Governor Whitman to Help Break Ground on New Reptile House at Cape May County Zoo

Gov. Christie Whitman tomorrow will join officials from Cape May County when she helps break ground on the new Reptile House at the Cape May County Zoo.

The Reptile House was destroyed by fire in May, is being rebuilt through donations and $50,000 in state funds.

The zoo, which receives about 600,000 visitors each year, is home to over 100 species of wildlife, including tigers, lions, bears, zebras, buffalo, and giraffes. It features a Monkey House, Aviary, and Children's Zoo.
