

APPLIANCE AND EQUIPMENT EFFICIENCY STANDARDS

Appliance Standards

Signed in 2022, the New Jersey Appliance Standards Law (P.L. 2021, c.464) established minimum efficiency standards for several categories of residential and commercial appliances. Beginning on Jan. 18, 2023 the sale, offer for sale, or lease of appliances in New Jersey that do not meet these specific efficiency standards will be prohibited. Additionally, the following products listed in the law, unless otherwise noted, will need to be labeled and certified that they meet the standards listed in the section below.

Thank you for your interest in the Appliance Standards Law (P.L. 2021, c.464). The Department of Environmental Protection has issued a guidance document in lieu of issuing a rulemaking to achieve the statutory requirements of the law.

We appreciate your feedback on the guidance document. In the meantime, please continue to direct all related inquiries to the Appliance Standards email address: appliancestandards@dep.nj.gov.
