ICYMI: NJ TRANSIT Named as One of America's Best Large Employers by Forbes

02/14/2024

2024 List Has Agency in the Top Eight of All Employers in the Transportation and Logistics Industry

NEWARK – For the fourth straight year, NJ TRANSIT has been recognized by Forbes as one of the best places to work. This year the agency was named as one of the best large employers in the nation on the 2024 Forbes America's Best Employers List. This recognition builds upon NJ TRANSIT's standard of excellence after recently being named the winner of the coveted 2023 American Public Transportation Association (APTA) award for Outstanding Public Transportation System, from among the largest transit systems in North America.

"NJ TRANSIT's latest accolade is further evidence of the agency's comprehensive transformation since the outset of my Administration," said Governor Phil Murphy. "This significant honor confirms that NJ TRANSIT is not just a world-class public transportation system but a nation-leading employer as well, one that prioritizes the growth, satisfaction, and inclusion of the men and women who keep New Jersey moving."

"Forbes' prestigious and independent evaluation has once again recognized NJ TRANSIT's considerable efforts over the past six years to build a culture of excellence, inclusiveness and employee satisfaction – this time naming us one of the best employers in America," said NJ TRANSIT President & CEO Kevin S. Corbett. "This recognition reaffirms our position as an employer of choice in our region, and is a testament to the hard work, dedication and commitment of so many in our organization."

The 2024 Forbes America's Best Employers List was compiled through independent surveys from a vast sample of over 170,000 U.S. employees working for companies employing at least 1,000 people within the United States. NJ TRANSIT ranked 178 out of all large employers nationwide, and in the top eight of all employers in the "Transportation and Logistics" industry.

The final score was based on two types of evaluations:

- Personal – Evaluations given by employees themselves, also known as direct evaluations.
- Public – Evaluations given by friends and family members of employees, or members of the public who work in the same industry – also known as indirect evaluations. A much higher weight was placed on personal evaluations.

This resulted in two sub-lists: one for "Mid" sized organizations (those with 1,000 to 5,000 employees) and "Large" sized organizations (those with more than 5,000 employees).

Statista, who Forbes partnered with to conduct the survey, publishes hundreds of worldwide industry rankings and company listings with high-profile media partners.
