CHAPTER 394.

AN ACT for the relief of the unemployed and dependents in the several counties and municipalities of this State and making appropriations therefor.

WHEREAS, The responsibility for the securing of employment for providing the necessities of life is primarily individual and the result of private effort and industry, and while the providing of relief of various kinds so far as it must be done out of public funds is the responsibility and function of local governments, by reason of the wide-spread unemployment resulting from existing economic and industrial conditions, relief and assistance that can be provided by private agencies and local governing authorities are not presently sufficient to meet the minimum needs of the people of this State, it therefore becoming necessary to supplement the local public and private relief work by State aid and support; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, The hardships occasioned by and attendant upon the lack of gainful employment and the economic depression generally prevailing are so acute and so affect the public health and welfare of the people that there is now an emergency which requires State recognition and aid; now, therefore,

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 19

A Joint Resolution of respect to the memory of United States Senator Dwight W. Morrow.

Preamble. New Jersey mourns the passing of Senator Dwight W. Morrow, distinguished citizen, diplomat and statesman. His friendliness, his tolerance and his faith in men marked the measure of his humanity. At the zenith of his outstanding service he remained a neighbor and friend. Absorbed in great affairs, he was gentle and unaffected. He walked the way of truth and duty. He served in all places with distinction. He taught the people by his example. He practiced his own philosophy of life. Honest, gentle, humble, men loved and trusted him. In the heart of the people it was known that "The American nation had once again bred a public figure of the first magnitude—a statesman who by the integrity of his spirit, the wisdom of his judgment, and the sympathy of his mind, was destined . . . to play a central role in the life of his people." Saddened by our loss, but humble before the Infinite, we bow to this tragic decree. And now

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Expressions. 1. That we hereby record this expression of our admiration and affection, our acknowledgment of the distinguished service which Senator Morrow rendered to his State, his Country and the World, and our sorrow at the loss of his brilliant leadership, and

Sympathy extended. 2. Be It Further Resolved, That we respectfully extend to the bereaved family of our distinguished citizen our sincere sympathy in their overwhelming loss, and

Resolution recorded in minutes and copy presented to family. 3. Be It Further Resolved, That this resolution be spread upon the official minutes of the Senate and the House of Assembly of the State of New Jersey and that an engrossed copy of this resolution, signed by his Excellency the Governor, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Assembly, be presented to the bereaved family.

Approved October 13, 1931.

Lawful rights preserved.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

The manifest need for restoration of prosperity makes imperative the reduction of all forms of waste, and the steady national drain of approximately 500 million dollars in property and nearly ten thousand lives in the past twelve months in preventable fire destruction constitutes one of the most serious and inexcusable forms of waste.

In the State of New Jersey during the past year the fire loss exceeded $20,298,000, of which over seventy-five per cent was due either to carelessness or lack of education.

THEREFORE, I, MORGAN F. LARSON, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do designate and proclaim the period from

October 4, 1931,
to
October 10, 1931,
as

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

I suggest that all citizens of the State take an earnest, active interest in this appropriate observance. All schools, civic associations, business organizations, women's clubs, and all others interested in public welfare should assist in every way possible in the reduction of our national fire losses, both to life and property.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

WHEREAS, In the passing on Sunday of Thomas Alva Edison to the Great Beyond, New Jersey has parted with the personal presence of another of her many distinguished sons. His God-given and well-nurtured genius, devoted to the accomplishment of all he visioned for the betterment of his fellow man, made him a world-wide figure who will ever be acclaimed by all. New Jersey paid its tribute to her honored son while he still lived by acquiring the land known as Menlo Park where Thomas Alva Edison, among his many other beneficent inventions, perfected the incandescent light, to be known forever as "Edison Park", and Governor Morgan F. Larson, honoring the Fiftieth Anniversary of the perfection of the incandescent light, did, by Proclamation, designate October 21, 1929, as the time for official celebration of "Light's Golden Jubilee". As a further honor, the hour of Thomas Alva Edison's funeral service, occurring as it does on Wednesday, October 21, 1931, two years after our State observance of Light's Golden Jubilee, should be designated in a manner to endure in our State records, as it will with his family and all who knew him and they are legion;

THEREFORE, I, JOSEPH G. WOLBER, President of the Senate, Acting Governor of the State of New Jersey, do issue this my Proclamation designating Wednesday, October 21st, at seven o'clock in the evening as a time when all users of electric lights within the State of New Jersey should suspend the use of the same for a period of one minute as a tribute to the memory of Thomas Alva Edison.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

November 11, 1931, marks the thirteenth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice.

There is no more significant event in our World History than the suspension of what will ever be recognized as one of the most terrible conflicts among civilized nations.

For that reason, the annual observance of Armistice Day not only affords the ways and means of paying our perpetual tribute to those who gave their lives for the sake of humanity in the World War, but also shows the necessity for ever and always maintaining peace and good will among men;

THEREFORE, I, MORGAN F. LARSON, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11th

ARMISTICE DAY,

and I would ask that two minutes of solemn silence be observed on the eleventh hour of the day, to be spent in silent prayer in memory of those who died in the war, and for the coming of world peace.

[SEAL] Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this ninth day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, and in the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-sixth.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Perpetuating a custom of long standing, and in accordance with an act of Congress, the last Thursday of November is observed as a day of national thanksgiving.

A consideration of the blessings which we as a nation enjoy should, first of all, be predicated upon a humble and grateful acknowledgment of our dependence upon Divine Providence, and our gratitude for the great gifts, both spiritual and material, which have been showered upon this most favored nation.

Perhaps this year, more than ever, we have reason to give thanks for the development of the spirit of charity which is being manifested on all sides, and which is of more real value than material possessions.

Let us likewise give thanks for the benefits which accrue to us by virtue of our form of government—that rich heritage left us by the devout and able founders of our country.

THEREFORE, I, MORGAN F. LARSON, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby designate

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26th,
as
THANKSGIVING DAY,

and I call upon the people of the State of New Jersey to gather in their places of worship, and in their homes, and there give thanks to Almighty God for the blessings which they have received throughout the year.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this twenty-first day

PROCLAMATIONS

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of New Jersey, this seventeenth day of February, [SEAL] A. D. one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, and in the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-sixth.

A. HARRY MOORE,
Governor.

By the Governor:
THOMAS A. MATHIS,
Secretary of State.

---

 PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

One of the prices which we have paid for our present civilization is the loss of many of our natural resources. Especially is this true in a State like New Jersey, with its great metropolitan districts and its dense population.

It is true that the State, through its various departments, is doing a great work in forest protection and reforestation, in the conserving and development of the soil, the utilization of our mineral resources, the prevention of pollution of its waters, the protection and propagation of fish, and the conservation of wild life; nevertheless, the general public needs to be awakened to the necessity of conserving and increasing our resources.

If we are not constantly exerting ourselves to supplant the losses which have occurred and to develop the resources which we have, not only will we ourselves suffer from our neglect, but future generations will also pay the price thereof.

THEREFORE, I, A. HARRY MOORE, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim the week beginning April 4, 1932, as

CONSERVATION WEEK,

and I would request that during this week public officials, public schools and other educational agencies, civic associations and all other organizations interested in the public welfare direct the attention of the people to the need of conserving and increasing our natural resources.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this first day of [SEAL] March, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, and in the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-sixth.

A. HARRY MOORE,
Governor.

By the Governor:

THOMAS A. MATHIS,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

WHEREAS, W. Warren Barbour was duly appointed a United States Senator, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dwight W. Morrow, who was elected on November 4, 1930, for the full term, to represent the State of New Jersey in the Senate of the United States,

THEREFORE, I, A. HARRY MOORE, Governor of the State of New Jersey, pursuant to law, do hereby issue this proclamation, directing that at the primary election to be held on Tuesday, the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, there shall be selected candidates for the office of United States Senator from New Jersey, to be voted for at the general election to be held on November eighth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey this twenty-ninth day of February A. D. one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, and in the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-sixth.

WHEREAS, This observance has been sponsored by the North Jersey Chapter of the Military Order of the World War and the New Jersey State Department of the Reserve Officers Association, and

WHEREAS, These organizations are composed of ex-service men who, in times of peril, responded to the call to arms and are now banded together in a solemn and patriotic effort to support and perpetuate the ideals of this country,

THEREFORE, I, A. HARRY MOORE, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6th,

as

and I call upon the people of the State to display from their homes and places of business, and from buildings of every kind, the National colors, as an evidence of patriotism and interest in our Regular Army and the National Guard of New Jersey.

[SEAL] Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this twenty-eighth day of March, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, and in the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-sixth.
