Gov. Christie Whitman today announced plans to take her third annual spin down the New Jersey coastline. She will lead a bike tour through Monmouth and Ocean counties on Friday, July 31.

The Governor's bike tour will take her from West Long Branch, along the coast, to Island Beach State Park. The Governor's tour will stop in a number of towns along the way including Belmar, Sea Girt, Point Pleasant, and Seaside.

The Governor's stops will include numerous shops, boardwalks, the State Police Training Center in Sea Girt, and the construction site of the Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band Playground.

Members of the press are invited to participate in the ride. A more detailed schedule will be released next week.
