(a) Students must be legal residents of New Jersey for a period of not less than 12 consecutive months immediately prior to the academic period for which aid is being requested. The residence of a student is defined in terms of domicile. Domicile is defined as the place where a person has his or her true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which, whenever he or she is absent, he or she has the intention of returning.

1. A dependent student, as defined in N.J.A.C. 9A:9-2.6, shall be considered a legal resident of the state in which his or her parent(s) is domiciled. However, any dependent student who continues to reside in this State and who has previously received at least one semester of payment of a State grant or scholarship shall continue to be eligible for State student financial aid during the course of each academic year at an eligible institution of higher education in New Jersey, despite his or her parent(s)' subsequent change of domicile to another state.

2. A student may not establish State residence solely for the purpose of attending a particular college and will not be considered as fulfilling the definition of domicile for the purposes of State student financial aid.

(b) When a student's domicile is in question, he or she must demonstrate proof of residence by submitting to the Higher Education Student Assistance Authority one or more of the following documents:

1. Student's and/or parent(s)' New Jersey driver license;
2. Student's and/or parent(s)' New Jersey State Income Tax-Resident Return(s); or

(c) The provisions for establishing legal residence in New Jersey as stipulated in (a) and (b) above are excepted for a dependent child of a parent who has been transferred to a military installation located in this State and such dependent child shall be considered a resident of New Jersey for the purposes of qualifying for State student financial aid under the State Tuition Aid Grant Program pursuant to P.L. 2005, c.60.

(d) Institutions that certify a student's state of legal residence shall maintain documentation concerning the student's New Jersey residency and shall provide this certified documentation, if requested by the Authority, to substantiate an appeal.
