Tips to Help You Safely Deck Your Halls

The Holiday Season means road trips, package wraps and ribbons, a fully trimmed tree, and more challenges. Consider these few tips for planning and safety this Holiday Season.

Safety Checklist before the Holidays

- ◆ Put any fuel that can catch on fire in a safe container outside the home.
- ◆ Test your home's multipurpose fire extinguisher.
- ◆ Test the batteries in your fire alarm.
- ◆ Clear any clutter out of escape routes from your home.
- ◆ If toddlers will be visiting, install safety gates at tops and bottoms of stairs.
- ◆ Check your throw rugs for non-slip backings.
- ◆ Put nightlights in hallways.
- ◆ Test the ground fault circuit interrupters (GFCIs), both indoors and outdoors.

Holiday Decorations and Tree Trimming

- ◆ Before you buy a live tree, bend some needles in half. If they break easily or don't spring back, the tree is too dry.
- ◆ At home, put your tree in a non-tip stand kept filled with water.
- ◆ Place it at least three feet (one meter) away from a heat source, and near an electrical outlet.
- ◆ Before you string on the lights, inspect the bulbs, sockets, and cords for damage. Never put candles on a tree.
- ◆ String no more than three strands of lights together.
- ◆ If you buy a decorative plant for the holidays, ask the florist if it's poisonous to kids or pets. Keep questionable plants out of children's reach.

Reach For The Star - But Don't Reach Far!

- ◆ Face a ladder while climbing, and wear non-slip soles.
- ◆ When reaching to crown your tree with an ornament, keep your body centered on the ladder.
- ◆ On a stepladder, stand no higher than the second rung from the top.
- ◆ When nailing Santa onto the roof, remember that the highest safe standing level of an extension ladder is third rung from the top.
- ◆ Place your outdoor ladder well away from power lines, on level ground.

Great Safety Gifts to Give and Get

- ◆ Smoke alarm
- ◆ Cooking thermometer
- ◆ Car emergency kit
- ◆ Reaching aids
 - ◆ Safety glasses / goggles
 - ◆ Escape ladder
 - ◆ Fire extinguisher
 - ◆ Carbon monoxide detector

Make sure you keep these safety tips in mind keep your Holidays a joyous occasion for everyone!.

Officials offer guidance for GI Bill recipients activated for Hurricane Sandy operations

By Sgt. Darron Salzer, National Guard Bureau

After the activation of more than 12,000 National Guard Soldiers and Airmen along the East Coast in response to Hurricane Sandy, officials want to make Guard members aware of the steps they need to take to ensure they don't lose their education benefits.

Guard members receiving any Department of Veterans Affairs education benefits for the current semester – and who were also put on state active duty orders for Hurricane Sandy response and recovery – are encouraged to immediately contact their educational institutions and notify them of their activation. Guard officials also recommend these Soldiers and Airmen request alternate arrangements for making up missed assignments and/or completing their courses.

Schools will authorize alternate arrangements based upon their individually published policies, but it is again up to the Soldier or Airmen to discuss these policies with their institutions, officials said.

The VA does not require schools to allow students to make up assignments or to grant students incompletes.

Officials said the VA will allow individuals up to 12 months to complete coursework for a course in which they receive an "incomplete" grade, but Guard members must discuss incompletes with their education institutions. If individuals do not complete the coursework within the 12 months, the VA will create a debt for the course that will need to be repaid by the student.

If schools do allow students to make up coursework without dropping the class, an individual's Basic Allowance for Housing will not be affected. However, officials said that if a student receives an incomplete and the course is not completed within the 12-month period, the VA will create an overpayment for the course to include payments for tuition, fees, books and the Basic Allowance for Housing.

Officials warned that students who are not successful in making arrangements with their schools to stay enrolled will stop receiving BAH payments on the date they are dropped from a course.

Nominate a young patriot for 2013 Military Child of the Year!

Operation Homefront has announced that nominations for the Military Child of the Year Awards are being accepted online at MilitaryChildOfTheYear.org through Dec. 15. Winners will be recognized April 2013.

The Military Child of the Year Award recognizes children who stand out among their peers. Ideal candidates for the award demonstrate resilience, strength of character, and thrive in the face of the challenges of military life. These young heroes embody leadership within their families and communities.

This award is presented to an outstanding child from each branch of service – Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard. The winners each receive $5,000 and a laptop, and are flown with a parent or guardian to Washington, D.C., for a special recognition ceremony on April 11.

In previous years, recipients have had the honor of meeting Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff General Martin Dempsey, and first lady Michelle Obama, who were guest speakers for the event awards ceremonies.

"With so much uncertainty living in a military family, from constantly having to move to knowing that a parent is fighting for our country, it is amazing to see how strong these young people are to excel in the face of these challenges," said Jim Knotts, president and chief executive officer of Operation Homefront. "It's not just the military members who serve, but their families as well. We think these young patriots deserve to be honored for their sacrifice and their leadership."

For more information on how to nominate a child in your community, to become a sponsor, or to see photos from past events, please go to MilitaryChildOfTheYear.org.
