The Search Begins for the Next State Librarian

The New Jersey State Library has begun our search for the next State Librarian. We are seeking a dynamic individual with proven leadership qualities to direct and further develop the New Jersey State Library. The successful candidate will be a forward-thinking leader and change agent who can shape and communicate a compelling vision for New Jersey's motivated and engaged library community. In addition, the N.J. State Librarian represents this innovative organization with national and regional library organizations. Learn more here.

Upcoming Webinars from New Jersey Hope and Healing

Are you struggling with stress and anxiety due to the COVID-19 Pandemic? New Jersey Hope and Healing is here to help. The Mental Health Association of New Jersey, in collaboration with the New Jersey Department of Human Services' Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services, Disaster and Terrorism Branch, offers this Crisis Counseling Program (CCP) through a Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) grant. The program includes a variety of virtual support and discussion groups that are available to provide emotional support. These groups are for people from all walks of life and address topics such as health care workers, caregivers, teachers, parents, adults, teenagers, Baby Boomers, Spanish-speaking, and many more. ## Webinar - Collections and Facilities: Caring for Your Resources During COVID-19

The challenges of reopening libraries during a pandemic have led to questions about the handling of materials, as well as the management of building operations. From allowing the virus to die naturally, to using disinfectants, to applying UV light or heat treatment--there are many options to consider. At 3 p.m. on Oct. 8, 2020, join this webinar to hear how some organizations are implementing policies and procedures around the use of these various treatments and considerations that could inform your own local decisions. You'll also hear an update on REALM testing efforts and the development of project resources. Register here.

Webinar - Displaced Homemaker Programs in New Jersey

Join us on Oct. 8, 2020 as we explain the Displaced Homemaker Programs available to New Jersey residents. Displaced homemakers are persons who have lost their jobs as homemakers after a substantial number of years in unpaid labor in the home caring for family members. The Displaced Homemaker programs assist individuals with obtaining short term education certificates, employment opportunities, computer technology updates, resume writing and career counseling with a goal of reaching economic self-sufficiency. Register here.

Register for the 2020 Virtual Trustee Institute

Join us on Oct. 17, 2020 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. for the annual Trustee Institute, hosted by the New Jersey State Library and the New Jersey Library Trustee Association. This year's virtual event will feature an introduction from State Librarian Mary Chute and NJ Library Trustee Association President Pat Pavlak. The event will also include discussion topics such as Roles & Responsibilities of Library Trustees, Trends & Topics in Library Security & Safety, Employment Law in the Age of COVID-19, and a tour of the redesigned United for Libraries Virtual Trustee Academy website. The Trustee Institute is open to all Library Board Trustees and their Directors for a $25.00 per library. Register here.

GRANTS AND OTHER OPPORTUNITES

Submit Your Intent to Apply to the New Jersey Council

for the Humanities Incubation Grant or Action Grant

From Sept. 14-30, 2020, applicants may submit an Intent to Apply to the New Jersey Council for the Humanities as the first step in applying for an Incubation Grant or an Action Grant. Incubation Grants support humanities projects that are in development. Action Grants support the implementation of new projects or expand existing programs. Learn more here.

Nominations Open for IMLS National Medal for Museum and Library Service

The Institute of Museum and Library Services is accepting nominations for the 2021 National Medal for Museum and Library Service, the nation's highest honor awarded to libraries and museums for service to their communities. Anyone—an employee, a board member, a volunteer, a member of the public, or a government official—is invited to nominate an institution. Museums and libraries of most disciplines and types are eligible. Regardless of who nominates the library or museum, in order to be considered, the institution must complete the online nomination form by 11:59 p.m. ET on Nov. 2, 2020. Learn more here.

Apply for the Libraries Transforming Communities: Focus on Small and Rural Libraries Grant

The American Library Association is accepting applications for a new grant opportunity, Libraries Transforming Communities: Focus on Small and Rural Libraries. This initiative seeks to provide community engagement resources and opportunities specific to the needs of library workers serving small and rural communities. Grant awards will include $3,000 to support costs related to applicants' proposed community engagement projects and professional development consisting of the "LTC: Facilitation Skills for Small and Rural Libraries" asynchronous e-course and facilitation guide. This opportunity is open to all types of libraries serving small and/or rural communities in the U.S. and U.S. territories. Apply by Dec. 2, 2020. Learn more here.

Apply for a Spectrum Scholarship

Applications for 2021 Spectrum Scholarships are now open through the ALA Scholarship Clearinghouse. The Spectrum Scholarship Program actively recruits and provides scholarships to American Indian/Alaska Native, Asian, Black/African American, Hispanic/Latino, Middle Eastern and North African, and/or Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander students to assist them with obtaining a graduate degree and leadership positions within the profession and ALA. Please share this information with future or current BIPOC MLS/MLIS students, and email spectrum@ala.org with questions. Applications close March 1, 2021.

As always, we look forward to your feedback. Please don't hesitate to forward any questions or concerns to the team in NJSL's Office of Communications, Marketing & Outreach.
