Union City Mayor Brian Stack: Hoboken Story "Far-Fetched"

Newark Star-Ledger

By Naomi Nix
January 21, 2014

Add Union City's Democratic Mayor Brian Stack to the list of politicians coming out to support Gov. Chris Christie.

Stack told CNN's "The Lead with Jake Tapper" that he has doubts about allegations from Hoboken Mayor Dawn Zimmer that Christie's office withheld Hurricane Sandy aid funding because she didn't support a development project in Hoboken that the governor favored.

"I just think the story is far-fetched," Stack told CNN. "My relationship with the governor and his staff and this administration has been one of the best."

Stack called Christie "responsive" governor while giving him an endorsement during a campaign rally last year.
