Trenton, NJ – Governor Chris Christie have authorized an early dismissal for all state offices due to today's winter weather.

The Governor has initiated a staggered closing for state offices beginning at 2:00 p.m. this afternoon. The early dismissal does not include essential employees, who shall remain until the normal close of business. No state of emergency has been declared at this point.

Drivers are reminded to drive with caution, follow the rules of the road, stay alert and anticipate the inclement weather impacting their afternoon and evening commute. Unnecessary travel is not recommended.

Current road conditions are available at the New Jersey Department of Transportation website at www.NJ511.org.
