Governor to Present Volunteerism Awards at Drumthwacket Ceremony

Gov. Christie Whitman tomorrow will encourage more New Jerseyans to donate their time to helping others as she presents the Governor's Volunteer Awards during a ceremony at Drumthwacket in Princeton. The Governor will honor 10 New Jerseyans who have made outstanding contributions to their communities through volunteerism.

Later in the day, the Governor will appear at a fundraiser for U.S. Senatorial candidate Charlie Crist in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.
