By notice dated April 15, 2026, the Supreme Court requested comments on proposed amendments to the Regulations governing the Board on Attorney Certification (“Board”). Through the proposed regulation amendments, the Board would expand the specialty areas for certification from the present five (civil, criminal, matrimonial, municipal court, workers’ compensation) to seven by adding tax court law and residential real estate law as new areas of certification. In addition to expanding into these two new areas of certification, the proposed amendments also incorporate a variety of amendments to update the Board’s regulations to conform to current practice.
