 3.46, 7.16, 7.16A or 7.16B.

(h) Parole eligibility terms shall be restricted as follows:

1. No inmate committed for a specific term(s) of years at the State Prison or the Edna Mahan Correctional Facility for Women shall become primarily eligible for parole until service of a full nine months of the aggregate term less any county jail credits, provided, however, that when the specific terms of years to the State Prison or the Correctional Institution for Women is less than 12 months this restriction shall not apply.

2. No aggregate parole eligibility term resulting from the aggregation of specific terms, which do not include a mandatory-minimum term(s), shall exceed 25 years.

3. No parole eligibility term resulting from a non-criminal violation(s) of parole conditions shall, after deductions for credits pursuant to (g)2 above, exceed 12 months.

Imposition of indeterminate sentence upon young adult offender following parole violation was supported by evidence. State v. Berger, 258 N.J.Super. 553, 610 A.2d 892 (A.D.1992).

Imposition of indeterminate sentence upon young adult offender following violation of probation was permissible. State v. Berger, 258 N.J.Super. 553, 610 A.2d 892 (A.D.1992).

Regulation providing for calculating commutation credits for parole eligibility was valid. Aletras v. Delaney, 245 N.J.Super. 32, 583 A.2d 778 (A.D.1990), certification denied 126 N.J. 330, 598 A.2d 888.

Commitment at treatment facility for sex offenders was warranted. State v. Hass, 237 N.J.Super. 79, 566 A.2d 1181 (L.1988).

Gap-time credit applied only to base term of aggregated sentences. Richardson v. Nickolopoulos, 110 N.J. 241, 540 A.2d 1246 (1988).

Trial court must inform sex offenders of the possibility and parole consequences of a sentence to the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center before accepting a guilty plea pursuant to a plea agreement. State v. Howard, 110 N.J. 113, 539 A.2d 1203 (1988).

Actions of trial court in sentencing defendant to adult diagnostic and treatment center implicated due process liberty interests which arose from expectation that parole standards for center and rehabilitative procedures would not be applied absent finding of repetitive and compulsive behavior as required by statute, but which did not depend on finding that sentence at center carried more severe parole consequences than ordinary prison sentence. State v. Howard, 110 N.J. 113, 539 A.2d 1203 (1988).

Sentencing judge did not err in determining that presumption against imprisonment of first offender was overcome because defendant was a volunteer fireman; custodial sentence imposed should have been one of several meaningful conditions of probation. State v. Gardner, 215 N.J.Super. 84, 521 A.2d 357 (App.Div.1987), remanded 113 N.J. 510, 551 A.2d 981.

Rules control aggregation of sentences for purposes of parole. State v. Richardson, 208 N.J.Super. 399, 506 A.2d 43 (App.Div.1986), certification denied 523 A.2d 188, 105 N.J. 552.

Defendant's resentencing, at his own option, from a 17-year term under the then new Code of Criminal Justice to a 30-year term under the prior statutory scheme was not an enhancement of punishment in violation of double jeopardy principles. State v. McMeekin, 204 N.J.Super. 496, 499 A.2d 515 (App.Div.1985), certification denied 508 A.2d 188, 102 N.J. 302.

Parole eligibility date reduction methods examined; due process violated for imposition of a sentence five times greater than original sentence, absent justification, after successful challenge to illegal original sentence. State v. Heisler, 192 N.J.Super. 586, 471 A.2d 805 (App.Div.1984).

Commutation time accrues faster on longer or aggregated terms than on shorter or nonaggregated terms. State v. Richardson, 208 N.J.Super. 399, 506 A.2d 43 (App.Div.1986), certification denied 523 A.2d 188, 105 N.J. 552.

Aggregation of three consecutive indeterminate sentences for setting of maximum parole release date proper; rule regarding serving of consecutive indeterminate sentences valid; rule did not apply where consecutive indeterminate sentences imposed as part of one judgment of conviction and sentencing (citing former N.J.A.C. 10:35-57.4 and 57.7). State v. Lucas, 164 N.J.Super. 57, 395 A.2d 564 (Law Div.1978).

(e) The young adult Board panel may establish a primary eligibility date which differs from that required by the provisions of (a), (b) and (c) above, if the primary eligibility date which would be established pursuant to such subsections is clearly inappropriate in consideration of the circumstances of the crime and the characteristics and prior criminal record of the inmate.

(g) Except as provided herein, any primary eligibility date for a young adult offender established pursuant to this section or N.J.A.C. 10A:71-7.16, 7.16A or 7.16B may be reduced through program participation by the inmate.

1. If such inmate's level of program participation is above average, the reduction shall be the rate of 15 days for every month of the primary eligibility term less jail credits.

2. If such inmate's level of program participation is average, the reduction shall be at the rate of 10 days for every month of the primary eligibility jail term less jail credits.

3. If such inmate's level of program participation is below average, the reduction shall be at the rate of five days for every month of the primary eligibility term less jail credits.

(e) If such Board members do not reach a unanimous decision, the Chairperson shall determine whether the case shall be referred to the appropriate Board panel for a hearing or whether the case shall be referred to a third Board panel member for review.

10A:71-3.18 Board panel hearing; notice of decision for adult inmates

(a) At the conclusion of the Board panel hearing, the Board panel shall take one of the following actions:

1. Certify parole release, except as provided in (b) below, as soon as practicable after the parole eligibility date by:

- i. Establishing a parole release date based upon the inmate's projected parole eligibility date; or
- ii. Establishing a specific parole release date; and
- iii. Establishing appropriate pre-release conditions; and
- iv. Establishing appropriate special parole conditions pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-6.

2. Deny parole and establish a future parole eligibility date pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10:71-3.21.

3. Defer decision pending the receipt of relevant information.

- i. No such deferral shall extend more than 90 days unless otherwise authorized by the Board.

ii. If such additional relevant information is of an adverse nature, then the parole hearing shall be reconvened as soon as possible after receipt of such information.

(b) If the Board panel determines that the inmate shall be placed in a halfway house facility for a specified time period as a pre-release condition, the Board panel shall refer the matter to the Board for review. If the Board upon reviewing the record concurs that placement of the inmate in a half-way house facility for a specified time period is an appropriate pre-release condition, the Board shall refer the inmate's case to the Department for placement of the inmate in an appropriate half-way house facility. If the Department denies such placement, the decision and the reasons therefor shall be provided in writing by the Department to the Board. Upon receiving notice that placement has been denied, the Board panel shall determine whether the pre-release condition should be eliminated and the grant of parole affirmed or whether the inmate should be denied parole.

(c) Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 30:4-123.55(f), the Board panel shall not certify parole release in the case of an offender serving a term for the crime of murder. In such a case, if the Board panel is of the opinion that parole release is appropriate, the Board panel shall automatically refer the case for a hearing before the Board. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to an inmate who has his or her parole revoked and is returned to custody pursuant to N.J.S.A. 30:4-123.63.

(d) If a parole release date has been established based upon a projected eligibility date, the chief executive officer of the institution or designee shall:

1. Notify the senior Board representative at the institution immediately upon an acceleration in the credit pattern. If an acceleration in the credit pattern has occurred then:

- i. The parole eligibility date shall be recalculated;
- ii. A new parole release date shall be established; and
- iii. The inmate shall be notified of the new parole release date.

2. Certify to the senior Board representative at the institution, within 72 hours prior to the date of release, that the inmate has maintained the credit pattern as established by the classification department. If the inmate has failed to earn the project credits then:

- i. The inmate's release on parole shall be deferred;
- ii. The parole eligibility date shall be recalculated;
- iii. A new parole release date shall be established unless good cause exists or suspend or rescind the parole release date pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-5; and

iv. The inmate shall be notified that release on parole has been deferred and that a new parole release date has been established.

(e) Within 30 days of the Board panel hearing, the Board panel shall issue a written notice to the inmate, the Department, the Board and the Prosecutor for the county from which the inmate was committed.

(f) Such notice shall consist of the decision of the Board panel, and, if the Board panel's decision is to deny parole or defer decision, the notice shall contain the reasons therefor, except information classified as confidential pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-2.1 or the rules and regulations of the Department.

(b) Such hearing shall be conducted at least 30 days or as soon as practicable in advance of the inmate's actual parole eligibility date.

(c) The Chairperson, when practicable, shall notify the chief executive officer of the institution, appropriate Department personnel and the inmate of the date of the hearing at least seven days prior to the hearing.

10A:71-3.20 Board hearing; notice of decision for adult inmates

(a) At the conclusion of the Board hearing, the Board shall take one of the actions as specified in N.J.A.C. 10A:71-3.18(a).

(b) If the Board establishes a parole release date based upon a projected eligibility date, the provisions of N.J.A.C. 10A:71-3.18(d) shall apply.

(c) If the Board determines that the inmate shall be placed in a half-way house facility for a specified time period as a pre-release condition, the Board shall refer the inmate's case to the Department for placement of the inmate in an appropriate half-way house facility. If the Department denies such placement, the decision and the reasons therefor shall be provided in writing by the Department to the Board. Upon receiving notice that placement has been denied, the Board shall determine whether the pre-release condition should be eliminated and the grant of parole affirmed or whether the inmate should be denied parole.

(d) Within 30 days of the Board hearing, the Board shall issue a written notice to the inmate, the Department and the Prosecutor for the county from which the inmate was committed.

(e) Such notice shall consist of the decision of the Board and, if the Board's decision is to deny or defer decision, the notice shall contain the reasons therefor, except information classified as confidential pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-2.1 or the rules and regulations of the Department.

10A:71-3.21 Board panel action; schedule of future parole eligibility dates for adult inmates

(a) Upon determining to deny parole to a prison inmate, a two-member adult Board panel shall, based upon the following schedule, establish a future parole eligibility date upon which the inmate shall be primarily eligible for parole.

1. Except as provided herein, a prison inmate serving a sentence for murder, manslaughter, aggravated sexual assault or kidnapping or serving any minimum-maximum or specific sentence in excess of 14 years for a crime not otherwise assigned pursuant to this section shall serve 27 additional months.

2. Except as provided herein, a prison inmate serving a sentence for armed robbery or robbery or serving any minimum-maximum or specific sentence between eight and 14 years for a crime not otherwise assigned pursuant to this section shall serve 23 additional months.

3. Except as provided herein, a prison inmate serving a sentence for burglary, narcotic law violations, theft, arson or aggravated assault or serving any minimum-maximum or specific sentence of at least four but less than eight years for a crime not otherwise assigned pursuant to this section shall serve 20 additional months.

4. Except as provided herein, a prison inmate serving a sentence for escape, bribery, conspiracy, gambling or possession of a dangerous weapon or serving any minimum-maximum or specific sentence less than four years for a crime not otherwise assigned to this section shall serve 17 additional months.

(b) Upon determining to deny parole to a young adult inmate, a two-member young adult Board panel shall, based upon the following schedule, establish a future parole eligibility date upon which the inmate shall be primarily eligible for parole.

(c) The future parole eligibility dates required pursuant to (a) and (b) above may be increased or decreased by up to nine months when, in the opinion of the Board panel, the severity of the crime for which the inmate was denied parole and the prior criminal record or other characteristics of the inmate warrant such adjustment.

(d) A three-member Board panel may establish a future parole eligibility date which differs from that required by the provisions of (a) or (b) and (c) above if the future parole eligibility date which would be established pursuant to such subsections is clearly inappropriate in consideration of the circumstances of the crime, the characteristics and prior criminal record of the inmate and the inmate's institutional behavior.

10A:71-6.7 Adjustment hearings; state prison parolees

(a) If the parole officer has probable cause to believe that a State prison parolee has violated a condition of parole, such violation not being a basis for revocation of parole pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-7, the parole officer may require that the parolee appear before a hearing officer for a review of the parolee's adjustment.

(b) Such adjustment hearings shall be conducted by a hearing officer appointed by the Chief of the Bureau of Parole.

1. The hearing officer shall be an impartial official and may not be directly involved in supervision of the parolee.

2. Such appointment shall be made by that authority of the Chairperson, and shall in no way limit or otherwise alter the authority of the Chairperson to designate or appoint a hearing officer for adjustment hearings in cases where the Chairperson deems such action appropriate.

(c) At least 14 days prior to the adjustment hearing, the parolee shall be notified in writing as to the time, date, and place of the adjustment hearing; the violation(s) of parole condition(s) alleged; the purpose of the hearing; the possible action which may be taken as a result of the adjustment hearing; and the following rights to which the parolee shall be entitled at the adjustment hearing:

1. The right to appear and speak in his or her own behalf.
2. The right to remain silent.
3. The right to present witnesses to testify in his or her own behalf as to matters relevant to the alleged violation(s) of parole.
4. The right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, unless the hearing officer determines that such witnesses would be subjected to risk or harm.
5. The right to present documentary evidence and any other relevant material or information.
6. The right to waive such hearing.
7. The right to request postponement of such hearing for a period of not more than 14 days.

(d) If the hearing officer determines at the adjustment hearing that the parolee has violated a condition of parole, the hearing officer may order the forfeiture of up to 365 days of commutation time credits granted on the parolee's maximum sentence(s) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 30:4-140.

(e) If the hearing officer orders any such forfeiture of commutation time credits, he or she shall file a notice of such action with the parolee, the Board and the Department within 21 days of the hearing. Such notice shall contain the procedures available to the parolee for appeal of the forfeiture.

(f) Any forfeiture of commutation time credits shall be appealable to the prison Board panel provided one of the following criteria is met:

1. The hearing officer failed to establish a violation of a parole condition.

2. The forfeiture of commutation time credits is unduly harsh or severe.

As amended, R.1985 d.213, effective May 6, 1985.

(b) Any such action by the preliminary hearing officer shall be appealable to the adult Board panel pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 10A:71-6.7(f).

See: 16 N.J.R. 3391(a), 17 N.J.R. 1096(a).

Substituted "adult" for "person".

10A:71-6.9 Discharge from parole

(a) The appropriate Board panel may grant any parolee a complete discharge from parole prior to the expiration of the maximum term for which he or she was sentenced, provided that:

1. Such parolee has made a satisfactory adjustment while on parole; and
2. Continued supervision is not required;
3. The parolee has made full payment of any assessment, fine, penalty, lab fee or restitution or the parolee has in good faith established a satisfactory payment schedule; or
4. In the opinion of the Board panel continued supervision is not warranted or appropriate based upon a review of the facts and circumstances considered pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:71-7.10, 7.11, 7.12, 7.15 and 7.16, 7.16A or 7.16B.

(b) The Board panel will consider requests for discharge after the following periods of parole supervision have been completed:

1. In the case of adult parolees serving life sentences, after a period of seven years provided the parolee has been under annual supervision status for the final two years.
2. Except as provided above, in the case of juvenile parolees for murder and manslaughter and in the case of adult parolees serving sentences for murder, manslaughter, kidnapping, aggravated sexual assault (including attempts), robbery first degree, arson, aggravated assault second degree, and sale or distribution or sale of controlled dangerous substance and possession of controlled dangerous substance with intent to distribute, after a period of two years provided the parolee is under advanced supervision status.

3. In the case of county parole absconders, after a period of two years from the expiration date of the original maximum sentence, provided the parolee has no known arrests.

4. In the case of juvenile and young adult parole absconders, after a period of three years from the date the parolee became an absconder, provided the parolee has no known arrests and provided the original maximum sentence has expired.

5. In the case of adult parole absconders, after a period of 10 years from the date the parolee became an absconder or after a period of five years from the expiration of the original maximum sentence, provided the parolee has no known arrests.

6. In all other cases, after a period of one year.

(c) If the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, determines that a parolee has made exceptional progress while on parole supervision, the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, may request that a waiver of the time periods above be granted by the appropriate Board panel. Such waiver may be granted by the appropriate Board panel for good cause.

(d) When a parolee has completed two years of parole supervision and thereafter on an annual basis, the parole officer and the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, shall review the case to determine whether good reason exists to require continued supervision.

1. If the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, determines at such review that good reason exists to require continued supervision, and unfavorable discharge determination shall be made, and a statement setting forth such determination and the reasons therefor shall be entered on the chronological supervision report.

2. If the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, determines that good reason does not exist to require continued supervision and that the parolee qualifies for discharge pursuant to (a) above, a favorable discharge recommendation shall be submitted to the appropriate Board panel.

3. The appropriate Board panel shall review requests for discharge and advise the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, of its decision within 45 days of receipt of the recommendation.

(e) The appropriate Board panel may provide a discharge from continued parole supervision:

1. In the case of a parolee who has received a non-custodial term for the commission of an offense and the parolee is to be under community supervision through a probation or parole agency in another jurisdiction; or

2. The parolee has clearly established that continued parole supervision under a community plan in this State or consideration of a formal transfer of supervision to another state would not be conducive to the timely continuation of the parolee's community reintegration.

(f) If discharge is granted, the appropriate Board panel shall issue a discharge certificate on the parolee.

(g) A term of post-incarceration supervision imposed pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:4A-44(d)5 may be terminated by the juvenile Board panel if the juvenile has made a satisfactory adjustment in the community while on parole or under such supervision, if continued supervision is not required and if the juvenile has made full payment of any fine or restitution.

10A:71-6.10 Transfer of parole supervision to out-of-State jurisdiction

(a) The appropriate Board panel may permit a parolee to reside outside the State pursuant to the provisions of the uniform act for out-of-State parolee supervision (N.J.S.A. 2A:168-14 et seq.) and the interstate compact on juveniles (N.J.S.A. 9:23-1 et seq.) if the Board panel is satisfied that such change will not result in a substantial likelihood that the parolee will commit an offense which would be a crime under the laws of this State.

(b) If a parolee seeks to transfer formal supervision of his or her case to another jurisdiction, the parolee shall notify his or her parole officer and complete the documents required by statutory or regulatory provisions.

(c) The District Parole Office or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, shall forward to the Board the completed required documents, a copy of an up-to-date chronological supervision report on the parolee's case, an assessment of the parolee's community adjustment, a copy of the parole certificate and a copy of any other document deemed relevant to the parolee's case.

(e) If the Board panel determines that transfer of the supervision of the parolee's case to an out-of-State jurisdiction is appropriate, the Board panel shall submit the case materials to the Department's Office of Interstate Services or the Commission, as appropriate. The Office of Interstate Services or the Commission, as appropriate, pursuant to the relevant statutory and regulatory provisions, shall forward the parolee's request for transfer of parole supervision to the designated out-of-State jurisdiction for investigation.

(f) Upon the Board panel receiving the completed community investigation by the out-of-State jurisdiction, the Board panel shall review the community plan approved by the out-of-State jurisdiction. If the community plan is deemed acceptable by the Board panel, the Board panel shall notify in writing the Office of Interstate Services or the Commission, as appropriate, and the District Parole Office or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, that supervision of the parolee's case may be transferred to the out-of-State jurisdiction. The Office of Interstate Services or the Commission, and/or the District Parole Office or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, shall notify the parolee of the Board panel's decision and issue the necessary travel documents.

(g) The Board panel shall not authorize the transfer of parole supervision to an out-of-State jurisdiction when:

1. The out-of-State jurisdiction has determined not to accept supervision of the parolee's case; or
2. The parole plan approved by the out-of-State jurisdiction is substantially different from the original parole plan submitted and reviewed by the Board panel and the alternate parole plan is not deemed appropriate by the Board panel.

(h) If the Board panel upon reviewing the parolee's case pursuant to (d), (f) or (g) above determines to deny authorization for the transfer of the parolee's case to an out-of-State jurisdiction, the Board panel shall notify in writing the Office of Interstate Services or the Commission, as appropriate, and the District Parole Office or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, of the determination. The District Parole Office or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, shall notify the parolee of the determination of the Board panel.
