SUBCHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

13:55-1.1 Application for license

(a) Any person desiring to pursue the "private detective business" shall file an application with the Superintendent on a form designated S.P. 171 (individual or partnership) or S.P. 172 (corporation) and accompanied by any documents required by such application.

(b) The applicant shall also submit such other documents as the Superintendent may require pursuant to N.J.S.A. 45:19-12.

(c) All requests for applications shall be in writing.

13:55-1.2 Reproduction of license

No license certificate may be reproduced in any form except on written approval of the Superintendent.

Case Notes

License holder is responsible for employee's conduct and actions; employee identification subject to regulations. In re Rawls, 197 N.J.Super. 78, 484 A.2d 53 (Law Div.1984).

13:55-1.3 Employees

(a) Employees' statements and employees' fingerprint cards shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with number 1.

(b) A number, once assigned, shall not be used for any other employee or for a former employee subsequently re-employed.

(c) The number entered on the employee's statement shall be identical with that entered on the fingerprint card.

(d) Employees shall be refingerprinted upon reemployment after termination of employment; provided, however, that an employee who has been temporarily laid off or who is employed part time need not be refingerprinted until a period of more than 90 days has elapsed since the date of his former employment.

(e) Each licensee shall file with the Superintendent a current list of employees on the first day of July of each year.

(f) Every set of fingerprints forwarded to the Superintendent shall be accompanied by a form designated S.P. 487-A.

Case Notes

Failure of security company to register employees with Superintendent noted; license holder is responsible for employee's actions. In re Rawls, 197 N.J.Super. 78, 484 A.2d 53 (Law Div.1984).

13:55-1.4 Identification cards

(a) Licensees and employees of licensees shall at all times carry and exhibit when requested, only those identification cards which are prescribed in N.J.S.A. 45:19-17.

(b) In the event an employee fails, upon termination of his employment, or upon demand, to surrender his identification card, badge, uniform or other equipment furnished him by his employer, notification of same shall be given the Superintendent and the local police agency having jurisdiction.

Case Notes

License holder is responsible for employee's conduct and actions; employee identification subject to regulations. In re Rawls 197 N.J.Super. 78, 484 A.2d 53 (Law Div.1984).

13:55-1.5 Badges and uniforms

No particular type or style of uniform or badge is prescribed in these rules, other than required as to badges in N.J.S.A. 45:19-19 or prohibited by Chapter 2 of Title 52 of the Revised Statutes as to the use, exhibit and display of the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, but no licensee or employee of a licensee, shall, with intent to deceive or confuse the public, use a title, badge, uniform or other insignia which is likely to be confused with that of any law enforcement officer of the Federal government, a state or any political subdivision thereof.

Case Notes

Employment as guard by a security agency did not constitute "official duties" of a special policeman; while working as a guard, special policeman not permitted to carry a handgun without a permit or to wear his uniform and badge. In re Rawls, 197 N.J.Super. 78, 484 A.2d 53 (Law Div.1984).

13:55-1.6 Advertising

(a) No licensee shall, by the use of any letterhead, advertisement, or other printed matter, or in any manner whatever, represent that he is an instrumentality or agency of the Federal government or of the State of New Jersey or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

(b) No licensee shall advertise, solicit or contract for business in a name different from that under which he is currently licensed.

(c) No licensee shall conduct a business under a trade name unless and until he has obtained the written authorization of the Superintendent to do so. The Superintendent shall not authorize the use of a trade name which, in his opinion, is so similar to that of a public officer or agency, or of that used by another licensee that the public may be confused or misled thereby. The authorization shall require, as a condition precedent to the use of such name, the filing of a certificate of doing business under such name with the county clerk of the county where the licensee's principal place of business is located and with the Secretary of State in the manner provided by law.

(d) No licensee shall offer, by radio, television, newspaper advertisement or any other means of communication, to perform services at any location which is merely the location of an answering service unless full disclosure of that fact is made in the advertisement.

13:55-1.7 Prohibited acts

(a) No holder of a license issued under the Act may be a party to a franchise agreement nor accept money or other thing of value for the right to act as agent of the licensee. Possession of an employee's identification card shall not authorize the holder to engage in the business of private detective for his own reward or profit.

(b) No holder of a license under the Act may perform any of the services of a private detective, investigator or detective agency on a contingent or percentage basis, or make or enter into any agreement for furnishing services of any kind or character, by the terms or conditions of which agreement the compensation to be paid for such services to the holder of a license is partially or wholly contingent or based upon a percentage of the amount of money or property recovered, or dependent in any way upon the result achieved.

13:55-1.8 Active law enforcement officers

(a) No person who is an active member of the organized police department of this or any other state or political subdivision thereof, or who is an officer or investigator with an investigative agency of the United States of America or of any state, county or municipality thereof, shall be issued a private detective license, nor shall he be a qualifying member, officer or director of any firm, association or corporation licensed under the Act.

(b) Any person who either being licensed under the Act as an individual or being a qualifying member or officer or director of a corporation, firm or association licensed under the Act, who commences employment as a law enforcement officer in any of the categories mentioned in subsection (a) of this Section, shall surrender said license to the Superintendent during such employment if he be an individual licensee and resign his position as qualifying member, officer or director of a firm, association or corporation.

(c) In the case of a firm, association or corporation, if the individual who is required to resign is the qualifying member, the Superintendent, at his discretion, may reinstate the license upon receipt and approval of an application from another person who is qualified under the Act.

Case Notes

While police officers cannot act as or become a qualifying member, officer or director of a private detective agency, they are not prohibited from becoming or acting as employees. In re Rawls, 197 N.J.Super. 78, 484 A.2d 53 (Law Div.1984).

13:55-1.9 License continuation

Whenever a licensee ceases to meet the requirements of N.J.S.A. 45:19-12, the license may remain in effect for at least 60 days from the date of such cessation, upon written request to the Superintendent, and cause shown.

13:55-1.10 Change in type of license

(a) Any individual licensee intending to change his business to a firm, association or corporation, or any firm or association intending to change the form of its business to a corporation, shall apply to the Superintendent in the same manner as required for an original license.

(b) Upon issuance of the new license, the previous license shall be surrendered to the Superintendent.

(c) No refund or credit shall be made in respect to the fee paid for the unexpired term of the previous license.

13:55-1.11 Grounds for denial, revocation, suspension or refusal to renew a license

(a) The Superintendent may deny, revoke, suspend or refuse to renew a license upon determining that the applicant or licensee has:
