

Community Conversations: NJ's COVID-19 Storytelling Project

Participant 490

Interviewed March 2021

Translated and transcribed May 2021

Interviewer: Thank you so much for sharing your experience with me today. Um, would you mind answering the first question just for me? How has your life changed?

Participant: Changed my life, so much.

I: And—you can share in Spanish, if you want.

P: Many people were left without a home in New Jersey. There was not information shared to people for COVID aid. There were difficulties and sadness due to this pandemic. Family members are in other countries, but the community remained together. We are now fighting together against this pandemic.

I: Absolutely, thank you. Thank you so much for your time.
