Statement by Governor Sherrill on Shooting in Union Township

Posted on 04/12/2026

"I have been briefed on the shooting last night in Union Township. As local law enforcement continues their investigation, we remain in close contact with officials on the ground.

"My thoughts are with those who were injured in the shooting, and with their families.

"I am grateful to our first responders for their swift action and continued efforts to keep the community safe."
