Governor Murphy Announces Appointment of Christine Guhl-Sadovy as New Jersey Board of Public Utilities President

09/11/2023

TRENTON – Governor Phil Murphy today announced the appointment of Christine Guhl-Sadovy as President of the New Jersey Board of Public Utilities (NJBPUB). Guhl-Sadovy, a current NJBPUB Commissioner, will succeed President Joseph L. Fiordaliso, who passed away last week after an exceptional career dedicated to public service, including 17 years leading the NJBPUB.

“For nearly two decades, Joe served as an exemplary public servant whose commitment to the future of our state – and to the next generation of New Jerseyans – was unparalleled,” said Governor Murphy. “As NJBPUB President, Joe remained steadfast in his unwavering belief that we not only can – but must – cultivate a healthier and more sustainable planet for our children and grandchildren. I’m confident that Christine, who has demonstrated her commitment to these same values time and time again throughout her invaluable service in my Administration, will continue to build upon Joe’s lasting legacy. I look forward to Christine guiding our work to responsibly transition New Jersey to a clean energy economy, while putting the needs of consumers and New Jerseyans first.”

“The appointment of Christine Sadovy honors Dad’s legacy and ensures that the Murphy Administration’s critically important work to reverse the worst effects of climate change continues,” said Joseph A. Fiordaliso. “On behalf of the entire Fiordaliso family, I commend Governor Murphy for this appointment and extend our best wishes to Christine and the entire NJBPUB team.”

“I am deeply saddened by the passing of my dear friend Joe Fiordaliso, but will do everything I can to honor his legacy as BPU President,” said Incoming NJBPUB President Guhl-Sadovy. “Thank you to Governor Murphy for entrusting me with this responsibility. I look forward to continuing to serve the people of New Jersey in this role, and making the planet healthier for my son, Joe’s grandchildren, and all New Jerseyans.”

In June 2023, Guhl-Sadovy was appointed by Governor Murphy as NJBPUB Commissioner. Prior to her nomination, Guhl-Sadovy served as Cabinet Secretary as part of the Governor’s senior staff.

Guhl-Sadovy previously worked at the NJBPUB, rising to the position of Chief of Staff under President Fiordaliso and significantly advancing Governor Murphy’s clean energy agenda. She comes from a family dedicated to public service and is a lifelong New Jersey resident who resides in Lambertville.
