The Library will host its fifth annual Fall Festival Saturday, September 19, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Many of the day's activities have become annual events because of their popularity with the hundreds of visitors that come every year. We're sure that as you look through this brochure you'll find something special that will especially interest you.

There will be two different children's programs during the day. These will be held at the same time as the adult programs so children will be kept safely occupied while their parents are enjoying the speakers.

Those who are spending the day at the Festival can bring a lunch or purchase a light meal from our Snack Bar. It is also possible to order a box lunch in advance by using the form on page three.

This year the Library has arranged transportation from 17 counties. There will be a small charge for all county transportation, payable in advance to the Library. If you are interested in using county transportation, please complete the form on page three by checking off the pick-up point you will use in your county. Your county transportation provider will contact you with final arrangements and pick-up times. For those coming by train, New Jersey Transit will provide assistance at both the Trenton and the Newark stations.

The Fall Festival is the Library's opportunity to meet those who use the program and to offer a day that is fun and informative. The Staff invites you all to attend this year's Festival. We think you'll be glad you did!

WHAT'S FOR SALE?

You may have to walk a little farther to find them, but they will again be at the Fall Festival. "They" are the Friends of the Library who have moved their booth from the lobby to the main hall of the Library. Make sure you stop to check out the goodies for sale this year. Once again tote bags and Braille mugs will be available. A new item this year will be bumper stickers, designed with the help of the Library's readers who submitted entries to a contest held earlier in the year. All items are reasonably priced, useful, and very attractive. If you would like to take home a reminder of your visit to the Library or pick up an unusual gift item, be sure to visit the Friends' booth in the main hall.

WHAT IN THE WORLD?

The Library has put together a challenging contest for the 1987 Fall Festival with a dozen next-to-impossible-to-recognize objects on hand to be identified. Each is a useful item that will probably be as difficult to recognize with sight as it is without. Entry forms and a page of not very helpful clues will be available in Braille or large print at the Library table in the main hall with prizes for those who can identify the most items.
