DIRECTIVE #12-22[Supersedes Directive #18-20 and Supplement to Directive #18-20]

Questions or comments may be directed to (609) 815-2900, ext. 55350.

TO: Assignment Judges
Trial Court Administrators*FROM: Glenn A. Grant, Administrative Director*SUBJ: Family – Entry of Default and Uncontested Divorce/Dissolution
Judgments Without Personal Appearances (Divorce on the Papers)*DATE: December 9, 2022

In specific circumstances, the entry of default and uncontested divorce/dissolution judgments may be permitted without personal appearances when one spouse files for divorce or termination, properly notifies the other spouse, and the other spouse has not filed any response with the court. In lieu of personal appearances, the judge decides whether to enter the judgment for divorce based on the papers filed with the court. This is also referred to as “divorce on the papers.”

This Directive supersedes Directive #18-20 (issued June 5, 2020) and Supplement to Directive #18-20 (issued July 19, 2021) which set forth standardized procedures for the entry of default and uncontested judgments without personal appearances in certain divorce/dissolution (FM) proceedings. This directive is being issued to make conforming revisions to the attached Instructions to Request the Entry of Default or Uncontested Divorce/Dissolution Without Personal Appearances and the Certification in Support of Judgment of Divorce form (CN12620).

To conform to the applicable statute and court rule, the following changes have been made to the instructions and the required certification form; the corrected versions are attached:

- Deleted “Is not planning to file for bankruptcy” from the “Request for Default or Uncontested Divorce (Dissolution) Instructions” and
- Deleted “I am not considering filing for bankruptcy” from the “Certification in Support of Judgment of Divorce” form.

Contact the Family Practice Division at (609) 815-2900 ext. 55350 with any questions. Additionally, self-represented litigants can contact the court ombudsman in the county where the action is filed or Legal Services of New Jersey at (732) 572-9100 or www.lsnj.org for sample forms.

Instructions to Request the Entry of Default or Uncontested Divorce/Dissolution Without Personal Appearances (Divorce on the Papers)

This procedure is available only in the following situations:

- Divorce/Dissolution of the marriage, civil union, domestic partnership, or complaint for annulment with no additional request for relief, or
- Divorce/Dissolution of the marriage, civil union, domestic partnership, or complaint for annulment with a signed property settlement agreement or the continuation of final orders entered in other proceedings resolving issues of equitable distribution, custody, parenting time, and child support, with no outstanding issues or assets that need to be addressed by the court, or
- Divorce/Dissolution of the marriage or complaint for annulment and a request by the plaintiff to resume any name used before the marriage or assume any surname, consistent with N.J.S.A. 2A:34-21.

Note: The judge has discretion to require a court appearance if any relief sought would inappropriately affect the defendant's rights. If an appearance is required, the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney will be notified in advance.

Procedures

1. Request for Default Divorce/Dissolution Without a Court Appearance

The request for divorce without a court appearance must be made in writing at the same time the Request to Enter Default is filed.

2. Request for the Entry of an Uncontested Divorce Without a Court Appearance

The request for divorce without a court appearance shall be made in writing by both parties.

Next Steps

1. Court staff will review the documents filed. If the documents are incomplete, staff will send a deficiency notice to plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney requiring that it be corrected. If the deficiencies are not satisfied within ten (10) days or at the discretion of the judge, the case will proceed with the requirement of a court appearance.
2. If the documents are complete, the case will be forwarded to a judge for review within five (5) days of the submission. If the judge is satisfied, the Judgment for Divorce/Dissolution will be signed and mailed to the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney. The plaintiff or their attorney must serve (properly deliver) the judgment to the defendant and their attorney.

Required Documents

The following documents must be filed with the court to proceed with the divorce/dissolution without a court appearance (on the papers).

1. Verified Complaint for Divorce, Annulment, Dissolution of a Civil Union, or Domestic Partnership,
2. Proof of Service of the defendant,
3. In adultery cases, notice to the alleged adulterer and proof of service which shall include that the alleged adulterer has not moved to intervene in the divorce case (has not filed any court documents in the case), or otherwise respond to the notice,
4. Request to Enter Default (only required if filing for a default divorce),
5. Certification or Affidavit of Non-Military Service with proof of the appropriate search (only required if filing for a default divorce),
6. Certification of Non-Collusion pursuant to Rule 5:4-2(c),
7. Certification or Affidavit of Insurance pursuant to Rule 5:4-2(f),
8. Confidential Litigant Information Sheet pursuant to Rule 5:4-2(g),
9. Certification of Divorce Dispute Resolution pursuant to Rule 5:4-2(h),
10. Certification that the plaintiff signed the Verified Complaint for Divorce, Annulment, Dissolution of a Civil Union, or Domestic Partnership and that all the allegations in the Complaint are true (only required if filing for a default divorce),
11. An original of the Proposed Final Judgment of Divorce, Annulment, Dissolution of a Civil Union, or Domestic Partnership that states that the matter was heard on the papers filed and that the court made no findings on the merits of the case,
12. Uniform Summary Support Order (USSO), if applicable (if filing for an uncontested divorce), and the related Child Support Guidelines Worksheet, and
 - a. If there is a deviation from the Child Support Guidelines, the USSO must include the reason(s) for the deviation.

13. Certification in Support of Judgment of Divorce

a. Continuation of Prior Court Orders

If the plaintiff requests the continuation of prior court orders, the Complaint or Certification must include copies of those orders and they must be identified in the body of the Certification.

b. Name Change

If the plaintiff requests a name change, the Complaint or Certification must include the last four (4) digits of the plaintiff's Social Security number and the plaintiff's date of birth. It shall also confirm that the plaintiff:

- has not been convicted of a crime under the name used during the marriage. (If the plaintiff was convicted of a crime under the name used during the marriage, a court appearance and testimony are required.)
- is not the subject of any criminal investigation or prosecution.
- is not changing their name to avoid creditors.
