a) IM Response

The Treasury entered into various Memorandums of Understanding (MOU) with state departments. Each MOU contains terms and conditions specific to the programs and cost objects that are covered under the MOU. Each has undergone review at six levels:

1. An Initial Documentation Assessment to confirm key documentation has been submitted to begin testing
2. A crosswalk of MOUs specific to each department's programs with associated funding. These amounts are reconciled with funding reports from Treasury.
3. Terms and conditions are extracted and translated into testing criteria for subsequent compliance testing.
4. An Initial Review to confirm document completeness and complete testing in accordance with the sampling methodology (below).
5. A Lead QA/QC Review to review findings and deficiencies and finalize areas of non-compliance impacting reimbursement and determine final payment amount.
6. State approval to review findings and approve final observations and recommendations.
