Gov. Whitman Plans Daylong Visit to Monmouth County Will Sign NJ KidCare Bills

Gov. Christie Whitman will spend the day in Monmouth County on Monday, July 26. The Governor will start the day at the Vietnam Veteran's Memorial in Holmdel to join the U.S. Postal Service in unveiling a new postage stamp commemorating the veterans from the Vietnam war.

Afterwards, Gov. Whitman will sign into law four bills that will allow more New Jerseyans to enroll their children in the state's health insurance program for children, NJ KidCare.

Gov. Whitman will also tour the Aberdeen-Matawan Train Station, present a check to the Monmouth County Freeholders representing the amount of state aid the county is receiving in the FY 2000 budget. She will also present a check to the Deal Lake Commission for restoration work on the lake and take a walking tour along Broad Street in Red Bank. The Governor will wrap up the day by presenting a check to the town of Keansburg for the restoration of its boardwalk at the Keansburg Borough Hall.
