RELEASE: November 18, 1999

Gov. Christie Whitman today signed Executive Order 104 designating Friday, November 26, the day after Thanksgiving, as a day off for state employees.

The Governor`s Executive Order follows a long tradition in New Jersey of designating the day following Thanksgiving as a day off.

For those workers who are required to work on that day, an alternate day off will be awarded.

A copy of the Executive Order is attached.
