MEDIA ADVISORY

Gov. Christie Whitman on Monday will visit AT&T Corporation in Basking Ridge to discuss her administration's second term priorities, including reigning in auto insurance and property taxes, preserving more open space and improving the quality of life for New Jerseyans.

During the visit, the Governor will participate in an employee forum and take questions from the audience. Employees at the company's facilities in Bridgewater, Bedminster and Middletown will also participate in the forum via e-mail and audio-link.

On Sunday, the Governor will deliver remarks during the Palm Sunday service at the Israel Memorial A.M.E. Church in Newark.
