Governor Sherrill Statement on Court Dismissal of Trump Administration Lawsuit Challenging ICE Executive Order

Posted on 09/4/2026

TRENTON - Governor Mikie Sherrill today released the following statement after a federal court dismissed the Trump Administration’s lawsuit challenging her executive order restricting federal immigration officers’ access to nonpublic state property:

"ICE is not making New Jersey’s communities any safer.

"That’s why I signed an Executive Order restricting access to nonpublic state property by its untrained agents. Once again, Trump tried to stop us, and once again we won.

"My number one priority will always be to protect New Jerseyans, and I will continue to fight for safe communities for everyone in our state."
