Congratulations to the United States Coast Guard, today is their 216th birthday

The United States Coast Guard traces their history back to August 4, 1790, when the first Congress authorized the construction of ten vessels, called cutters, to enforce tariff and trade laws, prevent smuggling, and protect the collection of federal revenue. They were known variously as the Revenue Marine and the Revenue Cutter Service and expanded in size and responsibilities as the nation grew.

These responsibilities included aiding mariners in distress, enforcing laws against slavery, piracy and preventing smuggling. They were also responsible for protecting the marine environment, exploring and policing Alaska, and charting the growing nation's coastlines, all well before the turn of the twentieth century.

The service was renamed in 1915 under an act of Congress when the Revenue Cutter Service merged with the Life-Saving Service. They began to maintain the country's aids to maritime navigation, including operating lighthouses, when the Lighthouse Service was transferred to the Coast Guard in 1939. In 1946, Congress transferred the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation to the Coast Guard.

In times of peace the Coast Guard operates as part of the Department of Homeland Security, serving as the nation's front-line agency for enforcing our laws at sea, protecting our coastline and ports and saving life. In times of war, or on direction of the President, the Coast Guard serves under the Navy.

The Coast Guard's motto is "Semper Paratus" – Always Ready.

Did you know: In 1790, when the Revenue Marine/Revenue Cutter Service was established by the First Congress of the United States these ships were the only maritime force available to the new government under the Constitution (the Continental Navy had been disbanded in 1785). So, between 1790 and 1798, there was no United States Navy and the cutters were the only warships protecting the coast, trade and maritime interests of the United States.

Famous Coast Guardsmen: Buddy Ebsen, actor; Blake Edwards, writer, director and producer; Arthur Feidler, conductor; Alan Hale Jr., actor; Alex Haley, writer; Sam Nunn, former Senator (GA); Arnold Palmer, professional golfer; Caesar Romero, actor and Ted Turner, businessman.

Helping one of our own

One of our fellow employees, Ms. Sandra Langley, suffered a terrible loss last weekend. A tragic fire resulted in the loss, not only of her home, but most importantly, her daughter and two grandchildren.

Ms. Langley, who is a Nurses Aide at the Veterans Memorial Home at Vineland, can use our help as she begins to rebuild her life.

A collection box has been placed in our lobby for your donations of clothing and household items for Sandra. Monetary donations are being collected by Ms. Cindy Leese in our Human Resource Division. Checks should be made payable to: Sandra Langley Fire Relief Fund.

Because of the generosity of the DMAVA employees, along with the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3020 and Leonard Saxton Memorial VFW Post 6590, more than $4,000 has been collected to this point.

Thank you for your generosity.

For the Families

Grants available for assistance and recreation

Happy Summer! Now is the time that many families and kids enjoy vacations and day trips, camps, picnics, and family visits. Unfortunately, because of increased deployments and the financial and emotional stress associated with them, many military families might find these activities difficult to arrange. This is why The Women's Opportunity Center at the YMCA of Burlington County in Mt. Laurel, N.J., is pleased to remind military members that grant funds are available not only for financial emergencies and crisis situations, but also to provide recreational and stress relieving activities such as camps and classes.

This grant, provided by the Department of Community Affairs is available to spouses of deployed military personnel in all branches of service in the state who are income eligible. Applicants can expect to fill out very minimal paperwork (one page) and receive their approval and funds within a week of completed application.

Director of the Center, Cathi Rendfrey, said the YMCA and the Women's Opportunity Center are proud and honored to be able to come to the aid of the military at such a critical time.

For more information and an application, contact Fawn Mutschler at 856-234-6200, ext. 235 or e-mail: fawnm@ymca-bc.org.

Vets' federal hiring preference changes for Guard, Reserve

Beginning June 9, National Guard and reserve members released from active duty will get the same veterans' hiring preference for federal jobs as those who are separated or retired from regular active-duty assignments.

Under the new rules, which Congress approved last year as part of the 2006 Defense Authorization Act, the definition of a veteran expands for the purposes of getting extra credit when seeking a federal job. Previously, veterans' preference applied only to people "separated" from active duty under honorable conditions.

Under the new policy, hiring preference would extend to any person discharged or released from active duty if they had more than 180 consecutive days of duty since Sept. 11, 2001, served in a war or in a campaign for which a campaign badge or expeditionary medal was authorized. Also, the person who is discharged or released must have received an honorable or general discharge.

"The Moving Wall" is scheduled to visit New Jersey

"The Moving Wall" is the half-size replica of the Washington, DC Vietnam Veterans Memorial and has been touring the country for almost twenty years. When John Devitt attended the 1982 dedication in Washington, he felt the positive power of "The Wall." He vowed to share that experience with those who did not have the opportunity to go to Washington.

On June 14-19, 2006, the Medford New Jersey Township Council will sponsor "The Moving Wall" exhibit at Freedom Park, 86 Union Street, Medford, New Jersey. Opening ceremonies are planned for Wednesday evening, June 14. For further information, please contact the Recreation Department at 609-654-2512, or visit www.medfordtownship.com or www.themovingwall.org.

Handy tips and hints -

Blood stains on clothes? Not to worry! Just pour a little hydrogen peroxide on a cloth and proceed to wipe off every drop of blood.

To remove old wax from a glass candleholder, put it in the freezer for a few hours. Then take the candleholder out and turn it upside down. The wax will fall out.

To clean artificial flowers, pour some salt into a paper bag and add the flowers. Shake vigorously as the salt will absorb all the dust and dirt and leave your artificial flowers looking like new!

Place fabric softener sheets in dresser drawers and your clothes will smell freshly washed for weeks to come. You can also do this with towels and linen.

A Smile for your weekend
