

Morris County Vaccine Recipients

John “Jay” Alderton, Firefighter, Emergency Medical Technician, Fire Inspector, Morris County Fire

John “Jay” Alderton is a third-generation firefighter who began his fire service career back in 2001 as a Junior Firefighter for the Brookside Engine Company in Mendham Township and eventually worked his way up the ranks to serve as Chief in 2011 & 2012. He was hired by the Township of Morris as a career FF/EMT in September 2017. Jay also works at IMTT, an oil terminal in Bayonne, where he serves as the Deputy Chief of their Emergency Response Team. Jay currently resides in Morris Township with his wife Melissa, who is also a career firefighter for the town.

Ernest Doggett, Firefighter and Emergency Medical Technician, Trenton Fire Department

Ernest Doggett currently serves as a Firefighter, Emergency Medical Technical (EMT), and Engine 6 Interim Captain.

Sagar Kadakia, Emergency Medical Technician, Parsippany Volunteer Ambulance Squad

Sagar Kadakia has been volunteering with Parsippany Volunteer Ambulance Squad for almost 6 years. Kadakia rides every Tuesday night and is one of Parsippany's newest Lieutenants. He became an EMT while going to school at Baruch College in NYC where he obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Finance. He now works as Financial Analyst at GAF Materials Corporation in Parsippany and continues to Volunteer in his spare time.

Thomas Lyons, Emergency Medical Technician, Pequannock Township First Aid & Rescue Squad

Chief Lyons joined the Pequannock Township First Aid & Rescue Squad in March of 2009, after a 32- year career with the City of Clifton Fire Department. Serving as Chief of the squad since 2015, Tom has utilized his knowledge and experience during the COVID pandemic, to ensure that his emergency responders have been properly trained and equipped to operate safely.

Brian Patrick McKnerney, Sergeant, New Jersey State Police

Sgt. Brian Patrick McEnerney is part of Troop B Tactical Patrol Unit Squad #1. He is a member of the 142nd State Police Class, having graduated in 2005. He holds a Bachelor of Science from Montclair State University.

Michael Zarro, Sergeant, Mount Olive Police Department

Sergeant Michael Zarro is a 2007 graduate of the Morris County Police Academy. Upon graduation, he was assigned to the Patrol Division. In 2013, he was reassigned to the Investigations Division. In 2016, Sergeant Zarro was promoted and assigned to the Patrol Division. He has received numerous awards over the course of his career; including Educational Achievement, Honorable Service, and Life Saving Awards. He received his Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice from the County College of Morris, and from Centenary University his Bachelor's Degree in Sociology with a concentration in Criminal Justice I. He presently attends St. Elizabeth's University where he is working towards his Master's Degree in Public Administration.