Gov. Whitman to Visit Charred School in Bergen County, Commend Emergency Personnel for Rescue Efforts

Gov. Christie Whitman this afternoon will visit the Community High School in Westwood, which burned to the ground this morning. All students at Community High School, a private school for handicapped children, were safely evacuated from the building. The Governor will commend fire and emergency personnel as well as school and community groups for their exceptional efforts to evacuate the children and bring them to safety.

Thursday, March 12, 1998 1:45 p.m. VISIT FIRE SCENE at Community High School 120 Washington Avenue (across from Westwood Police Department) Westwood (Bergen County)
