information concealed as required in subsection (c) above indicating pending or approved trade secret claim status.

(e) All documents containing the information claimed to be a trade secret and supporting information which are submitted, shall be submitted to the appropriate Department by certified mail return receipt requested, by personal delivery, or by other means which requires verification of receipt, the date of receipt, and the name of the person who receives the document at the Department. Such documents concerning the Right to Know Survey or labeling of containers shall be mailed or delivered to:

Manager, Right to Know Program
New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services
PO Box 368
Trenton, NJ 08625-0368

Such documents concerning the environmental survey shall be mailed or delivered to:

Chief, Office of Pollution Prevention and Right to Know

Employers shall be notified before the department makes its determination and shall be provided 30 days to submit any information pursuant to N.J.A.C. 7:1G-6.6 except when the employer has filed a trade secret claim prohibited by N.J.A.C. 7:1G-6.5. In the event of such revocation, N.J.A.C. 7:1G-11 and 13 shall apply in the same manner as where the department rejects a trade secret claim.

(j) Nothing in these regulations shall be construed as prohibiting the incorporation of trade secret information into cumulations of data subject to disclosure as public records, provided that such disclosure is not in a form that would foreseeably allow persons outside the department, not otherwise having knowledge of such information, to deduce from it the trade secret information, or the identity of the employer who supplied it to the department.

(k) Any failure by an employer to submit additional information relevant to the trade secret claim requested by the department or to allow inspection of its facility by the department for purposes of determining the validity of a trade secret claim shall constitute valid cause for denial of the trade secret claim.

Case Notes

Occupational Safety and Health Act preempts the state Right to Know Law concerning employees in the manufacturing sector; the mandated disclosure of trade secrets under the Right to Know Law are not takings of property rights which trigger a right to compensation (citing former N.J.A.C. 7:1G-5 and 7:1G-12); Court of Appeals limited preemption to only pertain to protection of employees' health and safety in the manufacturing sector. New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce v. Hughey, 600 F.Supp. 606 (D.N.J.1985), affirmed in part, reversed in part 774 F.2d 587 (3rd Cir.1985).

7:1G-6.5 Prohibited claims

(a) A trade secret claim may not be made to the Department of Environmental Protection for the following information:

Designated persons other than administrative law judges shall sign an agreement to protect the confidentiality of the information before access is granted. (g) All documents containing information regarding a trade secret claim shall be stored in a locked file or safe in a locked office in the department. The file or safe and office containing such documents shall be locked when not being used by authorized persons.

(h) Persons authorized to use trade secret documents pursuant to (f) above shall do so in the office in which the trade secret documents are stored, unless authorized to remove the documents by the Commissioner or his designated representative. All trade secret documents which are removed shall be returned to the office in which the documents are stored each day by the end of the regular workday. The department shall maintain a log of persons who use documents containing trade secret information. The log shall include the person's name, title, and name of the document used, and the time of commencing and finishing use of the document. No trade secret document shall be delivered between offices by persons who are not authorized to handle said documents. Such documents shall not be duplicated unless necessary for purposes of N.J.A.C. 7:1G-6.15 or if the department determines that it is absolutely necessary to carry out its responsibilities under the Act.
