Whitman on Robinson Resignation

NJ Gov. Christie Whitman was notified today of the resignation of Dennis Robinson as President and Chief Executive Officer of the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority.

"Dennis Robinson has been one of the most valuable players on New Jersey's sports team for nearly a decade. His stellar performance has helped to maintain New Jersey's position as one of Americas greatest sporting venues," Gov. Whitman said.

"Dennis has been critical to developing a 21st century vision for the Meadowlands Sports Complex. His imprint will be left on our facilities for years to come," she said.

"I have valued tremendously his contribution to our success and offer him my best wishes for his career at the NBA," she said.
