Thanks to McCarthy's nonsense, we've been forced to put our critical Armed Services Committee work on hold. Let's quit playing games and get back to business strengthening our nation's defense and providing for our servicemembers.

As a former federal prosecutor, I'm always excited to see women in the legal profession working together to provide fair representation to members of their communities. Last week, I sat down with the @JusticeDotOrg Women Trial Lawyers Caucus to discuss our shared priorities.
